- 1. Cut out the flag and trim to the navy border
- 2. Create the flagpole by either rolling a sheet of paper/card into a tube and securing with tape or glue, or using any thin stick, such as a pencil or chopstick
- 3. Place your flagpole in the centre of the paper flag, fold in half horizontally and secure with tape or glue
- 4. Just pop your flag in your pen pot or somewhere on your desk at work to send a message about inclusion of people with gender critical beliefs amongst the diversity at work.
