Dear Prime Minister

We ask you to take urgent action to halt an escalating campaign of violence and intimidation against women in the name of “trans rights”. Women are being threatened with social ostracism, loss of livelihood and physical violence; shouted down and intimidated at public events; and even subjected to physical violence – all for insisting on their freedom of belief and freedom of expression, and calling for existing sex-based legal protections to be upheld.

We urge your government to issue a call for evidence and to commission a rapid review on the impact of extreme transactivism on women’s rights, as it has done with other emerging threats to civil liberties and the democratic order. This will enable you to identify the specific actions that must be taken by the police, Crown Prosecution Service, courts and prisons to ensure that women’s rights are upheld.

Escalating threats

The campaign of intimidation and violence against women has been obvious for some time. The latest shocking example came on 31st August, when a violent criminal was acquitted on charges of inciting violence against women, despite video evidence.

At the Trans+Pride rally in London on 8th July, Sarah Jane (formerly Alan) Baker, who served 30 years in prison for horrific crimes, including kidnapping, torture and attempted murder, told the crowd: “If you see a TERF, punch them in the fucking face.” This incitement, and the response of the whooping, cheering crowd, were captured on film.

“TERF” stands for trans-exclusionary radical feminist. It is a slur often accompanied by misogynistic and sexualised threats. It is used against women who recognise the fact that men commit violence at greater rates than women, and that men cannot become women by changing their name, clothing or parts of their anatomy. This belief is also termed “gender critical”.

Initially, the Metropolitan Police brushed off women’s complaints about Baker’s threatening words. Only after multiple complaints from women and a public outcry did they arrest Baker. Despite his history of extreme violence and the evidence captured on video, the court accepted his explanation that his words were a “joke”, merely intended to get him some publicity and newspaper headlines.

A criminal justice system that is failing women

A woman did not commit kidnap, torture and attempted murder, spend 30 years in prison for these crimes and then dedicate her days to rabble-rousing against women who defend their rights and will not be silent.

A man did.

Similarly, the criminal justice system panders to rapists, child abusers and other violent men who demand to be referred to as women. It demands at every step that these men's victims comply with this language, concealing the truth of male violence.

When women try to speak in public, the police fail to protect them from mobs of shouting, shoving, frightening men. When women are assaulted by these men, the police and Crown Prosecution Service are reluctant to bring charges. When a charge is brought, as we have seen with Baker, the courts fail to recognise the severity of the crime, or that it is part of a wider campaign of intimidation.

A whistleblower in the Metropolitan Police has revealed that at an official event for "Trans Day of Remembrance", a speaker told officers that anyone concerned about transgender ideology was a bully and bigot motivated by hate. Officers booed and hissed when a well-known women's-rights campaigner was mentioned.

This dismissal of women's victimisation is familiar to all women who campaign against male violence. Police dismiss domestic violence as "both sides" and regard women as bringing it upon themselves by "nagging". Women who complain about harassment on the street or at work will be told that they "can't take a joke". Women who are assaulted are told their own behaviour is the cause, and that they were "asking for it".

A campaign of intimidation

By now it is obvious that extreme transactivism constitutes a broad and sustained campaign against women who stand up for women's rights. The threats made by extreme transactivists like Baker are not merely theoretical. Men who harass women under the banner of transactivism do not restrict themselves to screaming abuse at women's rallies: they wave signs with slogans such as "Decapitate TERFs" and "Kill JK Rowling". And on occasion they commit physical assault.

This public intimidation and violence must be seen in the context of attempts – often successful – to destroy the livelihood of any woman who speaks up for women's rights. On the internet, in the workplace and in schools, universities, hospitals and other services, a woman labelled a "TERF" will be inundated with sexual and violent threats. She will be told to recant and apologise.

If she responds by explaining why it is important to retain protections for women and girls, she may be reported to her employer and often to the police. Shockingly, their powers of investigation are often then subverted to become tools of misogynistic abuse and coercion of women.

The most high-profile victim of this abuse is the author JK Rowling, who has written carefully and compassionately about sex and gender and has received death threats. She wrote: "We're living through the most misogynistic period I've experienced."

But thousands of ordinary women have been targeted too. In 2018 it was revealed that a Facebook group of academics acting in the name of “trans rights” were targeting gender-critical academics such as Professor Kathleen Stock. One member said: “File a hate crime report against her, and then the chairman and vice-chair [of her department].” Another said: “Drag them over the fg coals.”

We call on you, prime minister, to lead the fightback. We urge you to condemn the violence and intimidation against gender-critical women, to commit to addressing it and to open a call for evidence.

Yours sincerely

Stop the hate campaign against women

These are the comments added to Sex Matters' letter to Prime Minister Rishi Sunak asking him to condemn the violence and intimidation against gender-critical women.

From 1st September to 31st October 2023, the letter was signed by nearly 15,000 people and more than 3,000 of them left a comment. Sex Matters delivered the letter and a print-out of the comments to 10 Downing Street on 9th November 2023.

First name (or initial)	Comment
Chris	Baker is a clear risk to gender critical women. Whether guilty of a public order offence or not, Baker's probation must be rescinded for this clear threat, and he must be forced back into prison under normal probation guidelines.
Ruth	Women are treated disproportionately harshly if suspected of 'hate crime' against trans people but when a woman defending our sex based rights is assaulted by transactivists the police/court system is all too happy to give him a 'slap on his wrists and send him on his way. This must stop!!!
Liz	Enough is enough. These thugs have got away with terrorising women for far too long.
Nadia	Time to stand up for women.
Mary	These threats of violence, laughed off as a 'joke' by the man who made them and many men who heard them, are nothing new to women. A 21st century brand of 'burn the witch'. Failure by government to hold them accountable emboldens all who would intimidate and silence women.
Nicola	Threats against women are not a joke
fiona	Thank you for taking this action. These threats need to be recognised as hate speech - serious and potentially life threatening. I see no reason to believe this behaviour was 'as a joke'. It is frightening that national organisations, with responsibility for women's safety, are backing this belief.
Fred	As a grandfather of three girls, a former teacher and a self-identified believer in rationality, I find myself appalled by the nonsensical, harmful trans-lunacy practices my country [or at least many of its major bastions - BBC, NHS, Guardian, Amnesty, et al] has fallen prey to. Wake up! And act.

- Jo Without standing up to this extreme misogyny the government cannot claim to be against violence meted out to women and girls.
- Frances As a woman a daughter a sister a mother to three adult sons.
I am appalled at the fear and violence women and girls are experiencing for no other reason other than they are biological females. If we don't address this insanity head on we are hurtling towards sheer anarchy.
Please help women now.
- Christine As an older woman I thought finally we had achieved equality. Women have less rights and protections now than in the 1970's We are silenced, abused and lose our careers for stating simple biological facts. I should not be scared to enter women only spaces but often they are occupied by men.
- Eleanor No woman should feel threatened by this person.
- Ermine We need action. We face aggressive opposition if we have meetings in our local city. Women are not free to assemble and meet in the public square or to advertise a meeting, without arranging security.
- Daniel It's shocking to me that the judge played along with Mr. Baker's claim that his incitement to violence was merely a joke, as if that made it ok anyway. The fact that Mr. Baker was referred to in court as "she" does show that the courts have an institutional bias in favour of gender identity ideology
- Margaret I am not a feminist as defined in this day and age but I believe in equal rights for women. Women worked hard and long for the progress made in women's rights. What we are experiencing today is the elimination of women.
I will not be voting for any candidate who does not support women in this fight.
- Teresa My life-saving operation was cancelled because I objected to a male nurse with a 'gender identity' invading my pre-op assessment and asked for same sex post-op nursing care. The NHS has also abandoned safeguarding principles and placed women at risk in order to prioritise male sexual expression.
- Helen Women matter.
- Jen It's time the government, opposition & the media started realising that transactivism is not just threatening women's safety but is encouraging violence against women.
Enough fellas! We matter! Sex Matters
- Rachael Enough of putting men's feelings before the safety of women and girls.
I have had enough and I worry about the most vulnerable of us.

I am sick of the violence against women not being taken seriously by our politicians, our police and the justice system.
Consistently this government fails us.

- Christine It can't be acceptable that violent men are threatening women in public, and the judiciary's response is 'boys will be boys'. If our society can't keep us safe we will find our own ways.
- Ruth If women have no rights, you don't have my vote.
- Hilary Women are being harassed by the police for tweets, but Baker gets away with urging an angry crowd to violence against women. What is wrong with this picture?
- Caitlin We must uphold women's rights and children's safeguarding as a matter of priority.
- Sandra Women deserve to be listed to!
- Jackie I want a level playing field for all adult human females in all parts of society. Respect reality, stop the offensive treatment of women.
- Janet The rights of women are being taken away from us by the nhs also we are not allowed to say pregnant women or breast feeding etc it is a absolute disgrace, men can not be women, I am insulted by men saying they are women.
- Sharon I'm speechless... and they're all men; Prime Minister, Leader of the opposition, London Mayor, many Police Chiefs....
- Ruth The endless nonsense about 'both sides' allows our cowardly politicians to turn a blind eye to this persistent and dangerous behaviour. This is male violence, fuelled by misogyny. It needs to stop now.
- Kelly People walk around with t-shirts that literally say, "Kill a Terf." At a rally, this man with a microphone said, "Punch a Terf." If he had said, "Punch a Jew," it would have been a threat. Are women who believe in gender-critical views to be less than any other group of people in the UK?
- Beth Misogyny is worse now than 40 years ago and I didn't think that was possible.
The UK has become a dangerous place to be a women who dares to voice a dissenting opinion.
This has happened under Tory Govts which it shameful.
- Jan There seems to be a double standard in that police will jump to investigate unfounded and vexatious complaints against women simply attempting to defend their rights but dismiss and ignore the really nasty, threatening behaviour of transactivists, who are creating a climate of fear and intimidation.

Maria Hatred and violence against females by males is now fully embedded (and normalised) in society. I'm completely fed up by this government turning a blind eye to what is so terribly obvious: a misogynistic movement calling for the dehumanisation and total annihilation of women. Make it stop.

Janet Violence against women is escalating. It is now wearing new clothes in the form of trans activism. Police, judiciary, education, health, civil service are all complicit in the promotion of this new religion. It is an ideology, a belief, without substance or any basis in reality.

Gemma Do the right thing boys. #Maaates #HaveAWord & show us you not really the woman haters you all look like right now.

Tracey I have no problem making my name public to further this cause. Men identifying as women with an aggressive agenda is simply unacceptable in today's world of misogyny. young women have a hard enough path to walk in life without being afraid to defend their rights to be a REAL WOMAN.

Beverley I am a party member and ask the Gov to stand up for women.

Vanessa Enough. We need leaders to wake up and remove the special Status of men with fetishes and identity issues.

Adele This is radicalisation and terrorism against women. Please take action.

Robert Please do what you have the power to do to protect our women and girls.

Vicky A woman was questioned by police recently for taking a photo of a women's rights sticker.
Alan Baker, incites violence at a public meeting, cheers from the crowd. His defence? Just a stunt, wanted publicity, only joking, I'm an idiot. He's not. He's a violent convicted offender who was on licence

Scobie Please pay attention to this. Women cannot be left in a position where threats of violence are treated so lightly

Sara I am tired of attending meetings to discuss issues affecting women and having to walk past people screaming abuse. I am a 67 year old woman and walk with a stick. When I asked a police office why I had to put up with this I was told 'they weren't breaking any laws'. It is wrong.

- Kate I've gone from being shocked to being utterly terrified. These are truly dark times. People cannot change sex. We are destroying a generation with all the lies.
- Rebecca Women are human beings . We deserve respect
Please please help us.
- Joelle We are women with perfectly legitimate, legally protected views. We have the right to express our views without fear of violence. Please speak for us.
- Matthew I expect similar leniency if I stand outside parliament with a megaphone shouting "If you see an MP, punch them in the fucking face!"
I'm aware of the unacceptable and tragic attacks on MPs, just as I'm aware of the epidemic of violence towards women.
Get this ideology out of the justice system.
- Ann Convicted male criminals should not be allowed to stand in public and threaten women with violence and call for others to do the same.
- Christine We know it was not a joke, because the crowd cheered and did not laugh.
- Bernadette Please please take this seriously. We feel seriously under threat.
- Ian It seems we are going backwards in the fair and equal treatment of women's rights and issues.
- Ben The judge should be removed from office.
- Teresa Please stop this ideology.
It is causing immeasurable harm, has no basis in reality and is demanding the protected rights of others be compromised.
Men and women cannot change sex.
We cannot be born in the wrong body.
This is a men's sexual rights movement.
- Susan I support the Sex Matters letter and ask the Prime Minister, Leader of the Opposition and Mayor of London to #DefendUs
- Elizabeth Am in Canada and shocked that this was not considered an incitement to violence since it was a literal incitement to violence. Also, the man who wants to punch TERFs and wants other men to punch TERFs, full on lied, but nobody noticed or questioned his lies. What is going on here?
- Kevin Action needed now to stop the hate campaign against women!

- James I've two daughters and a wife. My job is to protect them from harm. That's why I'm signing this.
- Phil I fully support the work of Sex Matters in this fight against this violent movement. We're seeing daily attacks on women and the freedom of individuals to live peacefully without fear from violence.
- Brian May The Force be with you.
- Francesca I've come quite late to this fight, laughing off someone calling me cis a few years ago, but in the last 2 years I've educated myself about gender identity ideology, and frankly it's made me frightened for my daughters. I didn't realise how many people hate women, so as a sex class we need protecting.
- Jill If any other group in society were being targeted in the way women have been over protecting existing rights there would be an outcry , people are sleepwalking into misogyny !
- Sandra Women are less free now than when I was born 50 years ago. This anti-women movement must end.
- Catherine I work within the NHS frontline caring for women. I will not tolerate the erasure of language that refers to women and women specific health concerns. The government must act .
- Greg Please counter these expressions of hate and insist that they are treated with the utmost seriousness. The policing, legal and political systems are failing women. Please do what you can to rectify this situation.
- H My generation didn't fight for women's female sex based rights and equal rights for same sex attracted people for this spoilt generation to trash them on a whim of Gender Cultism. Ideology as no place in law, health, schools, the work place etc.
- Sheila It is way past time that the government and other political parties recognised the danger to women from trans activists and those influenced by lobby groups such as Stonewall. They need to act now to protect women.
- York Gender Identity Ideology metaphysics realization in individuals as pseudo religious dualist trans ideation its implementation as trans rights political organisations is necessarily geared to extreme violence. Subjective dualist metaphysics politics will without exception tend to extremist violence.
- Trisha I am increasingly concerned that a war is starting to be waged against women's rights and feel that all in power must re-assert our legal freedoms.

- Lindy I believe in freedom of speech with caveat that it should reject violent and threatening comment.
Women should be able to live without fear.
- Laura Women are being attacked. How long before it's a murder
- Stephen A handful of elected politicians have absolutely no authority to pass laws that harm all women and girls. There has been no public vote on this issue. It was not in any manifesto. There is no legitimacy here. This is authoritarian behaviour, and you are empowering totalitarian forces. Stop it now.
- Deborah Protect women, let them speak without fear from angry mobs who have no interest in anyone's rights, especially those of women.
- Laura Women should not be scared to stand up for their rights. Let women speak without fear of violence
- Alison I was dismayed when I saw the result of this case yesterday.
- Christina The eradication of women and girls has been going on for centuries, it must STOP. Women are being erased. Women need men to stand shoulder to shoulder with us, we need one another. The road to respect and equality does not need to be a hazardous journey.
- Stephen Time to ensure women are legally protected against these fetishists.
- Mandy Women deserve to be safe from this hatred. Do nothing and you are condoning this behaviour!
- Deborah Why have politicians of all parties forgotten women have rights & will not be silenced? Humans cannot change sex, women are sick & tired of being 2nd class. Wake up & listen!
- Leon 'Transwomen' are men. Men should never be allowed in women's spaces - toilets, changing rooms, prisons etc. When violent men call for violence against women it should never be accepted as a joke. The violent threats being issued by 'Trans Rights Activists' against women should be prosecuted.
- Lisa The free pass to encourage violence against women must end now.
- Matthew The creep of totalitarian misogyny and wilful child endangerment has been slow enough that it's only now being seen for what it is: poisonous to society, especially women & children. It must be roundly confronted and neutralised. Immediately.

- Julie Protect women's rights to be full members of society. Stop those who want to silence women. Take safeguarding seriously.
- Tina Its not SJB as much, its the rest of them. Constant violent attacks on women in public, losing women their jobs & livelihoods. Enough. Where are the grown ups? This is ridiculous.
- Tamara This has to stop.
- Chris He ate his own balls.
- Heather Women are adult human females. 98% of violent crimes are committed by men. Women are not to blame for violent male crimes however men choose to 'identify'.
- K I am becoming increasingly alarmed at the state of women's rights, for the safety and wellbeing of children and for the rights of lesbian, gays & bisexuals in the U.K. The protections built up over centuries & decades are being torn down by Government & its institutions.
- Helen Excellent letter, thank you for putting it together & enabling us to sign!
- Lynne I am especially concerned that accused and even those found guilty of aggressive speech and worse do not get recorded as female if they have not fully transitioned but have self-certified their gender
- Terry I fully support sex-matters.org and this campaign. Time to stop the violence against women
- F PLEASE do something about this!
- ANNE I have 3 daughters and 4 granddaughters and I'm doing this to ensure a safe, fair country for them.
- Kathryn Women are being threatened for just speaking the truth about biological sex and asking to retain safe women only spaces. I fear it's a matter of time before a woman is killed by a trans rights activist, is that what has to happen before male violence against women is taken seriously?
- Joanne Please stop with nonsense
If only for the sake of your own daughters
Thank you 🙏
- Rose Act now!
- Johann As a woman, I've never felt more at risk and less protected, please support us.

- Johanne Common sense surely has to prevail. Women just want to preserve our hard fought for rights. Why has this Government stood by and wilfully given them away in the name of inclusivity, it beggars belief. I say this as a Conservative voter,
- jane Please help.
- Richard We all know what would have happened if a women's rights campaigner had told a crowd to punch a TRA. Activist police chiefs and activist judges are making a mockery of law and order.
- Josephine I have never felt so unsafe in my life. I never thought I would feel that way. Trans activists make violent threats which are often carried out and women are not being protected by the police or the judiciary. Please clamp down on the trans activists as their violent behaviour is escalating.
- Michelle Please help protect us & future generations!
- Maureen Surely as a father, husband and decent man you can see the appalling unfairness and miscarriages of justice in this verdict. Please rectify the glaring misjudgement.
- Joanne Women and girls private spaces matter. Women and girls sports matter. Men are not women. Women do not have a penis.
- Karen Stop these attacks on women. We have the right to stand up for free speech.
- Stephanie This has to stop. Women need protecting like everyone else. Enough of 'trying to do the right thing,' your right thing is not working out and just causing more violence against women.
- Jenn Their visceral, violent hatred of women is evident in everything they say and do. PM, please stick up for women. You have a wife and a mother and daughters.
- Stephen As a barrister, I fully support your campaign.
- Nancy This needs to stop. Lead or get out of the way.
- Laila What does 'intent' mean, when aggressive men call for violence against women to a crowd of angry agitated men. Had a woman been punched in the face following that man's call to violence, would the courts actually prosecuted him? Would the court accept in his own words 'I was being an idiot'.
- Mark I agree with your letter: people are being attacked for raising practical concerns about single-sex spaces, medicalisation of children and protecting women's sport - even when they respect the rights of adult trans people.

Felicity	Concerned mother.
Angela	At a time when women's faith in policing is at an all time low, this hits the ground when the justice system clears a violent man of inciting men to punch women in the face. This court case has cleared the way for men to believe they can incite violence against women with no consequences!
Peter	Protect women from deviant men in dresses.
Leslie	This letter is important and should also be sent to the First Ministers of Scotland and Wales & equivalent for Northern Ireland
Deborah	This needs to be taken seriously. We appear to have moved beyond the looking glass, and action is required to halt the attacks on women for defending their hard-won rights
Andrea	Keep up the good fight 🤝
Lottie	This can't go on. Threats and violence towards women who are standing up for their basic rights for same sex spaces services and sports are becoming more virulent and frightening. 51% of the population can't be denied a voice and intimidated into silence by an increasing violent rhetoric.
Steve	Shaming children into believing they're born in the wrong body & facilitating their sterilisation/castration is child abuse. Those advocating it offer a listening ear away from parents. This is grooming. The cult of AGP's are determined to push queer theory, based on paedophilia. Join the dots Sunak
kay	Women matter too
Lorraine	The situation in Scotland is that women have fewer rights than trans identified men in the application of the law. Violence against GC women is ignored and trivialised by the police and MSPs.
Pia	Men cannot be women and women should not be erased to accommodate men. If you want to win the election put a stop to this and get gender ideology out of all government orgs including the NHS, the courts and especially the police.
Claire	When a biological man hits a biological woman and pretends to be one when they wear a skirt, the world is gone very bad!!!
Veronica	Please protect us
Rebecca	I am sick and tired of seeing men's threats and physical attacks on women who believe in biological FACTS dismissed, whilst women who simply speak the truth are persecuted by the police. Men's feelings matter more than women's and girl's reality. All the while this Govt does NOTHING about it.

Kate I'm so shocked that this violent man was not punished for this shocking crime. He has a long history of intimidating women up and down the country. A women was punched in the face by a man at a Women won't wheesht event in Aberdeen and the police do nothing. A man incites violence against women???

Natasha Enough is enough. Women are sick of this witch hunting we can't even state biological reality without fear of hate campaigns. I'm 24 years old I won't live in fear of these violent males anymore

Mary Enough is enough. Women matter.

Andrew I support Sex Matter's campaign against the intimidation of women

Maura Thank you for raising this

Constance As this letter says: "We call on the state to defend us against physical intimidation, threats of violence and assault, and to protect our freedom of speech"

Sarah This is a travesty. Women are afraid.

Ian Rishi Sunak, you need to step up and take action. You say a lot but do nothing.

Caroline As a woman, mother and grandmother I am fearful for the safety of women and girls in this country. Our government MUST stand up for the rights of females to safe single sex spaces.
I will not vote for any political party that does not stand up for and respect women as a distinct category.

Aileen This madness has got to stop...

Ronny Women has worked hard to gain equal rights. So it's horrible seeing their rights being decimated. Take action now!

Amanda Do we have to wait for blood to be spilt by a TRA before this is taken seriously? Threats inevitably turn into reality, particularly if authorities turn a blind eye

Darren The rights of women and children a being erased and the government and courts are actually supporting it.
Please stand up to this campaign of hate and violence against your own wives, mothers and daughters.

- Carolanne How can we have gotten to this place in society where women are so unimportant in law and society where violence against us is not regarded as a problem or a crime. Please consider this and think about your wife, daughters, sisters, mother and friends. It's the decent thing to do.
- Wendy This will not stand.
- Desmond Violent criminals are getting away with their crimes, just because they identify as a woman, in this case a convicted criminal who has served decades for his crimes, has now incited violence against women, publicly. Being trans doesn't make you unaccountable. This is a travesty of justice.
- Milena Thank you for articulating this call to action in face of escalating aggression towards women from those who would deny the reality of sex.
- Miranda I have seen assaults, been told to kill myself and seen my black friend racially abused. Nothing is ever done. There is violence at almost every women's event and no one has ever been prosecuted. The government and judiciary should be ashamed.
- Calvin This needs to stop before somebody is seriously hurt.
- William Protect our Women. People are growing weary.
- Jacqueline These men hate women and are very frightening.
Please keep us safe 🙏
- Ian Trans activists when they act, or call other to, act violently should be stopped in the same ways as anyone else perpetrating or calling for violence. Politicians and the police should commit to this, before someone is seriously injured or killed by them.
- Tim Trying to laugh off a call to violence, as a joke, is not acceptable.
- Tony Very happy to be signing this letter, as this is a worrying state of affairs.
- Ann Please, Mr Sunak, you do have a majority, please sort this out.
- Brian If we cannot differentiate between the sexes then we cannot allocate resources to the victims as the statistics will be skewed by self-ID.
- Jennifer Baker has been intimidating women since he came out of prison. Any judge with his salt would understand how escalation of threatening behaviour by males generally ends up in actual violence against women.
- Rachel Stop letting men get away with threatening women under the guise of 'trans' rights. This is a men's rights movement that undermines the safety of women.

- Delyth I find this really frightening. Men like Baker seem to be able to act with impunity. He clearly was inciting violence against women like me.
- Janet These trans activists think that attacking women is acceptable because they are terfs. It is not acceptable and these women's rights campaigners are not terfs. Women must be safe. This man promoting violence should be in prison
- Fodo In the past 5+ years every meeting of women I've attended has been picketed. I've been screamed at as I entered buildings. It's intimidating and the level of abuse makes women fearful to speak up for sex based rights. Government and police need to act to protect freedom of thought and speech.
- Ann Marie No taxation without representation.
Our mothers and daughters are being let down in the most appalling way possible.
For shame.
- Nancy Enough is enough. All this is happening in plain sight.
- Matt End this madness.
- George Time to act PM. You need to protect women
- Denise Please support this. We do not feel safe.
- Vivienne Please stop these escalating attacks on women and girls.
- Sally I am in my sixties and have never before witnessed such appalling threats and intimidation against women which are ignored and often celebrated by the very institutions who I thought were there to protect us. I am terrified, not just for me, but for any future granddaughters. Please help.
- Rebecca Some time ago I wrote to you about problems relating to trans activism in the workplace and have not received a reply.
- Kim Women are entitled to campaign to retain our existing rights in law free from violence and intimidation from male trans terrorists. We are 51% of the population, we matter, so please protect us from these violent men.
- John We need a criminal justice system that takes threats towards women seriously
- Suzanne The Trans activists shout about hate and abuse and genocide but it's women who are being physically attacked, intimidated and subjected to vile misogyny and male violence from the trans identifying gang. It's insane
- Annie Appalling situation

- Miriam Our legal definition of terrorism includes threats of serious violence against a person, or creating a risk to the health & safety of a section of the public, where these acts are designed to intimidate the public for the purpose of advancing an ideological cause, which gender ideology is. "Funny"?
- Laura The harm and damage the trans movement is doing to women and our rights needs to stop. We earned our rights for ourselves and our daughters. To see them being stolen away like this and barely anything being done to stop it is infuriating and insulting. Stop the violence and theft of women's rights.
- Debbie You must open your eyes to the harm being caused by this movement to women and children. We need you, our elected leaders to show you really do want to end violence against women and girls.
- Pauline Save women save spaces, protect women, previous woman fought hard for our safe spaces... save women's sports, domestic violence spaces, rape crisis centres, woman's sport
- Rianna Please see reason. These people are dangerous and predatory. If you wouldn't leave your children alone with them then please don't expect us to.
- Please do something about this trans madness to stop women and girls being erased and endangered for the sake of a few paedophiles and autogynephiles
- Stacey We shouldn't have to be signing letters to get them to think, they allowed it to happen they can get us out of this mess, bad enough warped adults but they're warping the kids, there's going to be a lot of damaged kids in the future when reality hits, we've had enough
- Nicola Stop the madness. The violence towards women by trans is unacceptable.
- Morag Stand up and protect women and children, don't ever say that you didn't know.
- Suzanne Every human ever born came from the body of a woman.
- Lorna We are asking you to defend women & girls, our spaces, our words, our safety. Please, please don't let us down.
- Audrey It's really tough being a woman in Scotland with no protection from the police under command from the SNP / GREEN assembly
- Michael The country is at a crossroads. We need a government that protects ordinary people from persecution by this tiny minority of activists determined to control women and gain access to children.

- John “it was just a joke” has always been the feeble response of the racist, misogynist and bully when challenged, often followed by “have you no sense of humour?”
It is despicable that a judge accepted it as a defence.
The judge should have his testicles hacked off with a blunt knife*.
*just a joke.
- Ann This is only going to get worse under labour, put laws in place now
- Ian Free speech is currently under attack while unequivocal incitement to violence, is apparently protected. This bizarre inversion of individual rights is the result of slavish adherence to intersectional ‘identity politics’. At the sharpest end of of this virtue signalling incoherence, are women.
- Jay This persecution of woman must be brought to an end. I will vote for no party that allows this to continue. Sex matters.
- Keith Contrary to Baker’s testimony, his threat was aggressive, not humorous, and meant to incite his followers and intimidate those who oppose his misogyny- mostly women, of course. It is a disgrace that the authorities are actually condoning this behaviour and encouraging it to take hold as a norm.
- Mary I am shocked and horrified by the double standards
- Louise Trans rights activists seem to believe that they are justified in displaying violent aggression towards women who hold different opinions. They are out of control.
- Linda Please protect women and children
- Katie This whole issue is getting out of hand.
Individuals and grass root organisations are having to do the work of what policy officials should be doing.
Safeguarding, truth and fairness are being sacrificed because, it’s too difficult to tackle by those in charge.
We need strong leadership.
- Maura This has to stop before a woman is killed. What is it going to take?
- Deborah Many people utterly despair at the shambles of the UK Parliament and its inability to get to grips with the escalating sexualisation of children, inappropriate sex and relationship curriculum in schools even for children of the earliest ages, and the failure to protect women and children.
- J Stop these increasingly violent men from intimidating women who are just asking for female-only single-sex spaces, services and sport and the protection of children.

Karen	Misogyny and sex (male/female) should be included in the hate crime bill if transgender is. Why are women not protected by law but a man who says he's a women is? Would you like someone to advocate punching your mum in the face Rishi?
Helen	Lifetime Labour voter. Now single-issue voter for whichever party dates to say what a woman is!
Jessica	Police and Government must act to stop these incitements to violence and actual violence against women and girls in the name of 'activism'. It is misogynistic, sex-based violence and it has been allowed to go on for years, with impunity. Are you waiting until a woman or girl is killed?
Rob	Sort out these woke judges. Lock this criminal up
Margaret	Lesbian
Janet	I am horrified at the way the lives of women of today are altering for the worse after years of my generation fighting for equality.
Teresa	It is ridiculous. Women are being arrested and put through hell for saying Trans Identifying Males are men. Stating a biological fact. Mr Barker says threats of violence were a joke, (since when has male violence against women ever been a joke?) and they get off scot free.
Maureen	For years now, extreme trans activists have been verbally abusing and threatening women for defending our sex-based rights. They have tried to stop us meeting, and some women have been physically assaulted. Criminal justice institutions like the police & the courts need to start taking this seriously
Natalie	Truly shocking that this individual has been found not guilty. I am tired of violence against women not being taken seriously. Lessons are not learned. We need action on the epidemic of male violence against women.
Janet	I am horrified that women if today are worse off despite my generation fighting for equality for years.
Hannah	The intimidation and threats directed at women and girls demands more than your verbal condemnation, Prime Minister, it demands your action.
Debra	These men are encouraged and aided by all of our government run public institutions who play their part by marking women's rights as 'transphobic' and so anyone woman fighting for her rights a 'transphobe'. Government has sanctioned this misogyny and they must end it.

- Rachael Women are 51% of the population...we have had enough.
- Cathy As a woman and 50% of the voters in this country, I cannot believe the law has let us down so badly.
Not only was the defendant allowed to play to the gallery, but the women who made statements were not called and Baker was allowed to lie frequently in the box & DARVO. Publicity stunt so not guilty.
- J Keep doing what you do - thank you
- Donna Trans activists are getting increasingly violent. They advocate and promote violence, rape and murder of women who disagree with their demands.
- Janet I am horrified that women of today are worse off despite the years of struggle of my generation for equality.
- Padraig Women and girls' safety cannot be compromised . Ever
- Angela Women are being arrested for using the 'wrong' pronoun or using suffragette colours as a badge of support, and yet this man, this thug, this convicted criminal has been let off any sentence. This makes a mockery of women who are becoming more and more angry.
- Stephanie Women are being assaulted, threatened and losing their jobs simply for standing up for their sex based rights. It needs to stop. It's disgusting.
- Janet Violence and intimidation against women, in all its forms, must be faced down and it must be rooted out. Stop tolerating it. Enough.
- Phil We have to do better in safeguarding the rights, freedoms and protections of women and girls.
- Jenny To believe there are two sexes and that sometimes matters is a perfectly valid and legal position to hold, and not a reason to be "punched in the fucking face".
Women make up 51% of the population, time you started caring about us and our votes.
- Christine Please stop the ridiculous invasion of women's spaces and identities by men pretending to be women.
- Rebecca We ride at dawn
- Mireille Forth Valley Feminists
- Susie If politicians want to claim to care about women they need to call out male violence against women, all male violence.

- Judi I have been harassed, abused, threatened and intimidated by “trans rights” extremists, simply for attending women’s events or lesbian meetings. These activists have been enabled and abetted by the police. This is pure misogyny and must be stopped. “Trans rights” activists are domestic terrorists.
- G Dear Mr Sunak, I have been a trans ally for years & support treating trans people equally, fairly, with compassion. However I have witnessed trans rights activists terrorising women & manipulating vulnerable children to advance dangerous ideology. Help us stand up to this misogynistic madness
- Mandy It’s a sad and sorry state of affairs when we have to have a campaign to protect biological women.
- Amit I completely support this campaign as a Husband and Father to a young girl.
- Claire I have seen first hand the vitriol of these men towards women. I have witnessed the police do the bare minimum to protect women.
Why is sex the one characteristic that is not protected?
Enough is enough.
- Bruce Male here, with daughter in law who is vulnerable like other women.
- Vikki Trans Ideology is scary as a women and I worry about the indoctrination in our schools for kids. In Scotland I fear soon there will be women seriously hurt and police and Judiciary will do nothing. One woman assaulted with no consequences. Yet politician called a name man arrested wrong so wrong
- Harry These disgusting attacks on women by trans activists have got to stop.
- Liz For CambsWomen Together
- Isla This man has convictions for kidnap, torture, attempted murder. He told a cheering crowd, “If you see a TERF, punch them in the fucking face.”
He was found not guilty of inciting violence by a Judge Tan Ikran who has a special interest in LGBT/equality. Says everything you need to know!
- Mary I’m signing this on behalf of all women and girls.
- Claudia Inciting violent attacks on anyone is surely a crime?
- Shelley My daughter’s future is seriously at risk if these issues aren’t addressed as a matter of urgency.
- Maria It feels like women are being erased. We no longer seem to matter. We are not a feeling.

Helena You all claim to be tough on VAWG - prove it.

Mary The Trans ideology is a false ideology that relies on pharmaceuticals for children, plastic surgery and genital mutilation and gender stereotypes, and disregards basic safeguarding for women and children. Stand up for women. Protect children.

Charlotte Courage calls to courage everywhere

Alison I have personally witnessed physical assault on a woman at a Let Women Speak events in Manchester. The police did the bare minimum to keep the violent activists away from us, and failed to stop them disrupting the event. I felt very unsafe. We are sick of being second class citizens in the UK.

Eve I have attended a number of women's rights meetings over the last few years.
At one of the event, 2 smoke bombs were thrown at women and a man was arrested who was carrying a bag of knives.
It is scary, as a mother, trying to protect my daughter's rights

Gemma Leaders claim to care about violence against women and girls.....deeds not words.

Laura If you could see what I have seen, you wouldn't hesitate to support us.

B Action is urgently required.

Angela Don't allow this movement to roll back women's rights.

Josephine Gender identity ideology and its zealots are an all-out attack on women and children. We look to political leaders, forces of law and order and public bodies to protect and defend women's sex-based rights.

Monique This has to stop. It has to. People are going to start believing they can kill is.

Eline Dear government, please take a stance and condemn real hate speech and violence.

Tina If we as a country cannot find the courage to stop sterilising and surgically mutilating our children and young people in the name of PRETENDING people can change sex then we are a Great Nothing. Women and children deserve better. Sex matters.

Dr Mark Scientist, former Liberal Democrat councillor for 16 years, and 2x General Election candidate.

Una-Jane Dear Mr Sunak,
The scourge of "transactivism" has permeated local Government. I am being prosecuted by Hammersmith Council with a trumped-up "Community Protection Notice" for displaying on my front door previously published gender-critical materials which local police say are OK.

Council is Stazi!

Barbara Thank you for taking this much needed action.

Veronica Dear Prime Minister
I can't believe in 2023 that I need to send a letter to you for help in women's safety .
Please consider this for all the women & girls in the Uk.
Thank you for your time
Veronica Rees

Celeste Dear Mr. Sunak,
If you see a grandma, punch her in the face!
If you see a prime minister, punch him in the face!
If you see someone in a wheelchair, punch him in the face!
If you see a Tory, punch her in the face!
Are you comfortable with men inciting violence against women without consequences?

Sara I've had enough of this shit.

Elfi Violence against women is an epidemic.
This has to stop.
For good.

Tamsin The specific situations and circumstances that women experience have never been far from my consciousness, since I first became aware - as a girl - that I was being treated differently and discriminated against, because I was not a male. For thirty-odd years I felt able to discuss my views. Not now.

Rebecca This is nothing more than a campaign of violent intimidation against women designed to shut women up. It's not new, suffragettes had the same treatment. Please stand up against it

David For fairness, reality and common sense

Caroline From an angry and betrayed woman who says NO! I am not a second class citizen and the police, cps and courts need to start following the law.

Mags There can be no confidence in the judiciary or the police while women are constantly harassed, threatened and assaulted with impunity and perpetrators protected by police & judges alike, the law being ignored. We cannot claim to be a civilised society and continue to treat females this way.

Harriet Women deserve better!

- Helen Women been vilified and harassed for years for defending British democratic rights and freedoms. We have exposed systematic abuses against women, LGB people and children, and funded numerous legal cases that found discrimination. It is now time for government to root out extreme transgenderism.
- Sarah Women really don't seem to matter in the eyes of so many people.
We are your mothers, your daughters your wives, your sisters, your friends. We don't feel safe.
Enough is enough!
- Rebecca As a attendee at WPUK meetings and also as a steward at Standing for Women meetings I have lost count of the number of times when police have stood by and done nothing while women were verbally threatened and abused, shouted down, pushed, had their signs stolen, been chased, spat at, etc.
- Ruth Violence against women must be stopped
- Donna Why are males threatening woman not punished?
- Sarah It's increasingly hard to believe assurances from senior political figures when they say they are tackling violence against women and girls. Take a stand, show you value women and girls, support our fight against the erosion of our rights.
Now's the time to stand behind your words and DO something
- Chris Women deserve to have their rights, spaces, sports, livelihoods and voices protected.
- Marie Alan Baker should be in jail for inciting violence against women.
- Della Women and girls endure verbal and physical abuse throughout our lives, often of a sexual nature. Groups like Incels and Trans Activists call for our murder, rape and violent abuse. Nothing is done to stop this. Not one voice in leadership speaks out.
There is a war against women. Give us protection
- ROSEMARY How long will politicians go on looking the other way as women are threatened, intimidated, beaten and silenced for defending our rights? I will never vote again for any party that continues to support this when it is seen for what it is, a campaign of utter misogyny.
- Ali This is vital to the safety and security of girls and women.
- MEG There is no excuse for male violence against women. Women's rights are human rights, and we should have the right to speak about our reality without fear or threat.
- Lynne This is the single biggest issue in women's rights for decades. Please act now.

- Jonathan As a man I stand up for the rights of women to be protected in law and by the legal authorities from violent and bullying men, including those hiding behind transgender identities, and from women who act similarly in the name of trans rights.
- fiona Please listen to us. We are ordinary women who are concerned about our children and our safety. We're not radical, we're sensible, the women you trust with building the bedrock of our societies. Please listen to our concerns. Thanks.
- Michelle Men abusing women with impunity and it needs to stop.
- A Thank you for defending the rights of women.
- Rachel It is unacceptable for women voicing concerns re the impact on their rights and access to same sex spaces is met with threats and actual violence by those who oppose those concerns. This urgently needs to change.
- Annie At this stage I want a full public inquiry into EVERY aspect of the transgender agenda and how it has taken hold throughout society. I want all relevant witnesses called and made to account for themselves including police, CPS and politicians.
- Amanda Thank you to Sex Matters for leading in this crucial issue for the safety of women and girls
- Kate I have personally witnessed SJ Baker, amongst others, shouting obscenities at women attending a gender critical conference & been screamed at at other events.
A woman is going to be killed or seriously injured if these activists aren't kept in check and understand that the law also applies to them.
- Mandy Member of Scottish Feminist Network, Sex Matters and Free Speech Union.
The judgement in the Baker case is a disgrace and was treated as a joke by the judge, defendant and his supporters. This culture of woman hating has to be addressed. The fact it's being supported by the Judiciary is shocking.
- Judi I'm an ordinary concerned mother/ grandmother
- Emma We have to protect my daughter from this ideology and the violent men behind it.
- Catherine Retired teacher.
- Lorraine This misogyny and hatred towards women standing up to speak about sexed based issues can no longer continue. Your courts have let all women and girls down this week.
- Dianne Humans cannot change sex. Porn addled men are not women. Stop this abusive rubbish.

- Gemma Such hypocrisy that women like KJ Keen and Caroline Farrow are harassed by the police for saying biological facts, but very real threats of violence are routinely ignored. This is not an issue with two equal sides.
- Wendy Something must be done urgently.
- Sharon Concerned adult human female citizen with a vote.
- Nichola Too many instances of women being threatened, intimidated & violence proposed & no action taken. I've never known such a situation in 57 yrs. Take action now. Before it's too late.
- Lizzie If govt and all leaders do not come together to stop this hatred of women, this horrendous abuse of women (and girls) I fear there will be murders taking place, as many of these TRAs seem to be mentally deranged and highly dangerous, including the man who calls himself 'Sarah Jane Baker'.
- Melanie I wish I could be surprised that SJ Baker was acquitted. Would this have been the case if he'd incited violence against black people, or Muslims, or trans people? It is high time politicians take the threat of extreme trans activism seriously.
- Elaine The safeguarding of women and girls has never been so important. Predatory men are using the single sex spaces issue as a means to gain easy access to women and girls. This cannot go on and longer and has to stop now.
- Ruth Violence and aggression are never warranted.
- Amanda "Every word has consequences. Every silence, too."
Jean-Paul Sartre
- Donna Women and girls deserve better. We matter too. We cannot be forced legally and socially to lie in order to spare someone's feelings.
- Henrietta Protect women and girls
- Sherralyn Trans identifying people should be able to live without discrimination. People should be able to say that biological sex is real, that men cannot become women just by thinking it.
- John The actions of this individual highlight the most serious and immediate concerns with respect to women's rights and safeguards. The extremists advocating violence must be investigated and the threats and intimidation curtailed. Free speech and debate must be supported.

- Mark Stay strong. That violent misogynists are targeting women should come as no surprise. That they are aided by police officers and other women is perhaps harder to accept even though we know that recruiting standards in the police have been bad for some time and that some women are complicit in abuse.
- Carina I am most concerned by the trivialisation of these hateful and violent comments and threats to women, which are treated in marked contrast to the forceful way in which other so-called hate speech, for example comments about trans activists, is pursued and prosecuted. Protect women now.
- Vicki There is a rising tide of misogyny which is spilling over from abuse to actual assault in this country. Not only is this largely unpunished by courts but it seems to be rarely even investigated. This is not acceptable. Women deserve respect and more protection.
- Abigail I could cite many examples of trans violence but the "Hit List" of "terfs" is enough. It's outright terrorism.
- Norma Why?
Why are we now having to defend women's rights, again?
Women's sex based rights matter.
I'm 67, I can't believe this is happening in my country, in my lifetime, and it frightens me. It also makes me angry.
- Julie Was there ever a case that shows how little women are regarded in law. If I put up a sticker saying 'Adult Human Female' a knock on the door from plod. Advocate for violence against women (when you have a record of violence as long as your arm) no problem. This man's behaviour is escalating.
- Lynne Politicians need to look at the evidence of how the entrenchment of this ideology in our institutions - police, justice, NHS, schools, government itself - is attacking women's rights and even their safety.
- Alice Please, stop ignoring what's staring you in the face.
- Lesley Women are fearful. It's time this anti woman movement was stopped in its tracks.
- Caroline I was a trade union Equality Officer but have resigned from my union because of its capture by misogynistic, homophobic 'trans' ideology and aggression towards gender critical women.
- Julie Please act to stop the hate and intimidation towards women.
- Meriel Women deserve to be protected. We deserve to have the law carried out fairly. We deserve to feel safe. Please just do your job!

Leslie	Sex is real and immutable. 'Woman' is not an idea, it is a material reality, but the concerted effort of activists to force us all to ignore reality in favour of a nebulous thought is destroying the very concept of women as a discrete protected class.
Noemí	Secondary school Teacher
Claire	Please act soon
Darren	Sex discrimination laws are there for a reason. It's about time government made it clear to the CPS, Police and Prison Service that they must uphold the law and protect women against sex based intimidation and incitement to violence.
Holly	Please stop this. It is demoralising for me but beyond that I genuinely fear for my daughters.
Maureen	This is a very frightening time to be a woman. Police stand by and do nothing while women are attacked or, if the perpetrators are taken to court they are let off. What's it going to take before you act?
Emma	I see escalating violence by trans rights activists, it was their extreme violent rhetoric against J K Rowling which made me realise these are not marginalised vulnerable people but a group of misogynistic angry men who wish to harm women. Threats of rape, sexual assault and VAWG are common.
Catherine	Women are regularly being threatened, intimidated, coerced via threats to their livelihoods, and physically attacked by extremist trans activists. For what? Standing up for women's and LGB rights, for free speech and association, and against medical experimentation on children. This must be stopped!
Adrian	This madness HAS to end!!! :(
Alison	As a woman in my fifties, I thought I had seen the back of the world I grew up in where women and girls were second class citizens. I was wrong. I have never before experienced such aggressive hatred, not just from lone individuals but from the institutions that should protect us. It has to stop.
Hugh	YOU would NOT be HERE if it wasn't for YOUR MOTHER---A WOMAN !!!!!!!!!!!!!!!
Andrea	Conservative Party Member/Donor.
Sarah	The rights of women are being rolled back across the globe, from Afghanistan to America. If we cannot be free from the ever present threat of male violence we cannot be free.

Karen	Words have meaning. Please recall the judge too.
Suzanne	When an eminent KC put up a thread that let everybody in Scotland know that some people have more rights in law than others, I was horrified. And this judgement stinks to high he'll. As a woman, I no longer feel safe in Scotland and the UK.
Shernaz	In the face of it all, the correct thing for you men to uphold- men of value and substance who stand as our representatives is that you must act to protect us and in turn your mothers, your wives, daughters and your friends and relatives. Call it out and show zero tolerance for such bullying.
Nigel	Sex not gender
Gerardine	I have a teenage daughter. I want her to be safer than I was, and I want her to be able to voice her opinions without fear.
David	As a Conservative voter I am incredibly disappointed at the government's lack of action regarding erosion of women's rights and the creeping intrusion of trans activism into all aspects of public life - the NHS, schools, Police and other public bodies.
Victoria	Women need protecting from this violent ideological cult.
Lisa	Woman, mother of daughters
Abjean	As a parent, releasing such individual means that my daughter can be in danger just because of her opinion. And you did nothing. So as a father yourself, please reconsider and for justice for all, put violent people shouting and bragging about violence where they belong. For all our daughters sake.
Wendy	Lock these mad men up.
Lucy	Women deserve better.
Dawn	Please also review male rapists and paedophiles declaring they have transitioned during court cases where the rape victim then has to refer to them as she and the crime gets recorded as a crime by a female rather than a male.
Deborah	Women and girls deserve safety, dignity and privacy away from men. Protect women and girls rights.
Caroline	For women, this is a real & distressing. A man calling for women to be punched in the face, is NOT a joking matter Sex matters
Adam	The escalation in recent years is frightening.

- Catherine I fear the whole criminal justice system, from the police to the CPS through to judges has been over-influenced by a misogynistic lobby group, Stonewall, under the guise of Diversity and Inclusion. This is already leading to bad interpretations of existing law and leaves women unprotected.
- Tish 100% . My son is “trans” identified. Male and same sex attracted. Not in his name.

We ask for nothing more than our rights and a safe place to discuss them.
- Rachel Thank you wonderful, brave women at Sex Matters for defending women. You are a beacon of hope at a time when the world seems to have turned upside down.
- Julie Misogyny is alive and kicking in 2023. Men are allowed to incite violence against women and attack us, with no fear of punishment because they identify as transgender and everyone is scared to do anything for fear of being labelled as transphobic.
- Karen I have a daughter. She deserves safety, dignity and respect. But most of all equality. Its not trans rights that are under threat, it’s her rights.

We ask for nothing more than our rights and a safe place to discuss them.

Absolutely disgusting that this man was let go. We are over the gender bullshit. SOOO over it. This is a man who called fire violence against women... This is a man who had been out of prison a few weeks and the FIRST thing he did is call for an attack on women. shame in you for letting him go.
- Natasha Vile. Gross. An assault on female dignity and safety. Absolutely MUST COME TO AN END!@!@
- Michele Women and girls need safe female only spaces. These include female only bathrooms, change rooms, refuges, prisons, dating services, sports teams and events. Violence against women is increasing as we ask for these basic human rights to be protected. Please stop the violence and protect women.
- Ash As a teacher with two daughters, I’ve seen the boundaries of safeguarding being removed for girls/women, allowing males to intimidate those protecting female sex category. Trans activists call for violence, with no repercussions whilst women have hate crimes recorded for saying transwomen are males.
- Stephen Appalling that such a blatant incitement to violence, from someone with a proven history of violence, has been excused by the court.
- Sharon Appalling how this has been allowed to get this far. It’s utter misogynistic madness!

Jacqueline	Because I'm sick to the back teeth of women being preyed upon and being treated as lesser beings than men.
Karen	The vile abuse of, intimidation of, harassment of, physical assault of, and calls for violence against, women/girls, coming relentlessly from transactivists, must be stopped. Full stop.
Angelina	I'm concerned for all females especially my daughters. This needs to be addressed.
Mark	Protect women's rights.
Christina	Trans rights activists and their hangers-on are not an oppressed minority. They are a sacred class, no longer required to behave within our social and legal mores. This has to stop.
Jill	Green Women's Declaration, founder signatory
Cath	Mother, daughter, women's rights activist
Kerry	Women are worthy of respect in a civilised society. Violent males have NO place in one. EVER.
Lynette	What'll it take for our governments to recognize that men who threaten violence - even opportunistic men who insist they're women - will very often follow-through with those threats? Replace "TERF" with BAME and consider how acceptable that would be. It's blatant hate-speech against women. Misogyny.
Susie	I stand with all those born female
Elisa	Please listen to women. Don't let us be erased as a sex class. Don't let us become the lesser humans.
Anna	Enough is enough Stop violence against women and girls now!
Tanya	These violent men are using the guise of 'trans' to express their hatred of women, and seem to be protected and allowed to do this time and again. I've seen this first hand at an event for women to speak about their lives and experiences, and the sheer aggression was terrifying. Please help.
Mary	Women's Rights Network Scotland

- Finola I am a woman a Mother who gave birth & breast fed my babies. I was born a female & grew to be a adult female. I feel that our sex as women is being eroded by a group think that hasn't been voted on democratically, I was going to put N/A on an NHS form re my pronouns but was unable to submit !
- Stephen Utter embarrassment that this needs raising to a Conservative government
- Carl UK now has a politicalised judicial system. One in which a distressed autistic child can be forcibly arrested and removed from her home for an innocuous comment made to a police officer; and where a convicted criminal can publicly call for violence against women with impunity.
- Clare Please make every effort to protect the rights of women & girls. Biology matters, sex matters. We deserve our single sex spaces. We deserve respect which we fought hard for 100 years ago. Don't allow our rights to be eroded. We are relying on you to protect us going forward.
- Clare Women and girls need sex segregation for reasons of safety, privacy, dignity and fairness.
Please add misogyny to the list of hate crimes.
Please ensure we can trust the police to protect us fairly, 'without fear of favour'.
- Helen Women are faced with masked men screaming threats and assaulting them every time they meet to speak about their rights. Yet trans activists like Baker gets to incite violence, then lie in court and claim women are staging violent protests! It is time for police and courts to do their duty by women!
- Angela Enough is enough the government needs to protect women and girls
- Claire I, like many women feel completely silenced due to fear of reprisals and risk to livelihood. Opinions that may be perceived as 'gender critical' are never openly discussed, but whispered behind closed doors, as if having an opinion is a crime. I have never felt such a crushing weight of misogyny.
- Sharon I am a woman. A woman is an adult human female. No male can be a woman. Human mammals cannot, ever, change their sex. Gender is a fairytale.
- J The bullying and intimidation of women has to stop!
- Jackie The police have picked a side. Aggression, intimidation and even assault by trans activists is ignored, yet women have police knocking on their doors and threatening arrest over tweets, posters or stickers expressing biological facts and mainstream views. It is blatant and has to be stopped.

- Patricia As a mother and an ordinary citizen, I am afraid for the future of my daughter and all girls.
Our basic rights as women are being eroded, our language is being obliterated.
I implore you to stop this madness, it's only going to get worse.
#RepealtheGRA
- K So angered by the attack on women's sex based rights wrought across institutions by trans activist lobby groups and their political allies. Urgent action is needed from our political leaders to stop the rot. Thank you for raising the matter of sex with them.
- Catherine Enough! It is your duty to protect women before these men kill us.
- Angela The police and other services should never have been "trained" by biased political lobby groups. Women are not safe in public and the police can not be trusted to do their duty. Action is necessary to stop the spread of violence against women & silencing of women in the name of "gender ideology".
- Val Seems that inciting violence or hate speech or even mild offence is taken seriously by Britain, like a child telling someone they look like a lesbian but threatening violence to women is somehow acceptable.
- Sarah I never imagined I would need to put my name to such a letter in the UK. What started under the pretence of inclusion has quickly become a publicly acceptable excuse to verbally abuse and assault women. What happened to gaining back the trust of women?! The exact opposite is now happening.
- Rex Men are not women, even if you squint or agree to tell lies for giant linebackers in linen. No woman has or had a penis. Cut it off, give it a nickname, tuck it up your arse forever, you are a MAN. Die mad about it.
I will never validate a man who gets stiff in satin. He is a man forever. ALL MEN ARE
- S We need women only space.
- Kelly Women's rights to speak, gather, and protest as well as their rights to single sex spaces must be protected and enshrined in law.
- Kei Please help biological women stay safe and protected.
- Mar Enough is enough, it's time to learn and take action.
- Emily Sex matters and the crimes of men should not be recorded as the crimes of women.
- Keeley This is such an important request, please consider it.

- Kathryn I am 74. For 63 years I have known & fought sexual violence, misogyny, restrictions on my human rights.
Now it is even worse. Now I am campaigning to save the word 'woman', to defend the biological fact of 2 sexes & to save children from having their bodies mutilated in the name of trans ideology.
- Shabanah I am outraged by the double standard in the way women are treated by the police and courts merely for stating the most inoffensive, commonly accepted truths about biological reality - in stark contrast to their overt bias in favour of violent, sex offending men claiming to be women. Enough!
- Nikola It is a disgrace that we have to write a letter in order to get justice.
- Neal The violence and hatred by trans activists towards women is grotesque. It must end. This ideology has caused an almighty medical scandal involving children. It must be stamped out.
- Jez Gender identity ideology is threatening women's hard-won sex-based rights. Women deserve better.
With its insistence on "same-gender attraction" in place of "same-sex attraction", gender identity ideology is also deeply homophobic and has no place in a genuinely inclusive society.
- Sinéad Magistrate didn't properly consider Baker's history of violence nor the wider context of women being routinely threatened with rape and death, and the growing incidences of assaults on women such as those that occurred at Let Women Speak rallies, for lawfully expressing opinions worthy of respect.
- Jones I am appalled that a prisoner out on license can threaten and invite violence against women and get away with it, while people who politely raise concerns about gender extremism on social media are visited by police and have NCHIs recorded against them. This is state-supported misogyny.
- Elizabeth Rishi, be a force for good and justice and sort this nonsense out!
- Kirsten Standing up for women's rights is not hate.
- Louise Founder - Women's Voices Matter
- Susan Stand up for women.
Sometimes, sex matters.
- David The Labour Party don't care about women, Don't be the Labour Party.

- Donna Women's rights & single sex spaces are not up for grabs to men with a fetish for womanhood, AKA, an autogynophile. Please protect women & children from this dangerous ideology
- Donna Prime Minister
The rights of women to safety, dignity and privacy are going to be a factor in the next election. Don't be on the wrong side of the 'What is a Woman' question.
- Simon As a gay man I feel very strongly about protecting the rights of women to associate with their own sex freely and without hindrance from aggressive males - however they "identify".. Women, adult human females have always been my staunchest allies.⁹
- Dominic Please help to stop the current malevolent & systematic assault on women's rights in the UK & uphold the respect women deserve.
- Kara MOJ 2018 & 2020 findings & their relevance for legislation & policies have clearly gone unheeded. This is disappointing & highly irresponsible of the government & ethically wrong.
See link for MOJ statistics & recommendation
<https://fairplayforwomen.com/transgender-male-criminality-sex-offences/>
- Jenny Protect women and girls from violence and abuse.
- Elaine In almost every institution in our society the presumption is that men should be believed and that women should be talked over, ignored or belittled when we speak out against the campaign of hate that is being conducted against us.
- Kathleen I ask that an enquiry is held into the threats against women who are standing up for women's and children's rights and safety.
- Alan What is wrong will always be wrong and what is right will always be right.
- Theresa The treatment of women's concerns and the stifling of our voices by men espousing violence is despicable. Do the decent thing and protect women and girls.
- Michelle The level of misogynistic rhetoric and actual violence portrayed to women is alarming. Women already suffer at the hands of violent men, the ideology that a man can become a woman is fuelling the hatred to women.
- Darlene Women have had quite enough.
We aren't a figment of some man's imagination and we aren't going to give up our spaces to men who threaten us daily on social media, in public spaces, and in spaces meant only for the dignity, privacy, and safety of women. Trans women are men. Stop harming women.

Judith	Women & girls are not safe in modern Britain.
Matthew	The acquittal of Alan Baker is disgusting. If a gender critical person had said this about a trans person, the police and judiciary would have come down far harder. It's long time that we stopped this nonsense.
Anne	Stop this violence and intimidation
Suzi	I wish this would stop being referred to as woke or not woke or run on party lines but taken as a serious threat to women who are intimidated and threatened into silence - not just by trans extremists but by other misogynistic male groups
Lisa	Women are being treated like second class citizens. A man calls for Terfs(gender critical women)to be punched in the face and gets cleared of any charges. A few weeks later in Aberdeen a woman is punched in the face at a women's rights rally by a trans identifying man and all he gets is a warning.
Robbie	Dear PM Sunak, I am not a natural conservative but still, I'm glad you have the courage to say what a woman is. Please follow up by taking action to defend women against extreme transactivism.
Karima	It is time to defend women against the tide of aggressive misogyny
Andy	If you see Rishi Sunak's wife, punch her in the fucking face. How they will laugh at no 10!
Thomas	I'm a teacher sworn to tell the truth not invented concepts of an inner gendered soul. It's madder than transubstantiation.
Lizzie	I am horrified by the way male violence, even really extreme, public cases, are excused while women merely speaking out against such abuses are shamed, harassed, cancelled, sacked and prosecuted.
Alison	I live in New Zealand now but am British. I have followed the rise of extreme trans activists in the western nations which have been captured by trans ideology. Violence towards women here who speak out was exemplified by what happened when Kelli-Jay Keen came to Auckland, Albert Park.
Alex	While women are arrested for posting factual comments online and stickers with facts & stats, men who claim to be women are allowed to threaten and intimidate women who want to retain female only spaces are allowed to express their anger and aggression with impunity. Women exist and women matter.

- buffy Baker was clearly inciting violence. To be found not guilty is the most dangerous fuel for an already angry and violent group of activists. He needs to be made an example of or else women are going to be seriously hurt.
- Ted This disgusting attempted eradication of women has to stop. You politicians must stand up for them.
These so called Trans are NOT women; and you all know it.
History will judge the decent, honest people in this era. History.
- Richard The words of Sarah Jane Baker, and the response of the court, are an outrageous example of a serious problem. Women need to be protected - by the police and by the criminal justice system as a whole.
- Elsa I would like to know how it is acceptable to call for violence against women, but not other groups. How is this not classed as a hate crime?
- Cameron Sex matters and law demanding society think otherwise is unlawful so lacks lawful force.
- R Things are getting dangerous in the NHS for patients and staff; medically, socially and psychologically. Boards and senior managers are too afraid to act without clear government say-so, despite the law being clear and laid in front of them. We have no recourse.
- Annette It is time to stop shouting down women's legitimate concerns regarding the current pressure to recognise trans women as women in all aspects of life. While people should generally be able to live how they please, there are limits. Sex matters, and saying so does not make you a bigot.
- Richard Please stop these vile shouty, shouty bullies now.
- Kelly The right side of History!
- Steve The wider public matter.
- Sarah This blatant hate, violence and intimidation of women across the cities and towns of the UK and in the direct sight of police, must stop. Arrest the violent thugs and protect women and those who support us in the face of this gender cult.
- Ann Someone has to stop the police & courts ignoring the threats posed to women by extreme trans activists. All aspects of justice & government appear to be captured by gender ideology at the expense of biological women. Gender is a social construct. Biology is real. Sex matters.

Julie	Your chance to get fairness for your daughter and for all women and girls. They deserve dignity, fairness and respect for being born female - they had no choice in the matter. Men who choose to identify out of their own sex should not be allowed to impinge on natal women and girls rights!
Lynn	Trans is misogyny in drag
Margaret	Campaigned on women's issues since the '60s and '70s.
Natalie	Protect women
Lee	I am utterly sick of seeing how women are being demonised defending their own SEX from men identifying not only into their sex, but their sexuality. This culture has been allowed to flourish with women being put on the back foot, and as a gay man I cannot stand by and say nothing.
Willow	The law is heavily biased in favour of men enacting paraphilias such as autogynephilia at the expense of women. If the government cares at all about ending violence against women, it should start with violent transactivists who are prepared to attack and even kill women.
Sally	Thank you for fighting.
Charlotte	Making factual statements like women are adult human females and men can't give birth, should never lead to fear, intimidation, death threats, violence or losing the ability to earn a living. Please stand up for women, for freedom of speech and for democracy.
Carole	Full support
Sander	Freedom of speech should be a right everyone has. Magdalen Berns said: It's not hate to speak the truth.
Melody	I urge Rishi Sunak and The Conservative Government to take legislative action to protect women and our society against the effects of trans extremists, self I.D, and those who seek to silence people who don't believe that sex can be changed.
Ian	Time to get a grip Rishi.
Judy	Why can't women have their own spaces? Why are we continuing to defend ourselves against men in places where we should be safe? DO SOMETHING JEEEEESUS. You represent US, not the other way round. Thanks.
Lesley	Stop all violence and intimation against women.

John	Please put a stop to men intimidating women and girls and undermining their rights to speak freely without being threatened with violence in the name of trans ideology.
Grace	Sex matters
Sam	Dangerous men Like SJB should be locked up for the threats he made. He was not joking - I didn't take it as a joke & I felt threatened by his announcements.
Kate	Stop State endorsed violence against women and girls.
Alex	Enough is enough. Politicians need to see the danger Trans Activists are to women and anyone else who raises concerns about the impact gender ideology has on women, children and lesbian, gay and bisexual people.
Nancy	It's way past time for the state, especially the police force, to protect women. 'Gender' critical women are courageously fighting to protect dwindling women's and children's rights.
Susan	Women are becoming more and more terrified by the threats of trans activists, mostly men claiming to be women ,and all our institutions appear to be supporting the TRAs !!
Angela	There is a campaign to intimidate, harass and silence women. The campaign uses threats of and actual violence against the person. In addition, it seeks to threaten women who voice concerns and actively campaigns for such women to lose financial income. This must stop now!
Ann	This level of open intimidation and violence aimed at silencing women is unprecedented in my sixty four years. I support trans rights, but I don't want women's rights given away. Seeing the NHS, the police, and the justice system brushing our rights aside is devastating. Enough is enough.
Doma	The fact that I can not openly sign this letter shows the level of harm this issue is for women. Silencing of women is not ok, sex matters. DH
Lily	Protect women and girls from male violence!
Roz	Society was already dangerous for women but now, men have the right to incite violence without impunity. I am devastated.
Erica	Some people believe God is real. Some people believe gender identity is real. It is utterly immoral to force non-believers to acquiesce, let alone enshrine ANY belief system in law, therefore oppressing all non-believers.

- Isabel It can feel that being female & believing this matters, is treated as a bigger crime than the actual threats & violence women are being subjected to. But it is not activism to threaten violence and target women for wrong think. Something has gone wrong when women fear speaking about their rights.
- Diana A woman was punched at a lawful meeting of women a week after Bakers comments. Yet according to the court Baker did not incite. He perjured himself, referred on oath to attacks by named women including Parker, but there have been none. No crimes, no arrests, no convictions. Enough.
- Anna Barrister.
- Emma The government needs to act.
- Leslie What a time to be alive. #canweaffordmen
- Jane I live in Canada and I am a citizen of the UK.
- Doreen It's appalling that a direct and public statement inciting violence towards women is treated by the Courts as a publicity stunt. The fact it was done by a man with a record of violence shows the contempt the Judge had for women. The CJS knows he's dangerous.
- Pauline I am shocked and appalled that this violence, both physical and verbal towards women, has been allowed to grow over the years, with very little action taken by the police, politicians and government. It's time to do something instead of looking the other way.
- Anne I agree that women are being targeted under the guise of 'trans' rights. It is unbelievably shocking that those who are being paid to protect us all are to a large extent unable/unwilling to see the manipulation used to discriminate against women.
- Dee How can someone who incites violence towards women not be prosecuted, but anyone who state biological reality are harassed and hounded by the police, with ludicrous accusations of hate crimes?
- Peggy Please ensure that women and girls are given the proper respect, dignity and safety they are entitled to in a civilised society
Please safeguard their single sex spaces
- Paul For my sisters, nieces, wife and all the women I know.
- Carol Women are not safe, not even in so called safe spaces. Predatory men are infiltrating everywhere whilst promoting violence against anyone who objects.

- Shannon The treatment of children and women must be changed NOW. Male violence still exists, and we are all supposed to believe it is mothers and lesbians who are the problem here? No. Please show the world you care.
- Caroline If like me, SJB, were a Millwall fan, this would not be a laughing matter that could be flippantly brushed aside with excuses of I'm an idiot.
Everyone who commits a crime is an idiot, it's not a defence model otherwise everyone would be using it.
- Nicola Woman
- Jan Thank you
- Alison If one child has been wrongly treated it's too many.
- Jennifer It is self-evident that no-one can change their sex. It is beyond time that the government stood up for women's rights and stopped trans-activists, a minority group, threatening and abusing anyone who disagrees with them. The latest verdict by a magistrate is a green light for violence to women.
- Louise I wear a WOMAN AHF t-shirt, for this I get regular public harassment and threats in my local area. As a SFW LWS Steward I've been assaulted and threatened on numerous occasions at public LWS events while police witness and do nothing. I have no faith in the police, "justice" system or any other service
- Aideen it's past time to take this threat seriously and recognise it as a form of terrorism. Please don't continue to turn a blind eye and call it a "culture war". Women are being targeted with violence and loss of livelihood.
- Donna I have no issue if a man wants to present as a trans-woman. However that does not mean my rights are ignored by society. I'm always puzzled that men who insist on wanting to be female and feminine are at times violent towards the thing they want the most.
- Mary Such an important letter. It is time for our leaders to acknowledge this ideology is impacting women and GC people in all areas of our lives, take this seriously and take public steps to protect women. Thank you.
- Andrew This is a critically important matter. Please treat it accordingly.
- Alice Please understand the extent in society to which trans activism is negatively impacting women, children and gay people. Children indoctrinated into gender ideology in schools, women's sex based rights threatened and undermined, rights of same sex attracted people also seriously under threat.

- Antonella Women & girls rights must be protected at all costs. All TWAM without exception. Women should be able to state these facts without fear or intimidation.
- Uschi Former HCPC member.
Very concerned about lack of psychological insight & science over acceptance of gender rejection as a common norm, rather than any consideration given to this presenting as a manifestation of other individual, deeper seated psychological, including ACE, stressors or challenges.
- margaret Recently retired teacher and grandmother to three girls I am genuinely concerned for their future when their rights to private spaces and to get together as a sex are being eroded. Young girls will give up sport if they see all their efforts thwarted by middle aged failed men who invade their sport
- D Assaulting, threatening and harassing, via the legal system, women who do speak out is a way to intimidate the rest of us into keeping quiet about the abuses of extreme trans activism that we see. Women are 51% of the population. Defend us or you are no use to us and we will not vote for you.
- Bronwyn Words fail this this time period we are living in...then again, nothing new under the sun for women, another day, another fight in this uphill climb. Let's hope something is done for a change. Hopefully.
- Lesley Sex rights matter.
- Amanda The Government and ALL political parties need to understand that Women's Rights are quite possibly what will decide who gets their vote at the next election. Women do not have penises. Our safety matters. Biology is not bigotry. Save Women's sports. Protect single sex spaces. Keep women safe.
- Martyne Stop this insane nonsense.
Protect women, protect my 5 y/o granddaughter. Stop ignoring the obvious danger of allowing Men into our spaces.
Stop the absolute horror of children mutilating their underdeveloped bodies. Teach children to love and accept the body they're in.
- Emma I was at a feminist event in central London while Baker was encouraging a crowd to physically harm women like me. The police must take these cases seriously - I know of one case where the police have failed to act despite multiple reports of a violent trans activist who has sent disturbing material.
- Catherine Thank you for doing this. Not that I expect it to do any good....

Dal	As a woman, mother, sister, daughter and working in public protection this dangerous ideology is eroding the rights and safeguards for women and children. Support women.
John	This is bad
Martin	The intimidation, shouting down and ostracism of women for expressing their views is a form of tyranny which the government, through the inaction or forbearance of the Police, the CPS and Judiciary, is enabling. It must be stopped.
Kim	There is a war waging against women and children. Please do something to help stop this travesty of justice. Women rights are human rights.
Kate	violent and intimidating males under disguise of transactivism need to be stopped, they are emboldened by lack of action from people in charge, police, cps, courts and government. Time to take action and see them for what they are. Male perpetrators of violence against women.
Deborah	This hate has got to stop. It cannot be lawful for a violent man to encourage assault against women. For that is what a terf is, any woman, who doesn't agree to give our rights away to men. This is the UK 2023 20
Val	What happened to the campaign via the uk Police - VAWG. Yet, time and again, Violence Against Women and Girls is met with disdain, condescension - and most recently with amusement by court judges, and sentences that underpin the contempt Britain has for women. Make VAWG mean something.
Karin	My views are not radical, I don't want to stop anyone being their best self, but not at the expense of women. For holding the perfectly normal view that sex is binary and cannot be changed, I have been harassed, harangued and abused. We are reported to silence us. This has to stop
Jacqueline	These are terrifyingly times for women. I know you have listened but our institutions seem riddled with these ideologues determined to dismiss us or worse join in with the enabling the threats.
Antonia	Violence against women has reached epic proportions. We are half the population, we are tax payers and we deserve to be afforded basic protection by the police and the judiciary. I'm
Debbie	This needs addressing. Protect the women of this country

- Dara “The harm caused to victims and society by violence against women and girls (VAWG) in all its forms – including but not limited to harassment, stalking, rape, sexual assault, murder, honour-based abuse, coercive control – is immeasurable”.
National Police Chiefs Council Report (unread? Ignored?)
- Sarah Captured judges must not be allowed to pass off incitement to serious violence against women and girls as a joke. Just because this man pretend to be a woman (with my name) does not mean he should be allowed to incite violence against us.
- Madeleine I have never felt more afraid of being a woman than I do now. Misogyny is on the rise in all forms. Why are women not having their sex based rights defended by powerful men? Why are the few women in power that can help us, terrified of speaking out? I feel hopeless, misunderstood and marginalised.
- Jill Please stand up against this pernicious tide, which is affecting women and children adversely on multiple levels.
- Olga The view that the TRAs and their ilk are harmless, impassioned, ‘idiots’ defending themselves from hateful women is an extremely dangerous one and I predict will result in the death of a woman. The govt will not act until a TRA murders a woman ‘because they were a TERF who deserved to die’.
- Karin Women’s and girls’ human and sex-based rights are threatened. I was never asked, and I will never consent to men claiming to be women to define the rules.
- patrick Fairly obvious, isn’t it?
- Inge Violence against women is perpetrated by men, because men in authority don’t stop these men. They don’t stop these men, because they often agree with them, by inaction, attenuation, deflection they actively collude with these men.
Any Prime Minister has a clear duty to work to end violence.
- Pamela The campaign of hate + intimidation against women who stand 4 women’s rights is clearly evident. Men’s rights activists threaten violence across the public domain, online, on banners and at high volume @ women’s right events. Some men actually beat women up. Baker is a real and present threat
- Michelle Please, DO something. Women are being intimidated and bullied into silence just for knowing that biology is fact. I don’t dare speak out under my real name because I know my publisher will drop me like a hot rock and I will lose my income, and all for speaking the truth.

- Cirze Please consider the harm to girls and women from men (pretending to be women) that we are now enveloped by.
- Susan I am one of the stewards for KJK's Let Women Speak. I have seen first hand the sheer hatred & aggression women face from these violent degenerate men claiming to be women. I am also a survivor of 23 years of coercive control & domestic abuse etc, and the police did nothing. Women deserve better.
- J Women fought long and hard to get the rights and safety they have now, just to watch a group of misogynistic trans activists strip it away. Safe spaces eroded, violence and death threats.
Police and justice system doing nothing. Women losing jobs and careers for speaking out and you let it happen.
- Dionne This has been going on for years, politicians and police etc all turn a blind eye, not dissimilar to turning a blind eye to domestic violence... why, because they don't care about woman's rights or the right to voice a valid opinion.
- Naomi I have a 5 year old daughter who doesn't deserve to be 'punched in the face' either.
- Andrew My partner has been campaigning for women's rights for a long time. the protests were always peaceful, but now she feels frightened and intimidated by the threats of violence against her & her friends so much so that I now have to escort her to a protest to ensure her safety as the police do nothing.
- Lili The level of violence against women who simply want safe spaces, fair sport and separate prisons is beyond a joke. Sarah Baker's comments were met with a huge level of support from the crowd. It is only a matter of time until a woman is seriously hurt
- Kate Brilliant letter
- Linda Women need the law to protect us from violent men not make it a joke as the judge did in this case .
- Diane I agree wholeheartedly with this letter. It is shameful that this situation has been ignored by those in positions of power for so long. We demand you stand up for women's rights and safety!
- Rowan Despite the promise of anonymity, I am unable to sign my real, unusual therefore easily identifiable, name. This is because I believe, with good reason, that should it become publicly known that I have supported this letter, my livelihood will be put in severe jeopardy. There is precedent for this.

- Dorcas I've been 'cancelled' for 8 years. Constantly reported to police, on third arrest due to the group doing this to me. no help to stop this, been told by psychiatrist this week I'm making it all up even though I have hard proof. It can happen to any1 from anywhere. I'm 65 female
- Barbara This is an appalling situation for women and girls. We have no political party to vote for, no public toilet is reliably free of men , women's sports have been made a mockery of and threats of violence against us go unpunished. Outright misogyny at every level.
- Suzanne I fear for women and children in this country .
- Graham If we lose the rights of women we lose the rights to life itself we must protect them as the most precious form of life we have . They should never feel threatened or abused for being the eve in our world. Those that oppose this should be put in there place promptly and the law must support it !
- Mark Offense can't be defined subjectively. Law can't be subjective. McPherson is nonsense.
- Sarah I am devastated that this man has the support of the judiciary in his very real threats against women.
This decision will embolden other dangerous trans activists.
- Darrell It's time for you politicians to change the habit of a lifetime and show some courage. You work for we the people but in reality apply your efforts solely to keeping yourselves in your privileged positions. Time for CHANGE.
- Marcia L Transactivism is a campaign against women and children.
- Jana Mum
- Nicola What are we doing to society? Why are we giving privileges to violent men? Why is the law not protecting women and children? This will affect everyone, we will live in a lawless society
- Philippa This should not be allowed to happen.
- Ian Unbelievable that such a basic truth has to be fought for.
- Rachel This letter is such a relief. I used to be in the 'be kind' to trans camp, having always been pro-LGB. But I have watched my young girls become increasingly scared to say anything to anyone about their rights. It's about freedom of speech, and women's safety. Trans-activism is nasty and misogynist.

- Ruth Double think... this man in a frock with a history of violence (he has a penis) is referred to as "she" by idiots in the judiciary & "journalists" and sent to a MALE prison. Do you all think we are stupid?
- Lucy We need clear leadership in the face of escalating violence and intimidation against women who stand up for their rights
- Sarah A woman is an adult human female. Our hard fought rights to single sex spaces that ensure women's dignity and safety (and fairness in regards to female physical abilities) are under attack by men - and safeguarding of children is also at risk of being completely compromised by gender ideology.
- David Women and girls must be protected from the violent rhetoric and actions of trans activists.
- Shelley I'm so tired of the government's lies. "We care for women" they say, while allowing men to take over in our sports and enter our private female spaces.
A man called to a braying crowd that they should punch women in the face & you all did nothing. Don't tell me you protect us.
- RUBY It's astonishing that in the 21st century women's rights to free speech and freedom of assembly are openly under attack in a Western democracy. And politicians in all parties are silent about this intimidation.
- Emily I am 23 and disabled, I know what TERF means and if I do so do you.
The police, the politicians and the justice system all know but you fail young women like me when you ignore the violence shown us from the TERF name. It's at women, only women and we are being hurt for speaking.
- Stacey Misogyny and male violence against women have sky rocketed out of control.
If the law continues to fail women, we will have to seek justice ourselves.
Male supremacy will not be tolerated again.
- Amanda I am appalled at the hatred of women and harm to children that is being allowed to flourish. It is now abundantly clear that genderist ideology has its roots in Queer Theory, the philosophy of paedophiles who seek to break down all social and sexual boundaries. Stop this madness now.
- Gail Sex actually does matter...to millions of people. Men are not women and never can be. You would not affirm an anorexic, neither would you encourage someone who believes they are Superman to jump off buildings. Gender ideology is exactly that, AN IDEOLOGY. The vast majority do not believe in it.

- Laura Absolutely outrageous that this man is allowed to threaten and intimidate women. Not only this but the fact he is a known violent criminal is unfathomable. This needs to stop, women need protection from this thuggery and incitement to violence against us for speaking to protect our rights.
- Jennifer Just as the domestic threat of “incels” was beginning to be taken seriously, that all seemed to disappear and now terrifyingly, this new campaign of hate against women is not being taken even remotely seriously.
This is just the latest face of age-old misogyny and history will see that.
- Eileen From a mother, grandmother and great grandmother. Please help us to stop this before it’s too late to reverse the fall in status of women in this country. We’ve been there before and don’t want to go back.
- Heather Our society cannot claim to regard women as equal humans with men whilst we tolerate this violence and harassment against women for campaigning for our rights, as women and for women.
- Kate Radical Lesbian Feminist
- Dawn Please take this seriously, it will not go away, it will only get worse
- irene It has become very scared to be a woman in today’s society. There seems to be extreme bias against women in the police forces and the judicial departments where males committing violent acts against women are getting away without punishment. This needs to stop immediately.
- Joanne Years and years of abuse and violence by trans activists and their cohorts towards women, which many see as domestic terrorism, needs to stop.
- Chris No comment. Speaks for itself.
- Denise This violence against women has to be recognised and stopped.
- Penelope I find it very disturbing that the safety of women and children is a lower priority to the Government than “diversity” targets. Women and children are diverse. But we all need defence from predatory and violent males however they “identify”. Woman is not an identity or a costume.
- Mike I have witnessed women being targeted relentlessly online & in public with intimidation & violence as well as being socially ostracised for saying no to trans activism. The acquittal of Sarah Jane Baker seems perverse, given this person’s background & public nature of their statements.

- Lisa I'm sick of being condemned as a hater. I don't hate anyone. I just believe in the protection of women's sex based legal rights, of women's safe spaces and of my right to express those concerns without fear of aggression or abuse!
- Emma Shameful that this has gotten to this stage.
- Kim How can stating facts incite violence? Why are women and girls no longer worthy of protection? This movement is setting back the progress of women by centuries. If someone believes that humans can change sex, a woman can have a penis, men can get pregnant, I won't believe anything else they say.
- Genevra Women are born women and men are born men, nothing 'we' can do can change this simple biological fact.
- Damian It has to stop. It is criminal we have got to this place
- Lizzy Women are experiencing an increase in violent threats in bars, on social media, and at female led meetings. Women are supposed to be protected by legislation but violent males often get away with violent behaviour.
- Amber Very grateful to your government, especially Kemi Badenoch, for starting to roll back institutional capture. I would welcome very clear guidance for schools and the NHS and other state bodies.
Violence and threats against women limit our physical freedom but also our speech.
Thank you.
- Kim We are rapidly losing women's rights in the UK. Language to describe our sex, single sex spaces, and face verbal, online, economic and even physical violence and aggression defending our rights.
- Freija Stop violence being used to intimidate women, lesbians and gay men campaigning to protect their hard fought for rights.
The fact that the police and judiciary appear to go out of their way to ignore violence against women is extremely worrying.
- Michael Parent, Grandparent & Church Elder
- Tom The time to realign back to common sense and provide unequivocal protection for our women and girls.
- Henrietta Thank you for all the work you do!

- Ann These threats and acts of violence are preventing women from fully participating in our society. That's no way to make decisions, policies, and laws. Recognise how it's shaping public discourse - and take action now!
- Julz The attacks on women's rights are happening on YOUR watch. You need to sort this out NOW. If you think that you can wait until the election and use us as a football then you're wrong.
- Ellie Please do something about this. This situation has been severely impacting on women's mental health for years now and has gone on too long. I feel genuinely frightened about the future.
- Cathryn Recognise a female PLEASE
- Jerie I hope it's ok for Americans to sign. I follow what's going on in the UK so closely that I feel like a part of the community of UK women who are in this battle.
- Angela It's not a crime to have views on keeping women and children safe, no men in women's safe space regardless
- Libby Safe guarding of women and children rights must be protected at all costs.
- Carine As a woman, a medical professional and a mother of girls, I am extremely concerned about the negative impact of this ideology on the future lives of women, and the ignoring and silencing of dissent on the future of democracy.
- Chloe Violence against women is acceptable in the UK if it's done in the name of "Trans rights".
Does a woman have to be killed before the government take notice?
- Fiona Please listen to us, we matter.
- Francesca Women and girls are human too.
- Jodie Women have had enough now, it's time for politicians and the police to do their jobs and take a stand.
- Stella If the word terf was replaced with black person, disabled person etc this would be a hate crime.
- Karen We now have institutionalised misogyny in the police services, the NHS and the judiciary. Violence against women is escalating and men, including magistrates, think it's all a bit of a laugh. It must be socially unacceptable to threaten violence against women & there need to be serious consequences

Patricia	Women are under threat in more ways than I can ever remember, and I am 70. This latest farrago with Baker underlines clearly how little the police and judiciary take our concerns seriously.
Jane	Like so many women I am concerned about the lack of freedoms we face in such a misogynist age. Others need to stand alongside us. Gender critical views are not extreme; the majority agree with us.
Jemima	As a lesbian I am horrified by the way trans activists call for violence against lesbians who want lesbian (born female) only spaces. And the social contagion that is leading many young girls to believe they can only have a relationship with a woman if they change their gender.
Pamela	I am not a sub species of WOMAN
Stella	So sick of these violent men getting away with all this!
Margaret	Women need the government to recognise the objectives of this extremist group and the threats they pose to us.
Lisa	Here in Scotland a man who calls another man a 'mean' word gets arrested. A man who punches a woman hard in the face and arm causing extreme bruising and distress gets a wee telling off. Across the UK men attack, abuse and threaten women who understand biology. You can stop this. Do the right thing.
Sarah	Enough is enough, women need to be protected in law
john	The action requested is now an imperative Rishi. Do something soonest.
Joanne	Allowing some men to abuse trans gender status makes it a mockery for those who genuinely feel they are born in the wrong body.
sian	I am so shocked and appalled by the lack of men defending women's rights.
Ania	Women are sick of people told misgendering or declaring women are women is a hate crime. For this we are threatened or arrested, yet men who declare themselves trans have carte blanche to threaten us, incite violence and actually commit violence with not so much as a warning.
Dr Kathryn	The police and courts have created a two tier system, where crimes against women are considered lesser offenses , if prosecuted at all. Institutional sexism is a stain on our country, and betrays women at their most vulnerable. We pay taxes for services denied to us, why ?

Amba	This letter shouldn't have needed to be written. This is out of control, and has echoes of darker days for Women and Girls Rights. If trans women wish to be called women, then they should expect to be treated by the law as such. This will be a single issue vote for me. Be determined to stand firm.
Rachel	Having read posts on the case, I'm horrified that the judge was potentially biased. Was the wrong crime presented, why were witnesses stood down, what involvement has the judge had in writing policy. The law is rigged against women. WE ARE HUMAN BEINGS. Our country is sick, this is a deadly cancer
Lynsey	We need this issue to be discussed at the highest level of government, and for proper reporting by mainstream media.
Sian	The laws of the land are the last bastion of hope for women to feel that they are valued and feel safe in society. If we cannot rely on fairness in law there then we do not have fairness anywhere and cannot fully participate in society. We are being erased as a sex class, do you not have daughters?
Susan	Teacher.
Grant	It is absolutely unacceptable that women can not gather in the public square to speak or state their reasonable views online without fear of violence. The police stand by and do nothing due to fear of accusations of transphobia. There needs to be proportionate consequences for the aggressors.
Victoria	I am horrified that women who believe in sex based rights are being subjected to violence and threats of violence and NOTHING is being done about it.
T	Gender is not a construct. Gender roles and gender stereotypes are constructs. Let's fight to end gender roles and gender stereotyping. Let's also fight for the rights of women, girls and children in general.
Lawrence	Sex Matters English language matters Women matter Sex based rights matter. Do the right thing!
Caroline	Men cannot be women, and making that claim shouldn't be treated as a 'get out of jail free' card.
Jamie	Please keep up the good work.
Anthony	Sex matters!

- Paul Women have human rights to freedom of assembly and expression and to the elimination of violence against them. <https://www.ohchr.org/en/instruments-mechanisms/instruments/declaration-elimination-violence-against-women>
- Jacque This level of intimidation, particularly aimed at women needs to be taken seriously. Women, and the men that support us, are fearful of speaking out, and defend our sex based rights. The lack of support by the police, and justice system only serves to undermine our safety, and free speech.
- John The trans movement is not about helping genuine trans people to get on with their lives. It is a dangerous destabilising ideology that is corrosive to society, is misogynistic, is dishonest and seeks to undermine lesbians and gay men.
- Helen Females desperately need you to protect us from violence and harass which your police forces and judges are encouraging by their behaviour. Think of your own wives, mothers, daughters or sisters subject to these attacks - they is what is happening to us
- Brian I'm a gay man. I'm ashamed how this Trans movement is taking away especially woman's rights
But also men's rights ,and gay rights. This has to stop. The Trans movement is a dangerous agenda for society. Please wake up before it's too late.
- Emilie I have lost faith in the police and the criminal justice system to protect women and girls from violent criminals - this must be addressed.
- Alison The Prime Minister should also be aware that the demands of trans rights activists regarding the recording of sex and gender in official documents have led to misleading information being provided to his Government and to the public in the 2021 Census and in crime data.
- Julie It is beyond time to acknowledge that women & girls exist, not as notions or feelings men have but as fully formed human beings comprising half of humanity. We have fought long & hard for our rights which are now being decimated by the enshrinement of sexism as ideology replaces science. No more.
- Deirdre Violence against women is unacceptable and letting trans activists threaten "Terfs" is part of a pattern of threatening and silencing women. Men who want to be women can't be allowed to commandeer language that describes reality. Where will it end?
- Nora Keep women safe!

- Deirdre Violence against women is unacceptable and letting trans activists threaten “Terfs” is part of a pattern of threatening and silencing women. Men who want to be women can’t be allowed to commandeer language that describes reality. Where will it end?
- L Supporting hard-won rights for women and girls.
- Susan There is a tidal wave of women too scared to speak out on this issue. Ordinary Women now living in fear of protecting the rights and autonomy of themselves and their children. How is this the case in 2023?
It’s shocking! Time for evidence based discussion and action!
- Liz We are your mothers, sisters and daughters, as well of the majority of the population. Why is it acceptable for a small but vocal minority to incite and use violence against us, simply for existing as a biological fact?
- Claire Why is it too much to ask for fairness, consistency and respect for women?
- Nathalie Blatant incitement to violence against women (Terfs/slur) and yet the court agrees Sarah Jane Baker ‘s vile comments were meant as a joke !!!!
- D On top of the usual amount of bullies and rapists, women and girls are being attacked by incels, Andrew Tate and his cult followers, corrupt police officers, trans-activists, trans-opportunists, and some politicians, all justified and supported by Stonewall, while the rest of them look on.
- Lindsey The police and judiciary need thorough investigation to understand how deep this rot goes and what needs to be done to make sure women get the justice they deserve.
- Jill I’m happy for my name to be made public.
- Cheryl This has been going on and escalating for some time now. I cannot believe action has not been taken yet to prevent this misogynist violent movement inciting violence against women.
- Kate Sex is binary and immutable. It is not hateful to say so, and it matters.
- Trudy Citizen and voter
- Rita Women’s rights are hard won. Who would have thought we’d have them for such a short time before men tried to snatch them back again using threats, violence and the manipulation of political power & influence?

- Cowan This ideology has captured all our institutions. It is not kind, it is toxic. It is damaging not just to women, but to children and to freedom of thought, speech and association. It is ultimately a threat to democracy itself. It had to go!
- Bernadette Excellent. Thank you x
- Henrik Of course sex matters. We humans can't change our sex and whatever it may say on your driver's license it don't change that around one bit.
- Jyne You're more than welcome to publish my name.
- Terry Absolutely agree

Adult human female
- Sharon I fear for my daughter, nieces and potential grandchildren.....the escalation and visibility of hostility and violence to girls and females in such a short space of time for wanting to maintain their hard fought female provisions and for pushing back and daring to say no is terrifying.
- William I fully support Sex Matters in this endeavour.
- Patricia Please stop turning your back on Women
We are 51% of the population you are supposed to care for and we are being intimidated and injured just because we are women
- Rachelle If you stand by and do nothing this ideology will only harm women and children more in the future.
- Leah I am an artist/activist with two projects - on older women and on women, fashion and climate crisis.
My work is being impeded by slurs of transphobia because I prioritise women and girls. I will never stop this work, but I do fear for my personal safety, especially as I live in a small town.
- London This is hatred, abuse, assault, and inciting violence, directed at one group by another group. You wouldn't stand for it if this level of hatred was coming from any other group in society, so why is this okay? Is it because the victims are women????
- Elaine Thank you for organising this letter. It is so needed.
- clare All getting worryingly McCarthyesque.
- Beverly Women are being silenced by the actions of trans activists. We are scared to speak because of threats of violence and job loss and intimidating behaviour and words.

Mark	Prime Minister Your ultimate priorities should be... <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Defence of the realm 2. Protection for all, but especially children, the vulnerable, the old, and women. This request comes under the second priority. Urgent action from you could make a huge difference.
Bethany	This needs to stop
Sarah	We are all diminished by the narrowing of roles brought about by Trans Activism. Gender stereotyping was fought against in the 60s, 70s, 80s. A man has no idea what being a woman is like and vice versa. You cannot change sex. A dress and make up doesn't make a woman.
Cathryn	When will women be listened to? What will it take?
Rhona	Only recently, a woman Julie Marshall was punched in the face twice by a TRA at a woman's event. Despite being shown the footage, Police officers did not arrest and charge the assailant. Utterly, utterly appalling. Police Scotland hates women.
Clare	Standing up for girls and women's rights is not being a bigot or fascist or transphobic. This video demonstrates the level of violent misogyny within the Trans Rights movement and its threatening to females. It's unacceptable and must be challenged.
Catriona	Sarah Jane Baker is my neighbour and I am the nearest 'TERF' to him. Based on his actions, I would live in fear of intimidation and violence, from him or his followers, if he were released. I do not want to live in fear. The threats he made have history and were very real.
Lothar	We cannot throw protections and safety for women away just because some AGP men feel "pretty" and want to wear dresses. These men are clearly willing to use violence against women in an attempt to intimidate them into playing along. "It was a joke/publicity stunt" is never an acceptable excuse.
Marie	This has become both ridiculous and dangerous - you guys need to push back against this cult now
Emma	I am outraged that at the same time the government is supposed to be clamping down on male violence towards women that the judge has acquitted Baker and called Baker an idiot.

Such incitement does not make a person an idiot it makes them dangerous. On behalf of women, take action NOW.

Jennifer I'm very worried about extreme trans rights activist behaviours

Karen The bullying, intimidation and violence must stop. There are biological differences between the sexes and It is not hateful to state these facts. Men are free to live happily, and equally, as transwomen, but they are not women. TRAs are intimidating us all and it must stop.

Steff Please stop the hatred and violence towards women. Keep violent men away from women who want to speak about keeping our rights, our spaces and our language. Keep women safe!

Richard Violence against women must be addressed. Violence against women by trans activists must be addressed.
This is not the time to pander to a minority, vocal and violent group of Trans activists.

Maria Overt aggression and acts of violence and intimidation towards women need to stop. Now. Different views are the norm in a liberal, tolerant and pluralistic society. Calling for and enacting violence against women who hold different views is unforgivable.

Sharon Awful that we have to petition the PM for anyone to take notice

Ian Men have no place in women's sports or safe places. There are only two sets binary and the difference matters. Defend the rights of my and everyone else daughters. Get thus nonsense out of schools especially.

Lyn I think trans issues have become so complex that it is easier for politicians either to ignore the issues, or pay lip service to them without actually fully grasping the complexities of what is happening.
Violence towards women, and misogyny in general are dangerously present in the UK.

Gail It is time that the police and justice system should act for all citizens, not a favoured few.
There is a serious mismatch between the police reaction to, for example, instances of women tweeting provable facts, and men engaging in intimidation, incitement and actual violence.
This needs to stop.

N There is no middle ground between "men can be women" and "no they can't". Stop trying to sit on a non-existent fence and pick your side: Fiction or Reality?

- Marie I don't want my grandchildren both the boys and girls, not knowing what a woman is, I want my granddaughter's to be safe in the toilets and changing rooms
- Susan I am fast losing all confidence in the British Police and justice system to act fairly and impartially. This needs addressing now.
- Lesley Please recognise the legitimate fears of women and girls Mr Sunak.
- Caroline Keep woman safe.
- Annie Sex matters in life and law and women must be protected from violence and threats of violence from men. However they choose to dress. #womenwontwheesht
- Emma I am fed up with being made to feel like a second class citizen in my own country. These men need holding to account for their misogynistic hateful behaviour against women.
- Donella It is beyond comprehension that a man can stand at a public rally and call for violence against women. It is frightening to realise that the crowd listening to him cheered his words.
- Tara I am a mother of daughters.
The clear misogyny demonstrated by the police, CPS and courts along with other institutions has now reached the point where I fear for my daughters' future.
As I'm sure mothers feared in Iran in 1978.
- Maureen I survivor of Domestic Abuse at the hands of a man. As a woman, I stood no chance against his strength, even though he was a scrawny little man who never exercised. Men are stronger than women and more prone to violence (see crime stats). Help protect women from Male violence.
- Jane Exhorting a cheering crowd to violence is not a joke. Women have enough reasons to fear violence at the hands of men. Seeing this particular threat made light of undermines our confidence in the system that is supposed to keep citizens safe even more.
- Stephanie I am a primary school teacher and also facilitate girls circles to support girls growing up feeling safer and free to be themselves. What is happening is wrong - it is intimidating girls and young women - how can they say what they really think when violent threats are made against them.
- Emma Thank you for writing this powerful letter that lays out the facts of the harassment that women face when trying to protect their sex based rights.

- Nicholas Happy if you want to make my name public.
- Simon This matter needs addressing to stop this escalating anti woman mindset and aggressive behaviour.
- Nicola It is terrifying that people are being investigated by employers for saying men are men women are women see recent Manchester Malmaison incident, or that lesbians cannot hold a women only event without threats, see Jenny Watson. This all needs investigation.
- Janette When did the UK become a place where women are targets for violent men to attack when they meet PEACEFULLY to talk about their life experiences and erosion of their legal rights?
- Gillian All trust is being eroded from our police.
- Niki This letter accurately describes the situation ALL women are facing during these current times. I am feeling unsafe as a woman because our institutions are captured and there is evidence that the police do not carry out their duties without fear or favour anymore.
- Nicola Our rights are being eroded and lives are at risk.
- Bethan When will the authorities start taking this seriously, does someone have to be killed first??
- Tracy While it has always been the case that many men do not like women being able to say 'no' or organise for their own benefit, the 'TERF' insult is now giving those men cover to insult, intimidate and physically attack women while police look on and courts look the other way. This needs to change.
- Margaret Baker actually said " punch her in the effing face" ...specifically women, who he claims to be one of. This male hatred is especially coming from evil misogynistic websites and is influencing young men who seem to see nothing wrong in being violent to girls and women. We must keep our safe spaces.
- Leanne It's outrageous that this man can openly incite violence against women and get away with it. It would not be acceptable against any other demographic. It's open season on women.
- Shelly Being a woman is every fibre of my being, in every cell. Claiming to be a woman because you are wearing a dress & a wig makes a mockery of the experiences of actual women. It reduces them down to a cheap stereotype that some men believe women to be. Trans is the social construct, Womanhood is real

Ruth	I would like this letter sent to the leaders of all main political parties
Carolyn	This horrifies me. How do they keep getting away with attacking women and then play the victim?
Marie	It is time to stand up and protect 50% of the population against these violent males. You inaction is making them bolder.
Hilary	Women fought long and hard to get equal rights, women-only spaces etc. These are now being ripped away by deluded men who are insisting they be treated as women. The so-called rights of a few are being placed far above the rights of 51% of the population.
Elaine	Women matter we are 51% of the population Males are not Women
Jeanette	I am appalled at the in the inaction of the police and the misogyny that allows this kind of threat to be passed off as a joke.
Diane	All this talk about protecting women and girls from abusive violent men and yet so many example of women being violated and attached by abusive men A total disgrace that men are allowed to harass and violate women under the guise of being trans.
Melanie	Please take this seriously
Kirsteen	The current situation is creating chaos and civil unrest. It will get worse if the government doesn't create robust policies and laws which acknowledge that biological sex is immutable. Compelled speech is an abomination and a law needs to be created which protects the right to speak the truth.
Wendy	What every happens in England will affect us in Australia. Don't let violence men get away with being violent because they believe they are woman.
David	I am consistently appalled by the misogyny displayed by UK institutions; including, but not limited to, the police, the judiciary and education. The deep infiltration of them by an ideology that is, ironically, homophobic as well as generally 'anti-woman', needs to be actively countered.
Thomas	Please protect women's' rights and spaces and sports from the trans extremists.
Lisa	It's time that men in power take the threat to women's safety seriously. A belief that sex is immutable and that women concerned about their safety and the health impacts of sex hormones, were allowed to speak freely about such concerns without threats of violence and attempts to silence them.

- William Just laughing at the law.
- ANN Thank you, thank you for being a voice for women.
I am now refusing to complete any forms that ask me if I am male, female or other and where possible I include an explanation of my reasons for doing so.
- Katharine Stop the genocide of women Gay and lesbian people.
- MA Biological sex matters for sex based rights and gay rights
- Jane Thank you for calling this what it so clearly is - a hate crime against women.
- Karen Gender ideologists are currently one of the biggest threats to the safety of women. Our freedom of speech that enables us to defend our rights as women is being quashed by threats of violence and intimidation. It has to stop before a woman dies defending her rights.
- Carol Thank you Sex Matters team for all you are doing to stand up for women's rights
- Clare This is seriously dangerous for women and children. Who is looking out for us if not the police?!
- Erika I am happy to sign this letter as Women's rights are under attack as never before.
- Vernee Please stand up for women who stand up for women's rights.
- P J Although not a part of the LGBT+ Community, I am appalled by the violent behaviour towards anyone (primarily women) who advocates safe spaces for women, women only sport protection of children etc. Also horrified by the lack of protection women receive from authorities, who really should know better.
- Sandra We are in enough danger from men without potential predators being allowed easy access to women and children. Children do not need to see explicit gender material nor do they need to be taught that biology does not matter. It does. Sex and gender are NOT the same.
- Paula I no longer trust the judiciary/police who appear embedded and biased towards LGBT+ ideology. I am a middle aged woman who is fearful for children and younger women. Shame on this government letting this misogynistic cult grow within most of our institutions.

Women and girls need the law's protection

- Julie This man is violent to his very core. Woman and girls are in danger now due to his realise.
- Nicola Thank you so much for all of your work and efforts.
- Charlotte Thank you for the work you do and good luck
- Jean If this disgraceful situation had threatened any other sector of society, it would have been stopped. This is an attack on 51% of the population. Women of all beliefs and of all colours. It must be stopped.
- John How much longer will the woke police and criminal justice system sit back and do nothing to protect ordinary people from this tidal wave of intimidation and violence. Uphold the law!
- Rachael I have been around MH & ND my entire life. I KNOW first hand that puberty, MH, trauma & ND can cause GD. When I express caution when transitioning children & young adults in distress, I fear extensive reprisal each & every time. I am desperate to prevent unnecessary harm & for that I live in fear.
- Gwen It is my belief that if Baker had advocated punching a "n*r" or "y*d" in the face he would have been treated far more harshly. His comments would have been treated as inciting violence toward black people or Jewish people, and rightly so. Does violence against women not count as hateful?
- Caroline this is a disgrace. Transactivism is out of control
- Honey Anne When are you going to protect women's sex-based rights? When are you going to protect women's right to free speech? When are you going to stop violence against women?
- Patricia Women's rights campaigners need to know that the law is supporting them. Men calling for violence against them should be punished, not allowed to walk free after claiming it was a joke.
- Vanessa Protect sex based rights.
Keep the ideologies to philosophy class.
- Wesley This is a movement of pornsick men who hate women with male friends in high places.

- Sarah I am flabbergasted by the judge, letting SJB off for inciting violence against women.
What a despicable judge!
I'm sick of male crimes being recorded as women's crimes. The whole thing stinks.
- Liz It's time to roll back the rampant misogyny gripping society. This cannot go on any longer. Please support us.
- CATHERINE LYNN The primary purpose of women and girls rights is to protect them from harm from men.
Trans activism seeks to remove these rights, and UK institutions, including the Police and the Justice System, are failing in their duty to provide protection.
- Miranda Please stop pretending this is not happening. Let women speak.
- Jen I'm an ordinary woman who is appalled at what is happening now, often aided and abetted by the police and courts. Signing for my daughter and granddaughters
- Vicky Teacher - lost my job for raising concerns about socially transitioning an 8 year old with autism
- Moyra Why are threats of violence, attempts at violence & actual assaults being ignored or treated leniently?
Recognise what is happening and take action.
- Niamh Women are accused of hate speech when they talk about their sex based rights. While they are bullied, silenced, threatened and smeared as nazis by those who preach acceptance and inclusion
- Liz None of this is complicated. Men are stronger than women. A frock isn't kryptonite that makes them weak. Sarah Jane BAKER was not joking. The legal precedent set by simply believing the violent bloke vs evidence and the difficulty for decent committed people in CJ cannot be overstated.
- DAVID women deserve to own the words they use to describe themselves, spaces to be themselves spaces of refuge away from the male gaze.
- Karen This behaviour is unacceptable towards women and is oppressing most women from being able to speak out due to fear they will be attacked. It has become almost impossible to have a debate without fear of intimidation or violence.
- Erika As a Tory voter, I can only say please DO something!
This War on Women must stop now.
Women and little girls are entitled to protection against violent threats and actual violence under the law and we are also entitled to privacy, dignity and safety away from men whenever we may choose.

- Fiona Treating incitement to violence against women and girls as a joke is the marker of a judicial system that has never really accepted that women's rights matter.
- Robert Stop this utter madness
- Patricia Takes women a long time to become as angry as I am now at the injustice, the politicians who treat women with absolute contempt, the male supremacists pushing gender with threats, the stupid women who support the mutilation of kids because they are sucking up to men. Now we are we won't stop
- Joanne If the comments made by this Trans activist had been against any other group of people there would have been a public outcry (and quite rightly). When it's men making these comments against women we are ignored, brushed aside or worse, told we had it coming to us!
- Nicholas I couldn't believe the judgment in this case. It seems perfectly fine then to encourage violence as long as it's a 'joke'. A disgrace. Women have my support.
- Kim I am so tired of this war on women. I am tired of being lied to by main stream media. I am tired of male crimes being recorded as female crimes. I am tired of feeling baffled that common sense has been eradicated in every institution. But mostly I am scared for my grandchildren, truly scared.
- Malcolm Action must be taken. This cannot be allowed to continue.
- Mark We are well past needing firm action against default wokeness and the accompanying trans activism in our institutions Rishi.
- Mags Can they explain the difference between a man saying "if you see a Terf, punch them in the fucking face" and a woman saying "if you see a transwoman, punch them in the fucking face"? I want to know why one of these statements is a crime and the other is not?
- Emma Yet another case of men trampling on women's' rights and perpetrating violence against women. Such irony that this time it's by actually claiming the right to be a women against biological fact. Stop this utter madness
- Karina I object to being called a Terf! I am a woman.
- Emma This is not ok. The normalisation of calls for and acts of violence against women has to end.
- Toni The U.K. government must clarify sex means biological sex and public bodies must be forced to maintain sex based statistics in order to maintain data integrity

Stephen	You can make threats ON VIDEO now and be “ not guilty “????
Hugh	Sex matters. Stop violence against women by men. Transwomen are men
Moiria	This letter should go much further than the Prime Minister. The other political parties need to take notice, as do all arms of the criminal justice system. Women no longer feel safe.
Geraldine	Excellent letter.
Natasha	This isn't about hating trans people, it's about Not Hating women.
Eileen	Violence against women is a stain on the democratic name of the UK. We fear violence of any kind and no longer trust the police to act when we are threatened or attacked. For others to encourage and incite violence is despicable and leads to distrust, fear and disrespect.
Rachel	This has gone too far. Protect the rights of women and offer independent therapy to people with genuine gender dysphoria
Maureen	This denial of reality must stop. Women and girls have rights. Men need to respect them and the police and public institutions need to protect them. People can dress and act in a masculine or feminine manner if they please but it must be acknowledged that sex is real and that sometimes it matters.
Naomi	This is really important. We cannot roll back hard win protection for women. Women's rights are human rights too!
Surrey	For the sake of all women and girls and the future of my granddaughters, this has to STOP! Our safety, and freedom of speech is now governed by a minority of MEN!
Helen	This violence against women both verbal and physical can be stopped by the government acting to halt the gender ideology that has infiltrated our institutions, schools the NHS, the Civil Service, the private sector. It is not a human right to lie about science to adults and particularly to children.
Lauren	Teacher
Harold	This issue must be taken seriously and addressed soberly if women's rights are to be protected.
Rosie	Having grown up in Northern Ireland during the worst of the Troubles, I have seen habitually violent men use violent language in every day life and laugh it off as a joke.

Peaceful people do not this. We are right to be intimidated and please, we need your help.

Penelope Male violence, even when wearing a dress, is still male violence.

Faye It's about time violence against woman who know what reality is ENDS. We need protection for our spaces and our sports and we have HAD ENOUGH. Women are angry. Our language is being taken, all in the name of an ideology that falls apart when examined even slightly. Please help.

Lesley Women and children need safeguarding against violent men whether that man is wearing lipstick and a skirt or not. Gender ideology is abusive to women.

Jacqueline Ex Labour Party member and potential Conservative voter.
Women need confidence in a party that stands up for their rights.
The Conservative Party will get my vote if they prove themselves to be that party.

Razwana Please help protect women children and all of society from this evil.

Barbara Women have been punched in the face by transactivists. This was not a joke. A public figure calling on a cheering crowd to punch black people, Jews, or trans people in the face would almost certainly be convicted of incitement to violence. Why should women be less important?

Marie Women deserve to be able to speak without the fear of violence. Violence and threats of violence currently appear to be condoned by the state.

M This appalling ideology has been allowed to infiltrate society in 13 years of conservative rule. You should all feel deep shame

Elizabeth Calling for violence, even in "jest" is never acceptable. Calling out violence against women and girls, whether in words or deeds, must be the accepted norm.

Gile Mr Sunak, The trans activists are very aggressively pushing their ideas in schools, the NHS , and Whitehall. All publicly funded .The movement is confusing and abusive to children's mental health, women's identity, safety and sports . It is a biological lie. Reform the Gender Recognition laws.

Gina The agenda of trans activists is to silence any objectors to the loss of women's rights and child safeguarding. For some reason authorities have taken it upon themselves to ally with this aggressive and threatening male dominated group. Inciting violence against women is full of hate and I object.

- Teresa The entire criminal justice system is working against the safety of women and children. On gender identity the CPS is totally captured. This is political corruption
- J I live in a semi-rural part of the UK a few miles away from a man who describes himself online as a "TERF puncher".
I've seen him in real life. He's very large.
I'm an average sized woman with a severe chronic illness.
I don't doubt he would easily cause me serious physical damage if he chose to.
- Lorraine This radical activism harms women, children and decent trans people alike. Please listen to our concerns.
- Sara Please DO SOMETHING about this madness NOW!
- Jennifer Why aren't you protecting the rights of women and children???
- Barbara Concerned parent
- Paul Absolutely shocked, that the judge could accept that explanation.
The abuse and hate I read online/in the news, on a daily basis from transactivists, is abhorrent. The scale of it highlights just how badly institutions like the police and courts are failing to protect women and their political bias
- Sharon As a sexual trauma survivor as a child and an adult, please keep sex segregated spaces for women. They are essential.
- Roselin I hereby fully support sex matters in defending women against extreme transactivism e.g. physical intimidation, threats of violence and assault, and to protect our freedom of speech.
- Pauline Freedom of speech, Association & thought, should not be contentious. Police, NHS, Education should not be associated with lobby groups, neither should our seat of democracy, Parliament.
- Belinda I'm sick of hearing people say this is happening on 'both sides'. It is a lie. Women deserve to be protected from violence.
- Victoria Women's trust in the institutions of the state is destroyed when a violent criminal out on licence incites violence against us, the police have to be forced to arrest him, the CPS charges him incorrectly, and the court accepts obvious lies unchallenged.
- Charles Safety of women and girls come before 'political correctness'. Protecting the rights of Trans folk should not be done in a way that diminishes Women's Safety and rights.

- Ann Trans activists threaten violence and sometimes get physical, police stand by and watch. Yet a woman misgenders someone online and gets arrested. Where is the protection for women? Women have fought hard for their rights over the years and are now watching them get taken away. Please stop this now
- Madalina If you were to replace the words "terfs", or "J.K Rowling" with "black people", "jews", "foreigners", "gays", it would be seen as a hate crime, and prosecuted accordingly. Why isn't this the same?
- Susan We must protect women's rights
- sheila Sex matters in life and in law and women deserve to be protected from the Gender Ideology nonsense. No one has ever changed sex and yet men larping as women seem to be treat with kid gloves from the Justice system. You cannot compel speech in a free society but that's what is happening at this time.
- Ewa Ewa Justka, polish artist, educator, feminist.
- Kimberly Enough is enough. Public abuse, aggression and incitement of violence against women by men is being given free rein by our police, and public services especially if those men are claiming to be women. Hard won women's rights are being trampled on and our safety eroded. What on earth are you doing?
- Susan Use my name. I'm happy to say what needs saying.
- Lalita This man belongs in prison.
Is he joking about woman, too?! LOL
- Jennie Women deserve better
- Marianna Make society safer for my three daughters.
- Jayne Stop ignoring the intimidation of women.
- Ruth When a man is arrested for calling a politicians a name but another is let off for initiating violence against women for trying to defend their rights I am seriously concerned for how this country views women
- Jackie I hope they take our concerns seriously. This is a war on women.
- Vicks Protect women's rights and spaces
- Lynn Midwife (retired) and writer - doctoral candidate University of Glasgow
- Sara Thank you for doing this

- Irene It's unbelievable that so many presumably sane people have been taken in by trans ideology, and why are they so aggressive? They must have mothers, sisters, grandmothers who are biological women, why do they have so little respect for their rights and dignity?
- Sheila Charities that condone or express views detrimental to women should automatically lose their charitable status.
- Michael Male violence against women and girls comes in many forms. It has to be named clearly as such in whatever form it takes. No exceptions.
- Paula Happy for name to be public.
I would like to add the intimidation of ordinary women by activists. I have had my photo in a tweet with the implied threat 'we remember faces' and I have been told, 'we have a file on you, we know where you live' Police witnessed and refused to talk to the man.
- Ellen Inciting violence is a criminal offence
- Paulette It's so important to safeguard women & children, I have personally witnessed activists assaulting people at women's events, my friends have had death threats, threats to rape them and their children, this gender ideology is a terrorist organisation nothing less and needs stopping immediately.
- Gina The Sarah Jane Baker case is a shocking example of the difference between the way the police and subsequently the criminal justice system deal with incitement to violence against (overwhelmingly) women and their overreaction and overpolicing of people expressing legitimate beliefs protected by law.
- Sharron The violence against women has to stop !
- Susan This is important.
Please take action.
- susan It's outrageous that this man who has previously been found guilty of violent acts has been allowed to get away with inflicting more violence to women. It seems to give the message that all women who disagree with this ideology are fair game. This is shameful and something needs to be done about it
- Angela There are two genders male or female. This assault on women is disgusting.
- Neala Police forces need urgent reform in England and Wales.
They continue to harbour abusers, rapists, corrupt individuals who predate on women they come into contact with.

They continue to protect violent men, especially now men who identify as women who can threaten us with impunity.

- Evelyn The trans “rights” movement is becoming more blatantly a male sexual rights movement - if they really wanted trans rights they wouldn’t behave like this. Women are being erased and abused. Women are the vulnerable ones, we are being beaten, raped and killed, not trans people. Help us.
- Gillian Standards enforcers like Stonewall have become all powerful. Their influence prompts civil servants and the police to ignore our elected Government. Something must be done. I am a Conservative voter but now long for a new party to take action on the madness that engulfs women in the UK.
- Anne The recent judgement re Alan Baker is seriously worrying and very disturbing. Thank you for fighting.
- Sarah “The UK public elects Members of Parliament (MPs) to represent their interests and concerns in the House of Commons.”
Women are not being represented, and safeguarding is being dismantled. It shouldn’t be left up to us to deal with this. MP’s & EHRC need to do their job.
- M This has gone far enough and politicians need to grow a spine and call a halt. It’s a terrorist organisation that seems to be able to operate with impunity because everyone is terrified to tackle them.
- V I’m appalled at the Judge accepting ‘just a joke’ from the defendant as reason not to press on this. Getting punched in the face isn’t a joke. I’m certain the women who have been assaulted by activists when they meet to talk about women’s issues will agree. Protect women.
- Jen How can a Conservative government allow this to happen? Please do the right thing, I know Labour won’t.
- Annie Equality for all should not come at the cost of women. We are told our physical reality no longer exists. We are becoming indefinable in law. We are losing our jobs and our scholarships and places on sports team... And why? Because we have the gall to know what reality is
- Emma Women should not have to live in fear. We are being threatened by men and the crowds cheer.

Sue	Please PM - give this important matter your undivided attention - there are many examples of TRA violence, threats and intimidation against women for speaking up against male violence. Often met with the cry "Transphobe" or "Terf" !!!!!!! Please support women against male violence
Sharrona	Please take the threat against women & women's rights seriously, I don't want autogynephiles in women's spaces.
Catherine	This dangerous man was inciting violence against women who have the temerity to believe in biological reality. How on earth was he let off the hook?
Nick	The term of 'terf' needs to be categorised exactly the same as the 'p' word is for Asians and the 'n' word. It's a hateful word and the use of it should be criminalised.
B	TERF is a pejorative term, used to label women who wish to preserve single sex spaces where they matter, as a target for attack. The actions of Baker are misogynistic, and utterly sexist. Baker and his ilk use recently made-up terms like 'TERF' to hide their calls for actual violence against women.
donna	recently retired due to the gender cult taking over NHS and state, RMN, behavioural psychologist, generic therapist who started work in Wakefield prison and Newton Lodge forensic criminal psychiatry. Sex matters, I do not collude in delusions, I do not consent to participate in your paraphilias.
Tom	Women clearly have the most to lose in this transgender business, and it's becoming clear that the many TRAs can't control themselves in any civilized manner. While this raises important questions as to TRA's mental stability, the more pressing issue is to ensure the ongoing safety of women.
Megan	This country would collapse without the unpaid labour of women, and we deserve respect.
Jenifer	Adult human female rape victim fighter
Heather	A woman and a mother to a woman
Karen	Keep males out of female spaces.
Sue	I am so frustrated that politicians will not condemn violence against women.
Jan	Good work!

- Kim This is getting completely dangerous.
- Ben A culture of fear has been built up around the topic of Gender in recent years, designed to punish women (and specifically women) for not adhering to a new, Gender-centric worldview. Extreme Gender Activism's appetite for open hostility against women in the public sphere must be addressed
- Neil Neil Baki, Barrister and Senior Crown Prosecutor
- June Please listen to women.
- Stephen As a criminal justice social worker I am appalled at how justice systems across the UK are systemically failing to protect women and girls.
PS I'm happy for you to use my full name and job title.
- Viv What exactly is the definition of violence against women if it's not threats to kill, injure & abuse ? Perhaps making misogyny a hate crime against biological women would help.
- Beverly Many women are self excluding from society in order to not have to use our own toilets. This happened in Victorian times when women last had no privacy in public toilets. Gov.uk stated in 2020 the govt is concerned with rising misogyny. You must help us.
- Jacqueline Trans activists tell lies, ll the time, and the people who believe their words are either ridiculously naive, or paid for.
So called leaders have ignored many attacks on women, and have been cowards. What if your mothers were attacked?
Please show some COURAGE, intelligence and DECENCY on this.
- Chris TW like SJ Alan Baker are giving ALL TW a bad image, even those who have struggled with transition and want nothing more than to live their lives peacefully without harming females or other trans.
If you respect females, please do something to stop hate speech like his being allowed.
- Claire It's not only about our safety. Respect and fairness are so important and no man can EVER know what it's like to be a woman. It's not a feeling, it's not boobs or makeup or long hair. It's our lives, our whole lives.
- A Mother, bodyworker, womens rights activist.
- Sue This onslaught needs urgent attention. Our civic institutions are being turned into laughing stocks with devastating consequences.
- John It is hard to conceive of anything more destructive for individuals (particularly women) and society than gender ideology enforced by extremists.

Louise	Please help protect us and your wife and daughters.
Jacinta	Ordinary women like me feel we are staring down a barrel right now. We are doing our best to defend ourselves, our sisters, daughters, and mothers but being pilloried for doing so. You must as our PM stand with us and speak out now in the strongest terms and follow up with action. Thank you.
Maxine	This dangerous gender ideology must be stopped for the sake of all of our children's futures
Lucy	"Woke" misogyny is the last acceptable form of misogyny. It's where women-hating cowards hide. Make it stop.
Emma	Stop the sexism. Stop the homophobia.
Olivia	Time to actually do something to protect women as you said you would. Action not words.
L	Violence against women and girls is not being taken seriously by the institutions who are there to protect the public. We must be free to express our opinions/beliefs, and state biological facts and scientific evidence, without fear of violence.
caz	We experienced trans activists assaulting women and preventing our peaceful speech and assembly in Albert Park New Zealand with the police and politicians and media all supporting violence against us if we meet
Frederick	The extreme aggression and violence against women are increasing. Women's legal right to not be threaten with assault are ignored by Politicians, police, BBC and the courts. Who hate women having rights more? the Trans movement or Taliban. It's very close but Taliban are just in front.
Sadie	We are your mothers, sisters, wives and daughters, please defend us.
Tracy	Nurse. Floating voter.
Catherine	Working class woman horrified at the destruction of women's rights currently ongoing in my country. I fought for those rights. I refuse to lose them.
Veronica	Why is it that, appearing at an LGBT Pride event and exhorting the crowd to "Punch a TERF in the fing face" is not punished as an incitement to violence against women?
C	We are women and we matter. Don't allow men to erase us under the guise of "exclusivity".

- Jacqueline Something needs to be done about this before a woman dies because of these activists who are not representative of the decent trans community.
- John It is difficult to imagine that if a Womens' Rights Activist had said 'Punch Trans Activists in the Face' that she would have had her remark treated as a joke. And this man is a violent criminal so such a threat should have been taken seriously.
- Alastair When women peacefully campaigning to uphold their sex-based protections, are abused openly by trans rights activists (mostly men), without censure or redress, our society is harmed. Please act to curb this woman-hating mob.
- Robert We need to stand up for women's rights and not be bullied into accepting the idiotic idea that a woman can have a penis. Keep banging the drum. I will always give my support for womens right.
- Alison Staving off attacks all the time is exhausting. Worrying about bad men (and I accept there are very many good brilliant men) is exhausting. Just keep safe spaces for women and keep women's sports for women. We keep being told feelings are important- so are those of women. 51% of the electorate.
- Catherine Please stop the double standards and protect women and girls from this type of violence and intimidation
- Julie When it's right in front of your eyes, how can you not see it?
- Virginia Grandmother, mother, sister, aunt, great aunt.
- Maria Women, need protected against predatory men. They, are using the trans movement to perv on little girls in changing rooms, public toilets etc. Men, dressed up as women are still men. People, with real gender dysphoria know a female is uncomfortable with men in their space.
- F An incredibly violent convicted criminal is allowed to incite violence against women who won't indulge his fantasies.
Is there any other group of people you can threaten with impunity?
Is it only men who play at being women who can make these remarks with impunity?
Protect women.
- Benedicte This trans activist is being permitted to openly incite violence against women with perfectly reasonable views. The government must act to protect women.
- Mary Good-- well done!

- Patrick I have seen first hand how the balance of equality has moved across to the trans community and away from every female.
If you have any respect for your mother ,dauter,aunts,grand mothers please address this situation which is toxic to the female population.
- MadeleineF For the first time in my life, I am having to meet like-minded women in secret for fear of violence from TRAs. I can scarcely believe this has happened.
- Alison Vice chair, on behalf of Liberal Voice for Women.
- Elizabeth I am fed up of women's rights being eroded by men. Let them campaign for their own trans spaces. Human beings CANNOT change sex. No amount of hormones or surgery will change facts. You know this already stop pandering to the mob and realise that SEX MATTERS
- Helen Ive listened to what an evolutionary biologist has to say...Richard Dawkins. Suggest the Police should be educated about the difference between sex and gender.
- Karen Women's rights are human rights and are being eroded by increasing levels of intimidation and violence against us, not least because we state the very obvious fact that sex us real and matters.
- Lucy This has gone too far. I am liberal as they come and I don't care who anyone wants to sleep with or how they want to identity. What I will not stand for is the decimation of women's rights (when we STILL do not have anything close to equity or equality) in the name of trans rights. govt is too scared!
- Karen I have written to Kemi Badenoch expressing my concerns but have received no reply.
- Sadie There should be peaceful and nuanced dialectics and not abusive, aggressive misogyny directed at women and people who see gender as a socially constructed form of sexism.
- Marcia Enough is Enough
- Derek I hope common sense prevails
- Georgina More needs to be done to protect women and children from this insidious men's rights take over.
- Sarah This has gone on for too long Prime Minister. Please be the one to restore sanity and truth to women's rights and women's safety. Thank you.

- Claire Anonymous by necessity because I am disabled and the main family breadwinner is a freelance artist who would lose all his work if our views were known.
- Marg Violence against women by trans activists and trans-identified people has increased dramatically. And yet, trans-activists are treated as if they are a protected class. Charges are not laid, charges are dropped, court cases are thrown out or penalties are light.
It's getting dangerous to be women
- Judith The way women's rights are being taken away for the benefit of men who say they are women, is unacceptable in a civilised society. Our safety is being put at risk, the language we use to describe ourselves is being stolen and our access to health, safe spaces and work is being undermined. This must
- Lorraine I Live in Scotland but it is of the utmost importance that the UK government and justice institutions consider and evaluate this situation for what it is: incitement to, and enabling of, violence against women. Misogyny unmasked. Hopefully, this will force ScotGov in to similar action.
- Gwendoline When someone as violent and mentally unstable as this man, who ate his own testicles, tells others to punch women...no matter what they believe...you should believe he means it. He is a misogynist of the first order and frightens the life out of women like me, a 68yr old grandmother.
- Roger The Trans community are indulging in McCarthyism. Free speech must be preserved !
- S The onslaught of threatening and actual violence against women, by trans activists is escalating. Review the Sarah Jane Baker case - he is a convicted kidnapper and attempted murderer, now free to harass women.
- Anne The intimidation of women cannot be allowed to continue.
- Sally women's rights supporter
- Tracey It is unforgivable that our government, judiciary, NHS and police forces have turned on women and left us unprotected against violent men who want to invade our spaces, steal our rights, and groom our children. We are here, we matter and you have a duty to keep us safe.
- Rachel I am 57 years old and, like J. K. Rowling, believe that this is the most misogynistic time I've lived through. I feel a palpable fear for women's rights and women's lives, more so now than at any other time I've lived through. Any progress we made in previous decades is being rapidly swept away.

- Stephen As a straight, white male, I am disturbed and appalled at the levels of violence, actual or threatened, bullying, economic and professional intimidation being carried out by men in the name of defending trans rights. It's destroying the Green Party, weakening academic institutions and freedoms.
- Jackie I am shocked and fearful to see the rising tide of hate and discrimination against women who 'dare' to say that a woman is an adult, human (biological) female and that we don't want biological males in our female only spaces such as toilets, female hospital wards, refuge centres or women's sports.
- Dee Please protect women and girls' rights and ensure safeguards are in place for them in single sex spaces.
- Sarah Trans activism, extreme or not, presents a threat to all women. Women must have single sex space in school toilets, hospital wards, changing rooms and in ALL sports.
- Maxine I'm about to start donating monthly to you wonderful women and men (if there are any men working with you at Sex Matters) . I am with you and thank goodness for you
- Helen Biological reality is a fact. Stating it is not hate. Women are entitled to be safe from violent men and oppressive ideology. We are not a feeling or a sub-category, and men cannot insist they have a right to our protections, provisions and spaces. Please protect us from this growing assault
- Laura I have a daughter, and it terrifies me that she is growing up in a country that is stripping women of their (hard-fought) rights in order to appease a small minority
- Maria-Helena Women should be free to discuss their rights without the threat of violence and cancellation.
- samantha UK society and culture has been negatively impacted by pornography which has saturated all aspects of life. This is driving our increasingly misogynistic culture, of which gender identity ideology is a disturbing facet and is incredibly dangerous to women, children and gay people. Please protect us.
- Susan This has my 100% support.
- Susie Women's rights are being trampled on in the courts, in the CPS and on the streets. Women and girls have always faced violence but this new wave of violence from trans activists is chilling and is gathering pace. Politician and law makers need to act now to safeguard women and girls.
- Sabita This is a hate crime. Please protect women from hate.

- Lily Stop trying to replace women, with men who think they are women. It's an outrage committed against 50% of the population.
- Dena This is a creeping issue that grows larger every year. When such matters become so extreme that they can't possibly get worse they always do. It's so important for the public to be made aware of the changes that are happening before it's too late.
- paul The vast majority must take precedence - Government must stop pandering to a miniscule number of extremists.
- Katherine The infiltration of our institutions and public services by the trans extremists is worrying. I don't want men in female only spaces, cheating at sports and slewing the crime figures.
I also don't want to be 'punched in the fing face' by a man for saying so.
- Emma This needs sorting now before more terrible things happen.
- Elizabeth Standing up for women's rights may now be your only escape route from electoral oblivion, Rishi!
- siobhan Women's rights are being attacked by a small number of violent extremists demanding access to our single sex places, changing rooms, domestic violence refuges, prisons, support groups, etc., biological men are also competition as 'women' in women's sports deterring girls and women. Protect our rights
- Grenville sex equality matters, there can only be 2 sexes Male and Female, in all walks of life Sport business leisure etc there must be a legal acknowledgement that only women can be in women' spaces events or sex specified areas, the same for men's spaces, your sex is defined at conception and can NEVER change
- Kelly Violence towards women and girls is still violence if it is committed by a man who identifies as a woman. Please protect us.
- Jane Lack of government and police intervention is allowing the violence towards women increasing.
- Sarah As an unpaid carer & older woman, I do not wish to be gaslit constantly by men who pretend or think they can be women. Worse, I do not expect or accept the state supporting them in their aim.
- Margaret I am a member of the WI, supposedly a women only organisation. Trans identified males are now members and any biological woman who speaks out against them are vilified and threatened, so we take the easy option and elect to stay away from any event that may include them. How can this be right.

Janine	I have been at some Standing for Women events that that person featured protested, he was shouting abuse at us through a loud hailer and we were surrounded - it was very frightening. That is a dangerous and unpleasant individual in my opinion. Thank you for doing this Sex Matters.
Susanna	Threats against women like this cannot go unpunished. Women are being hounded and quashed for voicing fears about, for e.g., drugging children (see: Roisin Murphy) but supposedly men are allowed to incite physical violence against women and it's ok?! No.
sue	This has been going on too long! Women are half of the population and half of voters. We have had enough, if you want our vote protect us.
Emily	Healthcare Professional
Samantha	Hard fought for women's rights are being eroded and ordinary women, like me, who try to stand up and be counted are being threatened, abused and attacked. This is an organised campaign, by men, targetting women. Please stop it now!
Emma	Courage calls to courage everywhere.
Giovanna	These activists are dangerous. Women and girls needs protection but so young men and boys who are being sucked into this too. These activists are promoting hate and crime. It's frightening and is effecting me personally. I live in Scotland.
Helen	This is not a joke, Sarah Jane Baker has won this battle to encourage violence against women who do not agree with him. A known violent ex convict who is inciting violence at any gathering where lesbians, women, children and gender critical parents speak peacefully.
Hazel	Violent discourse against women is increasing
A	I am a woman in her early thirties, extreme transactivism is the most appalling form of misogyny I have ever encountered and it makes me very afraid for the future of women's rights.
Laura	The suspended sentence on this case urgently needs reviewing by the Home Secretary . It is not acceptable and ignorance of the law by professing to be an idiot (which was retracted when he left court) is no defence in law .
Susan	Stonewall is calling the shots, how are they funded? By tax payers' money? Why are the Government pandering to them?
Lisa	Extremely concerned about females rights, please support us

- Davey In solidarity with all women.
No qualifying prefix or explanation required
Also supporting trans folk who don't identify with the destructive misogynist public face of trans today.
Young people will look back in shame that they were hoodwinked into believing they were on the side of kindness.
- Claire When are you going to take seriously the threat to women?
- Cathy Exclusion of gender-critical women also extends to recruitment, as some employers check their top applicants' social media for posts, likes and reposts of feminist statements.
- Karen I moved to the UK to feel safe. I come from South Africa. There is no doubt what a woman is there. Femicide and rape are rife. Violence against women is never acceptable. Even if you have a difference of opinion. Threats and intimidation is not the answer.
Why does it seem that women don't matter?
- Clare How can a judge dismiss this as a joke? The sane would not have happened if the remark was made about Black people or homosexuals. Why is promoting violence against women a joke when one in four women are already victims of it?
- Anne Judge accepts threats of violence against women from a convicted violent torturer as self expression. Women who don't use pronouns correctly are bigots. I despair.
- Sue This misogyny has to stop.
- Patricia I am a retired Midwife. Quite frankly, if I were not retired I would have had to resign because of the misplaced tolerance being presented as good practice under the umbrella of Transgenderism.
I believe that politicians need to urgently stand up for women, and women's rights, in the UK.
- Richard As a husband and father, I believe women need to be protected against this extremist transactivism
- Kati Trans rights activists across the world are misogynistic and violent, seemingly with impunity. This is a men's rights movement enabled by the state.
- Richard This clearly a no brainer - children must be protected from uninformed and agenda seeking activists. In the U.S. people cannot drink until they are 21, so why is it so difficult to understand that children should not be subjected to ideological thinking until they are adults.

Tarryn I've watched this escalate over the last few years - will it take an actual murder for the authorities to look at what has been allowed to happen. It's getting worse, action needs to be taken.

Sheena The constant belittling of women is an insult to half the population of the world. Trans women are trans women, not women. Live your life trying to look and act like a women if you wish, but remember you are a man. You have the same rights as anyone else but you are a man.

Dianne The suppression of women's speech advocating for our own sex -- a protected characteristic under British law -- is of great concern.

Pamela Our sex, our safety, our lives matter

Davey In solidarity with women. No prefix or further describer required or accepted. This is the era when those w set out to destroy individuals for life plead their punch-drunk victims to "be kind". Support trans folk to live happier lives without reinventing biology or misogynist bullying and violence.

Julie Respect the rights of others to live their own life, but not like this.

Lynda As a former Children & Family Social Worker, now retired, I am watching with horror at this ideology that unashamedly targets women and children, calling for violence and medical experiments. Please get these activist training ideologists out of Health & Education.

Christopher Sex is binary. Gender is a spectrum.

Lucy Thank you

Brian "Trans Rights" are the human rights of genuine transsexual people to live their lives with as much contentment as possible, free from harassment, bullying or violence, they are NOT any such false rights as to claim a biological change of sex, or to join women's own spaces. Transwomen are men.

Paul Protect women now.

Deborah Absolute fed up with the way women are being treated - that is real women as opposed to these delusional men. Our rights are being undermined and we don't seem to be receiving the protection of the law. Why not?

Aileen	An excellent letter. I have no problem with my name being made public!
Claire	Please
Jessica	As a victim of sexual assault, like many women, why would this sit well with us- Watching a man publicly tell the mob to punch terfs in the face, while the woke police and the establishment look on. And to see him triumphantly walk out the dock. It's Insulting.
Valerie	It's time for the government to take action against the rising incidences of discrimination, intimidation and misogyny in our society.
Melissa	As women, we should not have to resort to calling on the Prime Minister to protect our rights. Failing to protect women from the extreme trans activist movement is utterly shameful.
Deborah	Everybody should be free to live their lives how they wish. Nobody should demand others believe they've biologically changed sex, because it's chemically impossible. A small group are making it impossible for both sexes to be respected equally by demanding validation of their own personal issues
Sarah	I have a PhD in Education and lecture in Further Education at the University of Stirling. My union, the UCU, actively campaigns against women who believe there is such a thing as biological sex. This is a hostile environment to work in when the education of future generations is at stake.
Tra	He should be in prison. The Police will only take notice when he kills a woman.
Sarah	This is essential in protecting women from male violence.
Cf	Women are losing their jobs, being investigated by the police for "inciting hate" for merely stating that a trans an is not a women. Yet this trans women has been let off an actual crime for a public incitement to inflict bodily harm on a women who merely states this biological truth.
Lesley	Sex trumps gender
Christine	In the States, Canada, Australia and New Zealand, transgender ideology has taken a strong hold on society, and women's, parents and children's rights have been terribly abused We don't want this to happen in UK. It's up to our government to protect society from the evils of this false ideology.

- Christian As a male- my mother brought me up to be a feminist and to fight for equality.
As a gay man I'm for equality for all but I'm against the erosion of women's rights, freedoms and safety.
Everyone should be able to live the life they want to live but not to the detriment and safety of women & girls.
- Kelly The institutionalised misogyny in government and public services is sickening. Women will not be silent.
- Louise I work in academia and I am terrified I will lose my job if I speak out about my concerns over the medicalisation of children, the threat to women's single sex spaces and this violent rhetoric that is consistently justified as being targeted against 'hateful bigot'.
- Suzanne There is no violence on the other side. Men always call for violence against terfs and it is escalating.
- Dee This is a clear case of incitement to violence, yet this known criminal (with a previous history of violent behaviour) is acquitted. That clearly demonstrates that the courts treat men claiming to be women differently to others: this is unacceptable in law.
- Carol It is time our government stood up for and protected women and girls from the onslaught of violence, intimidation & erasure of our rights.
- Sandra Woman, mother, grandmother concerned about women's rights and the medicalisation of vulnerable children
- Sophie This campaign of intimidation against women must be taken seriously. For years political parties on all sides have been scared to speak up for women. It's heartening to see that representatives from Labour and the Conservatives have co authored this letter. It's time for leaders to take note.
- Louise Women's rights are the single issue I will be voting on at the next election. You need to remove gender ideology from schools, the NHS and the police.
- Toni Violence against women and girls needs to be dealt with appropriately within the law. This includes extreme trans activists inciting and encouraging violence against women. The judiciary are failing women when they accept that "it was a joke" and acquit a man openly inciting violence against women.
- David I'm very pleased you are doing this. It's time to stop this attack on women by trans activists. We must make this an election issue for 2024.
- Anne Entirely support you. Happy for my name, to be public! I'm

L	Dear Prime Minister Screaming to 'punch a terf In the face' means punch a woman who won't obey in the face. Why did a Judge think it okay to allow women who are disobedient to be threatened with physical violence? The Judge's overall sentencing trends need review for any anti-woman bias
Rosemary	Women are being put at risk and are made second class citizens by the prevalence of gender identity. Gender identity should not be an excuse to be lenient to violent males.
Noreen	Adult Human Female. Mother. Woman, born not worn.
Deborah	The Government have a duty of care and responsibility in ensuring the safety of women from violence, threats of violence and misogyny. These attacks must stop and the perpetrators of violence against women must be stopped. Misogyny must be named a hate crime. Trans rights cannot demean women's rights
Anne	How can punch a terf be dismissed as foolish when coming from an individual with a criminal record including violence. Clearly women do not have a voice in UK legal legislation
Suzanne	I don't mind my name being made public
Dawn	We cannot afford to continue in this direction where violence against women is condoned whilst women are not allowed to speak truth to men.
Jane	I'm very happy for my name to be public - Jane Roper Women's Rights Network
Bill	This degree of apparently officially sanctioned hate speech is totally reminiscent of 1930's Nazi Germany and must be reversed before it is functionally too late to stop it. Subjecting the majority of the population to the "mercies" of baying mobs of increasingly violent and psychotic extremists- NO!
Julia	It's rightly unimaginable that anyone using violent language to incite racially motivated attacks would escape the full force of the law. However women are no longer similarly protected and the defence of being an idiot is one accepted by the courts. These are dark days indeed.
Elaine	Male intimidation & violence towards women or children should never be tolerated regardless how that male identifies socially. Its astounding when authorities turn a blind eye when said males has a gender identity. This has to stop!!
Brigitte	Thank you for standing up for women, children and LGB. You are my heroes.

Shelley	Nurse Practitioner
Laura	Where I work, there are signs on the toilet facilities to say that people should use the toilets they feel comfortable with and should not be challenged. I asked a male colleague and, while the DEI committee has gone so far as to put tampons in the men's toilets they have not put sanitary bins there
Susan	Men cannot become women, you cannot change sex, no one is born in the wrong body.
Gill	This state of affairs has been presided over by your Party. As a lifelong Tory voter you have lost my vote while you allow men pretending to be women to treat real women like this. The police force is now under the malign influence of Stonewall- again under a Tory government.
Sara	Concerned human female.
Kinloch	Violence against women should be a top priority for the government, police, courts and taken seriously
Jo	Please stand up to the violent threats that come from the TRA's. It's wrong to say nothing.
Linda	It horrifies me what is happening to women's rights and safe places. I have seen my granddaughter not drinking at school all day and rushing home to use the toilet because of unisex toilet! Retired friends who have given up going to the swimming baths because of mixed changing rooms. Personal care issues
Sally	We need to protect the next generation of adult human females. We need our leaders to stand with us to condemn the violent behaviour towards women and girls
Kay	Incitement to violence against women lawfully & peacefully protesting should be dealt with severely. To find a man not guilty after punching a woman is totally outrageous! How can this be right, fair or just?
Nicola	What I find particularly distressing is that rapes or sexual offences committed by men can be inaccurately recorded as a female crime if the man chooses to identify as a female. A biological male sex offender can be referred to as female in newspaper reports and in court -this is the greatest insult.
Mark	The 2010 equality act needs to be updated. It should be clear that 'sex' i.e. the status of being a man or woman, is based in biology, fixed and immutable.

In no case should the protected characteristic of 'gender reassignment' trump that of biological sex, in the event of a conflict.

- Stipo There are no excuses for violent threats.
- Dave What a shame it takes a campaign like this to get justice.
- Jan I'm an advocate for neutrality and fairness in publicly accountable organisations. They must be seen to be unswayed by ideology, not turn a blind eye.
- Sue This situation is just appalling!
- Sarahi As women we have through centuries fought to be respected and keep our child safe. Since #metoo I finally thought things would change. Then suddenly the criminality of 'gender' law is tearing all that good work down, why do women and girls feelings and anxieties do not count anymore?
- sandra This is clear inciting violence towards women.
Already women are hounded and fearful just to speak up for their rights.
In places like UK schools Gender Ideology is taught and displayed.
In the toilets I have seen 'People who menstruate'.
Enough of men bullying women, define the word WOMAN.
- Julia Men are not women. The GRA needs to be scrapped it's legal lies.
- Lynda I am honoured and proud to add my name to this letter. Many of us have been fighting for women's rights for a long time, when can we rest?
- Ghislaine This campaign against women is the worst attempt to women's rights since 50 years. Please show us that we no longer live in a patriarchy.
Please show us that you care about women's rights to speak up and defend their rights
- Nicola I am beyond shocked that society has even given this minute minority any credence whatsoever. This era of deluded men pretending to be women in order to gain access to their safe spaces, their sports and even their hospitals must be stopped.
- Hilary The current wave of misogyny makes me fearful for the future of my 5 year old granddaughter. That much of it comes from and is applauded by those in positions of power in our schools and universities, national press, judiciary and, most chilling, the current government is shameful. It is time to act
- Gary We are witnessing the most serious threat to the equality of women since the battle for women's suffrage. Action by the government is required, and not optional.

Susanna	I stand with Sex Matters campaign
Linda	I wholeheartedly agree with this letter.
Clare	Please stop the safeguarding fails against women and children from extreme transgenderism
Elaine	Its ridiculous that this letter has to even be submitted to get some protection and to attempt to change things. Its our right, as women to be protected from these activist MEN
Marianne	Thankyou so much for your bravery doing what you are doing and standing up for women's rights.
Dawn	The continued intimidation of women, and misogyny must not continue. The law must protect women. Also, When men are convicted of rape and sexual assault, they should be housed in a male prison. Records must show that a male committed the rape otherwise rape statistics will be skewed.
Nicola	I am a serving police officer and disgusted at the ideological bias pushed on us by the College of Policing, National Police Chiefs Council and various staff networks. Gender Identity Ideology is directly in conflict with safeguarding and protecting women and girls. I have had enough of lies.
Barbara	I'm appalled that the police do nothing when women are under threat . But feel the police think it's the right thing to protect the perpetrators . Allow us a voice without fear of attack
Shelagh	Equality before the law is essential for a free society. No idea is above criticism. No person below dignity.
Terry	We've had enough! This is anti women, authoritarian rule, how come the government have given over their powers to men in dresses who hate women?
Carole	Women's rights are human rights.
Kerry	Please stop this hate against half of the population of this world. Women have suffered enough from patriarchy+, we thought we were getting closer to equality and then this hideous wave of women haters took hold. This has to be dealt with. The world are watch us and copy us!
Jennifer	It is beyond belief that in 2023 Women are being asked to defend our very existence. Thanks to the misogynistic and regressive ideology of transgenderism, women are being threatened, erased and having their hard won rights lost. Step up and stop this violence and loss of our right to speak.

Terry Thoughtful Therapists

Mary Feminist Activist

Sheena The lack of action against misogynistic males harassing, bullying, silencing & assaulting women under cover of trans rights is utterly terrifying. In Scotland, a male trans activist who punched a woman in the face when she was simply setting up at a Women's Rights event has not been prosecuted.

Jayne Deeds not words - Please have courage and strength to support the truth and women as we fight to protect our rights.

Darren The system needs to wake up to what is really going on.

Deborah Dear Prime Minister, I am appalled at the way in which some police and other public services are siding with violent men and ignoring a duty of impartiality. So many of us are afraid to speak out, because of what would happen to us at work, in our social lives and civic lives.

Collette Woman = adult human female. That's it.

Sheila If you don't stand up, your grandchildren will inherit a world in which they can't.

Susan This is what happens when you make some protected characteristics more protected than others by adding an aggravating factor. Trans-identified males have greater protections in law than adult human females. We said this was going to happen and lo and behold! it has.

Karen Men who commit violence are not women. Protect women not violent men.

Fiona Defend women, not violent male predators.

Nadja Please, threats against women can't keep being accepted.

Jo I am not a CIS woman. Just a woman. Single sex spaces and sport are essential. And I can't believe it even has to be said..

M This issue should have been addressed at a political level long before now. Not doing so has led to this urgent situation where men are openly threatening women with physical violence. And those same men want access to women's sex segregated spaces and resources. It has to be stopped.

- Phil You can tell anyone I signed. If he had said to punch a male trans-sexual in the face, he would have been arrested and found guilty
- Eliz Protect my daughter
- Denise We can clearly see there is a double standard being applied by police, prosecutors, and in our courts between those born female, and those who affect to wish they were. This is unacceptable in a country that still clings to its claims to be a democracy, in the face of all evidence to the contrary.
- Anne Stop the hate. Our language and culture is being hijacked my misogyny and alienation. It must stop. Our beautiful gender gave birth to all of you!!!
- Elizabeth I've signed this letter as I can't believe this is happening in the UK where Women who are standing up for their rights can be punched & assaulted yet the perpetrator can get off with it Rights that Women fought for are slowly being eroded in the UK
- Diane Too many people are being hurt by the impacts of a belief in gender identity being prioritised in education, health and society. Women (or men) who want to talk about the harms being done, primarily impacting women, children & young people, deserve to do so without the threat and fear of violence.
- jae I cannot believe this is the UK. This is surely incitement to hatred. What is the law doing about it when the law is stated so clearly - NOTHING?!
- N We've all been so scared. Please do something now. I believe you will do the right thing.
- John This madness needs to stop.
- Susan As a HV
I know domestic violence leads to child abuse drugs homelessness etc. Women are not abusing gay people but we are paying the price and so are vulnerable children and teenagers.
The police NHS etc have been captured by this misogyny.
You can stop this.
BE ON THE RIGHT SIDE OF HISTORY
- Lisa
Hocking We must stop people like this from damaging natural born women, they are misogynists, if they want to become women they should understand us and fight against us
- JULIA I'm not a radical, I attend pride every year, I worked in beauty industry in Brighton and have seen the torment transgender people have suffered but, a man is still a man regardless of his name, the title he choose to go by which I totally respect) or the bits he's had removed and added to his body.

- Jay The foundation of our law is equal rights for all, not special rights for particular minorities, however they plead.
- Joan It's disgraceful when someone stands in a stage and says to 5000 people to punch a terf in the face. What makes it worse is this man has a long criminal record for extreme violence even in prison.
- Tina This bonkers ideology must be stopped. Men pretending to be women so they can gain access to women's safe spaces. Transmen are often mentally ill, autistic, anorexic, depressed or anxious girls, most of whom will wake up at age 25 when their brains are fully formed. Keep it away from the children.
- Christine Sex matters! XX have rights which are being brushed under the carpet whilst male violence towards women continues with little to zero consequences
- Henny Union representative
- Gabriel The judge's decision was disgraceful: finding a convicted violent male offender not guilty of inciting violence against women in telling a crowd of 5,000+ "If you see a TERF, PUNCH THEM IN THE FUCKING FACE" (crowd cheered), due "only to wanting a headline in the Daily Mail": a transparent pretence.
- C This ideology enables male violence against women & children. Once women were called witches, then bitches, now terfs-it's just another way to hate women.
- Wendy We cannot allow these behaviours towards women and girls to continue. Women and our men must support and demand the law to become more proactive in protecting our rights and status in society.
- Norah The Gynophobic will not stop
- Jennifer I expect the state to publicly state it will not accept or even ignore the increasing women hatred being expressed by transsexuals and their allies. For too long men have protected and supported other males who hold women in contempt.
- Louise Signed a woman & a voter
- Natalie please do something about this.
women fought hard for equality this is making it into a joke, please stop this rot now before it goes too far if it hasn't already plus the attitude of the police! disgraceful, and the judge saying 'punch them in the face' is a joke - :O(with domestic abuse etc etc

- Pegler Public institutions and figures must defend women's sex-based rights and women speaking up for those rights. Women exist, and sex matters!
- Ann The double standards on display at the CPS is breathtaking! Women who state biological facts are harassed by the police while men who advocate violence against women can get away with saying they were just 'aving a larf'. Un-bloody-believable!!
- Deborah It seems that authorities are so worried about being accused of transphobia that they won't protect women. They're more concerned about the feelings of violent men who cross dress than women.
- Lynda I can't believe that women are being subjected to such threats of violence and intimidation and that nothing is being done about it. We have a right to speak as women and we have a right to protect our sex based rights
We cannot change sex our laws and rights are based on the premise of sex
- Louise This insanity needs to stop. State sponsored misogyny as the Government allows this behaviour get out of control...
How will the Government put this genie back in the bottle?
- John This has been going on for far too long. It shouldn't be necessary to assert the importance of biological reality.
- P Women are the largest proportion of the population continuously experiencing violence and inequality.
Thank you SexMatters for everything you are doing to shine a spotlight on a whole new chapter of male domination and aggression.
- Margaret Signing for my granddaughter
- Shirley It is shocking that men can openly incite violence against women using a loud hailer to a cheering crowd and get away with it, just by saying he didn't mean it.
If he had said against any other group he would be prosecuted.
- Yvonne Save our sex. Please.
- Cynthia I am very fearful for my 2 granddaughters if this awful disrespect to women is not stopped. From the attitude of the NHS in matters to do with sexual health, pregnancy and childbirth, to the mocking caricatures of women by drag queens and their ilk it is clear that normal women are being downgraded.

- Jan Am now an old woman. Can hardly believe this fightback has become vital in my lifetime. Shame on those who denigrate females.
- Miranda The police/Magistrates/Judiciary should be politically neutral and apply the law without fear or favour.
- Jackie It's terrible with what's happening with Women in general. Any kind of violence to women and girls must be stopped .To many women getting murdered by people they should trust is not on .
- Eileen This is such an important campaign. Violent actions and words against women must never be ignored.
- louise Sex Matters. Men are not women. NO to any form of violence towards biological women and girls. These men who are erupting violence against biological women and girl are not 'joking' they are dangerous violent men using the ideology of being women to get to their targets, biological women and girls.
- Paula The judiciary needs to apply the law without favouritism and without detriment to women.
- Gill I stand fully behind those of you with the guts and determination to publicly stand up to the terrifying rise of this "movement", for want of a better word
- Lizzie You know this doesn't make sense. Please support eradicating violence against women.
- Fran The police and judiciary must take violence against women seriously.
- Nick "Punch a TERF in the face"
This isn't considered as a legitimate freedom of expression, as it is a direct threat to violence.
With venomous hatred in his voice, this was no joke, i wonder if he would recant everything he has said, or just the things he needs to when in court.
Not buying his lies.
- David We must protect freedom of speech.
- John 100% with you.

- Lorraine I am sick of the sexism and misogyny in this world. When challenging it women are often dealt more of the same. In a country where almost three women a week are murdered by men this leniency is disgusting. It is not a joke. It is never a joke to call for women to be punched in the face by men.
- Nikki Is it okay for men to treat women like this, or not??
- Femi Tired of Judiciary appearing to be biased towards LGBT+ ideology. The rights of women seem to come second to men's rights. Any judge/police officer who has a known interest in LGBT+ rights should either recuse themselves from gender cases or be barred. Have little faith in impartiality of the law.
- Kate The "Decapitate TERFs" sign says it all about transgender ideology.
- Abigail Baker has been put on the front of national newspapers. Baker served 30 years in prison for kidnap and torture and is now threatening women with violence, and the police are doing nothing.
How many times do women have to express concerns for our safety before you take us seriously.
- Annr This is a deeply disturbing trend and women urgently need you to put a stop to it. The UK has become a place where loud aggressive groups receive special treatment and women's needs, fears, rights and wishes are entirely ignored.
- Sionnadh Sarah Jane is a violent predator who is actually and obviously encouraging trans activists to behave violently towards women. There are double standards here in the way the legal system deals with Sarah Jane and the way it deals with gender critical women. This is unacceptable. Please do something.
- Anyta This situation is disgraceful! Women's hard-won rights are being lost, their safety compromised & their very identity eroded and all because of a tiny minority who have acquired more rights than 51% of the population, i.e. REAL women. Many who claim to be women are just misogynistic, predatory men.
- Jane I was born in the 60s, was a teenager in the 70s but I have never experienced misogyny like today. And worse - women dare not speak against it for fear of losing their livelihoods or being a target of violent and sexual threats. I fear for our daughters and granddaughters.
- Sabine Women's spaces should be protected. Why is your govt so slow to act? Girls are being assaulted in schools' unisex loos. Social spaces provide for male only loos w/ everyone else being ghettoised in to one category. How can you house male prisoners w/ female? Protect women's sports! Do s'thing !

- S I can only do this because my name will not be made public. I am a teacher and I am at risk of being hounded out of my job if I go public about my concerns.
- Michael Bad things happen when good people do nothing. Every man should stand up for the writes of women.
- Inez I only dare sign this because it says here "Your name will not be made public." Let that sink in, Rishi.
- Ty Thank you for doing this.
- Jane The likelihood is women are going to be murdered by trans rights activists in the future. I would like the names of the prime minister, Mr starmer, Mr Khan and the police chiefs to be associated with laws to stop this eventuality. Not for those names to be complicit in this perversion of justice
- Patsy Sick of the insidious reach of misogyny through every level of society. We've got politicians (local and national), journalists, sportsmen and even comedians telling us that there's no problem.
- Barbara please protect children's and women's future
- James When someone sentenced to 30 years in prison for attempted murder, kidnapping and torture surely, when they have been released on licence they have a duty to the community they have been released into, to behave impeccably? His licence should be revoked, he is a danger to females of any age!
- Sara This is ridiculous and if they care about their women in their own families they will grow a pair and stand up for what's right. The only reason not to is because they smack their wives or wear their wives under garments hiding in their closets.
- Nicola End this horrific war on women and stop pretending you can't see it
- Ralph We need to actively defend Women's rights and Trans Rights. The law can occasionally take a lead. Violence will not resolve differences and must be outlawed then, perhaps, a step to a meaningful resolution. To say something is a 'right' does not make it a right. Let's progress to having definitions?
- Carly This is a disgrace. Women being silenced with violence by men identifying as women and the courts are fine with it.
- John It's appalling that the trans movement displays posters saying "arm trans kids" and "kill a terf". How can they get away with it?

- Stef The inconsistency in application of the law across the UK is ridiculous. Incite violence against women you disagree with - oh it was a joke. Call a trans identified ale a man and that's years of police enquiry, CPS pondering and thousands of pounds spent. Rape a child then say you are a woman ...
- Julie thank you for your courage Sex Matters in standing up for women and our right to try to protect children
- Deborah Please please take this seriously - the threat is real
- Annie I'm so sick of women who understand basic biology being threatened by adherents of this ridiculous misogynistic ideology. Clarify the Equality Act so that woman means biological woman please!
- David It has taken centuries for women to gain their legitimate rights. They must be protected, from all threats.
I support tolerance on all sides and rational debate. Some in the trans community are behaving hatefully.
- Cathie It's time to stop protecting the vocal minority whose aim is strip women of their hard-won rights & who place our youth in harm's way by advocating for the unfettered use of harmful hormone treatments for young, confused adolescents
- Mrs J Please look at this appealing example of double standards. A convicted criminal makes the excuse 'it was just a stunt' while blatantly inciting violence, while people who believe in basic biology are penalised for saying so and made the subject of NVHate Crime incidents.
- Laurie Sex is binary and immutable. Males cannot become females, females cannot become males, sex is determined at conception.
- Carl Women and girls need protecting from those who aren't biological females.
- Maria Do not allow biological males to silence women in the fight for women's rights.
- Tracy Women have been too kind. And it's opened the doors to violent men. Please go back to protecting women and children. Transitioning males are not women. We are. Protect us.
- Toni The actions and inaction of Public Bodies such as the Police and judiciary is the clearest demonstration of the widespread systemic and systematic misogyny I've seen in all my 55 years. It's time to do something meaningful about the free pass that violent men keep on being given.

- A Please protect single sex facilities, women's single sex sports and protect children from dangerous puberty blockers.
- Iain People cannot change their sex. 'Gender' means nothing. It is our biological sex that counts.
- Cathy I am a retired Police Superintendent and this is both needed and vital. Women are being betrayed right now. I am shocked at the current situation and very proud to sign this letter. Thank you!
- Winifred Gender ideology is misogyny in plain sight. A guy in a dress can literally incite violence against women, be tried and found not guilty. Women are fighting.
- Anne Men should not get away with urging other men to punch women in the face. The police should not need to be hounded into arresting them. Magistrates should not tell men who urge violence against women "It was just a stunt". And acquit them.
- Ruth I only feel able to sign this petition because my name will be hidden. I'm fearful for my job, and public condemnation and harassment if my name were public. I'm extremely disturbed that publicly advocating violence towards women who share my beliefs has been dismissed as a joke by a court.
- R As a mother of young daughters I am terrified that their generation will be subjected to even worse harassment than girls suffered in the 80s and 90s. As a society we are moving backwards, driven by an ideology that is religious in its zeal. Common sense and scientific fact must triumph.
- Lynne It is shocking that a man posing as a woman can be allowed to say punch terfs in the face and this not being recognised as an incitement to violence towards women and girls by the magistrates court. It is also shocking that the police are failing to recognised women's right to free speech.
- Julia More misogyny.....why am I not surprised?
- Judit Enough is enough
- Maggie I'm very very frightened that my 10yr old granddaughters' are inheriting an Orwellian world.
Please look after women. The mothers of these men/thugs in a frock must be ashamed.
- Anneley I am not in the public eye but I can see that so many of the women, and men, who defend single sex spaces such as changing rooms, toilets, hospital wards amongst others are threatened with violence and are at the receiving end too. I don't see the justice system being fit for purpose at the moment

Camilla Please act before a woman gets very seriously hurt - the ramping up of violence and intimidation with few consequences is obviously leading inexorably in that direction

Michelle As a 62 year old woman, I find it so disappointing that women's hard won equal rights are being eroded in every walk of life and frightened that these are increasingly dangerous times to be a women. It's time for those in power to stand up for women and not bow down to violent activists.

Josephine I cannot believe violence against women is tolerated by the Police. It is appalling in this day and age.

Gilly Sick and tired of the double standards applied to women and men - women arrested for unkind words about men, men unpunished for threats and actual violence towards women. The police and judiciary appear to be colluding the rolling back of women's rights in the UK.
Please put a stop to it.

paula I wholly reject being called a fascist and a nazi for simply acknowledging biological facts and for advocating for the protection of women and girls based on their sex.

T Please act to protect females' rights.

Susan As a woman I'm sick of the threats and harassment women face for simply saying no to men in all our spaces. Every day I see men, politicians etc being allowed to call women transphobic, bigots etc because we don't want men to be around women and girls especially where we undress or are vulnerable!

Frances Women's Rights Campaigner and concerned MOTHER

Ruari As a father, son and brother, this is very important to me. Please look at this issue closely and put an end to the abuse.

Carol Gender critical views are worthy of respect so it's legal both to hold such views and to voice them. Threats against groups and individuals and incitement to violence are not. The police need to do their job which is to keep the peace and uphold the law not dismiss male threats against women.

Louisa Women's rights that have taken years to establish are being eroded by hateful ideas being spread by insidious organisations that are infiltrating our schools, universities, local councils and other public establishments. These ideas are a perversion of what is real and true and need to be stopped

Jamie	Can't believe the sheer level of hatred by the 'transactivists' against women standing up for their right to feel safe in a women only space. I campaigned for the legalisation of homosexuality in Scotland in the 1970's, as well as supporting gay friends with AIDS. Don't give in my friends! X
Lorna	Working with young people experiencing body dysmorphia taught me how much they need to be protected at a time of enormous confusion, emotional and mental distress. Writing biological sex into law does this. Similarly women's dignity, privacy and safety is only done through legal protection.
Sarah	Unbelievable that this has been allowed to happen with so many politicians standing watching silently. Shame on them.
Sue	It is vital the trans movement isn't allowed to stop female/woman from meaning biologically born female/woman and male/man from meaning biologically born male/man. A person cannot change sex.
Linda	So fed up with this lunacy it's dangerous especially for young people. Men are men and women are women
Anne	Former Early Years professional, and Mum and nana of girls
Julian	2 sexes, zero genders, many personalities. Don't say gender when you mean sex.
Gill	Please help. I am over 60 I have been involved with women's rights campaigns and organizations since the 1970s. The amount of verbal and physical violence directed towards women organizing peaceful meetings and discussions about women's rights NOW is the worst it been since the early 1900s
Carol	No more, just no more. Although I am tired from the fight, I will not give up- they shall not erase us no matter how hard they try.
Beverley	This is the number one issue that will decide where I put my cross at the next election.
Joanna	Thank you for doing this on behalf of all women and girls.
Sandra	Please: Stand up for girls and women. Protect women's rights which are threatened through Gender ideology. Thank you!
D	Husband & father of daughters
Olivia	The law has betrayed women/children. It has become too ideologically captured by LGBT/ESG thinking. I fear for the future. No govt party appears to have the ability to stop this capture. I no longer view the law or even the police as neutral. Scary times for women but great for misogynists.

Shokoh Enough is enough.

Hollie Women have the right to gather and talk in groups about the erasure of their rights to single sex groups, without fear of intimidation or violence.

Helen It's ridiculous that violent adult males are suddenly being seen as the 'most vulnerable' members of society and they're violence against women excused on the basis of their envy and sexual fetish.

Lucy This has gone on for too long. There are blatant double standards in policing and our justice system. The politicisation and misogyny needs to be rooted out

Amy Enough is enough. Women and girls deserve protection against these threats we experience when upholding our most basic rights. Sex matters, women matter, girls matter.

Lorna Women's rights are human rights!

Paul Even if it were "only" a joke (which I doubt it was) remember the old adage about many a true word spoken in jest. In other words, he meant every word but got off by calling it a joke. The only joke was the judge who accepted the explanation.

Zoe I am all for people choosing to live how they wish - as long as it doesn't harm others! Trans bullies shouldn't be harassing, intimidating and threatening women or children, or anyone for that matter. I am female and I want our rights/ language back.

Clair We must be able to rely on government to protect its people from violence. Otherwise , what is it for? Justice must be served equally, that cannot be achieved whilst our police and judiciary enable men that call themselves women to get off Scott free for crimes that other males would be pursued for.

Aoibhe Stop enabling those who threaten and intimidate women. Women as a sex class are a protected characteristic and yet misogynistic, violent threats are not treated as hate crimes so how are you protecting women?

Saskia Please show a real commitment to tackling the widespread misogyny, intimidation, threats and violence towards women from these activists

- Lynn Time to make sex in the Equality Act clear. Thank you for blocking the horrendous GRR Act in Scotland and I say that as an independence supporter.
- Laura Please defend the rights of women and girls. There is absolutely nothing wrong in not wanting men in our spaces.
- Diane It is appalling how misogynistic violence is not only permitted , but celebrated online, but real women are accused of "hate" &"violence" merely for stating the fact that males are men.
- Lesley Currently, women are afraid. The government must do better in protecting women and children. The Cass report has the detail, now please act to keep vulnerable children safe.
- Claudia Don't let it take the murder of a woman before this threat is taken seriously.
- Gerard One is born MALE or FEMALE nothing, surgery hormone treatment etc can change this. Find a way to respect transgender but a person with testicles & penis can never be a male or a person with a vagina can never be a male. Protect single sex facilities and single sex sports
- Marios Defend women rights and spaces.
- Vivienne Retired academic; bi-sexual; fully support transpersons' rights to live as they wish without unlawful discrimination, and to participate in all aspects of society - but wholly oppose verbal, legal and physical attacks on members of the female sex, and the undermining of women's sex-based rights.
- Christine I have become a single issue voter in respect of this matter, which is an issue which I consider to be a defining issue of our times. If we cannot identify reality, if we cannot preserve the privacy, safety, dignity and access to opportunity of women and children - this is basic stuff!
- Morna I am disgusted that a violent criminal can shout "punch a TERF in the face" to a cheering crowd, but I am no longer surprised. Gender critical views are the majority view in the UK, & are worthy of respect in a free society. Sadly I have realised that our society is not as free as I thought.
- I agree that biological women's rights should be taken seriously.
- Kate Violent men remain violent men even when they wear a dress.
- Alison It's sad that in this day and age of inclusivity, we are fighting for truth, fact and biology to be included too! How have we reached this state when truth is outlawed and fact is a hate crime!

- Julia Very sad to see the bullying of women by men sanctioned by the police and the erosion of necessary single sex spaces in the name of trans inclusion.
- Kerri Male violence is still male violence even when it's wrapped in a blue and pink flag.
- Fiona If the situation was reversed and a woman said that about trans people she would have been given a conviction.
- Elaine How is it possible that in 2023 men can still verbally and physically abuse women apparently with impunity while women who say something a man disagrees with are visited by the police?
- Annette Women have had fight for their rights and protections for years. It's imperative that we protect women and girls now from those threatening & attacking us women who state what we all know to be biological fact. To ignore this place's us at huge risk
- Faye Women should be able to say that sex matters, that they don't believe in gender identity and that children are being harmed by a social contagion, without fear.
- Women are female, not someone performing femininity.
- Bernadette I have witnessed, first hand, the violence, abuse and threats directed by Trans extremists towards those of us who defend Women's legally protected rights and am concerned that these serious acts are escalating in a disturbing direction and need now to be robustly addressed.
- Samuel Gay man here watching all women's and lesbians spaces invaded and destroyed. It has to stop!
- Gail Thank you for fighting for women
- Denise The government should feel ashamed of letting things come to this.
- Caroline "The needs of the many outweigh the needs of the few" ring any bells?
- Jane Hatred and violence directed at women who are trying to protect Women only spaces is very dangerous. In law Women Only spaces are just that.
- Emma This is a situation that has been allowed to proliferate for far too long. Stop allowing lies and 'feelings' to be placed above truth and fact. For the sake of all the women who cannot speak truthfully in the course of their normal life and feel safe to do so - act now.
- Dorothy Time to stand up for women and stop pandering to this men's rights movement
- Sandy Women are being undermined and dismissed at every turn. Enough is enough.

Mary	A man urging a crowd to punch a terf (woman) in the face absolutely is encouraging violence against women. Finding this violent man not guilty makes a statement that male violence against women isn't a serious issue and that women don't matter.
Molly	This behaviour is absolutely unacceptable.
Elizabeth	In the name of reality please just let us get back to a time where women are women, men are men and everyone can dress, do what they like to do, love who they want to love without being vilified. Sex really does matter.
Francine	Outrageous regression in women's rights
Lizzie	I believe that this campaign is one of the most important battles that women of our generation need to win for the future. I sign for my daughters. For my goddaughters.
Jennifer	I have seen first hand the harassment of women's peaceful meetings. This needs to stop
Lisa	Support us. Stop hiding away. Women need your support to keep us safe!
Caroline	These are utterly despicable and very worrying acts of misogyny that must be stopped.
Clare	Violence is never right especially against women.
Frederick	Stop this trans madness. Actively boycott organisations and companies who promote this nonsense. Hit them where it hurts in the profit column. Look at the Bud Light campaign in the USA which is hitting the company really hard.
Rose	We all know these men are not women. Stop trying to bully women into accepting this insanity. We never will. Women's Lives Matter.
Tanya	female
Dawn	We are half the population, could be an election winner if you take notice.
Maria	Stop violence against women, we deserve to express our thoughts and ideas and not to be threatened by violent transactivism. We need to be treated as human beings and especially as women.
Wanda	Please protect us women.
Angela	No woman should have to walk in fear of violence. No woman should have to apologise for being real.

Maxine	This violence against women is escalating. The rights to a safe space and place for women and girls is not a privilege it's a human right.
Katherine	Not only are threats of violence not acceptable at all, this individual has a record of serious violence so threats are more salient. The stark difference between the treatment by police and authorities of violent physical threats made against women and expression of a legitimate view is shocking.
Virginia	Teacher and feminist activist.
Caoimhín	This is the critical issue of our times, and must be addressed immediately.
Kathryn	I'm an ordinary middle aged woman. I've had to listen to my elderly mother tell me that she daren't try bras on in High St shops, because there might be men in the fitting rooms. I've had to tell my teenage daughters not to trust the police and not to stop for them if pulled over in an isolated spot
Susan	Every person on this planet is here because a woman gave birth to them. Woman are important. Women's Rights are equally important and must be protected and supported.
Martin	The law should apply equally to all, the police should enforce it equally for all and the courts should apply appropriate sanctions to those who break the law.
Charmaine	Shouting through a loud hailer punch TERFs in the face is not a joke! But a man claiming they are a woman is a joke but the joke is on women, because our rights have been removed by these men! Male violence is not just the threat of actual physical violence but that women's voices are ignored!
Tiffani	Transwomen are MEN.
Jane	It is appalling but depressingly predictable that the courts do not take crimes against women seriously. The "I was only joking" and "it was just a stunt" excuses should be called out for the mendacious lies they are. It's time the bench book was rewritten to foreground women's rights.
Dr Yvonne	Women's rights should be protected but we are seeing hard won rights being trashed by a misogynistic movement of aggressive men in dresses. We say enough.
Andy	I am a man and I will do my bit to support women.

- Louise I am so fed up with men colonising women's spaces, and in particular some of the trans activists who are so aggressive and so misogynistic, and want to shut biological women down.
- James It's a sad state of affairs that in 2023 women's rights are once again under attack and being eroded all in the name of the highly misogynistic trans movemen, where men are demanding access to women's safe spaces shelters and sports. It's time to bring this stupidity to an end.
- Andrea Women deserve to be able to speak, meet and live freely - the clock is being rolled back on your watch. This open, brazen threat, intimidation, harassment and aggression has to end.
- Marita So happy to support this
- Andrew Gonochorism is substantive and a human right.
- Anne Sanity must prevail
- Christina Please listen to us
- Christine I'm tired of all this. Do something!
- Johannah As a female I'm appalled by the assaults and verbal violence from men pretending to be women. There is only one type of woman and the is a biological female. We need protecting from these male fetishists.
- Kim If you want our votes, look after us. If you abandon us to the PC Pillock's, half the country definitely won't vote for you.
- Peter Violence against women should not be tolerated. A dangerous man can exhort violence against women and simply be let off, simply for holding special gender identity beliefs, while women are hounded by the police for stickers, ribbons or 'misgendering'.
- Victoria You can post my name. I will not hide, I will stand up and be counted.
- Emma Agreed
- Rosemary Member of the Scottish Feminist Network
One of the three women who founded the first Rape Crisis Centre in Scotland. I strongly disagree with Rape Crisis Scotland allowing men to be employed in or to attend RCS as clients.
- Steve Stop this madness. Stop the vile misogyny. This MAN is a psycho.

Sandra	Women matter, be what you want to be but not to the detriment or extermination of the people who are actually of the gender they were born as. Why is it that the females to males aren't causing this issue, it screams loud and hard. Accept what you are and let women live without threat.
Victoria	Has a woman, I don't feel safe anymore or my rights valued.
Jacci	Thank you Sex Matters for your courage, resilience and service to women. You are amazing and we are with you in this struggle for justice and common sense.
Jenny	If he can get away with saying punch a TERF in the face today, I will start saying punch a man who is appropriating womanhood in the face today. This is an existential crisis for women, their daughters and their mothers.
Alicia	Women's rights matter! And a call to violence is dangerous and should be treated as such
Deborah	Why are these "activists" allowed to put so much pressure on people and organisations without any evidence that they are right? We must show we don't agree
Rosie	This criminal should have been punished for his crime fairly.
Tim	I support this.
Denise	This is about more than women's rights. It's also about defending free speech and open debate in a democratic society.
Catherine	I am sickened that 'hate speech' by all other groups is condemned, but clear and unambiguous calls for violence against women is apparently 'a joke'. It's not at all funny!
Andrew	The calculated use of an incorrect understanding of the Equality Act is enabling attacks on women's rights and being used to mislead children in schools. Unless you correct this women and children will continue to be hurt and harmed.
Maria	The term Terf has been progressively misused to describe women who challenge those who seek to ignore women's rights in favour of their own demands. It is not an accurate term & nor should it be used to scaremonger or excuse aggressive and violent actions as it is. Protect realities above feelings
Catherine	Thank you for your courage

- Monica This was an extremely violent man making direct threats to hurt women, this is in no way acceptable and it is frankly disturbing male can get away with this but women get harassed and arrested for putting up stickers or expressing biological facts and safeguarding concerns. It has to stop.
- Louise Can't believe they're getting away with this!
- sneed Woman is not a feeling.
- Lisa Self explanatory & alarmingly evident that action needs to be taken now to protect women.
- Deirdre Stop this eradication of women. It is misogynistic and sexist. It makes women feel unsafe in our own spaces we don't need to have men in our spaces regardless of what they identify themselves as they will never be women. They were born with male bodies. They are not females and never will be.
- Jasmine It's long over due.
- Michal The misogyny of the trans movement must be named for what it is, and stopped, AND the legal and governmental systems that consistently fail to hold trans attackers and violence-against-women inciters accountable, while also failing women who speak about our rights being trampled, must end.
- Catherine Women, or TERFS as a lot of us get called, have had enough of being treated like scum by men, and then having the courts back them up. Women are supposed to have rights. It's about time those in power remembered that fact and sort the establishment out. We are not a punchline in a joke.
- This needs to end. I should not fear violence from men for wanting to keep single sex spaces. Women's safety over men's feelings.
- Rose It is a crime for men to commit violence against women...right?
- Susan I'm sure the Suffragettes would recognise this reaction to women standing up for their right's. The more things change the more they stay the same.
- Barbara Public incitement to an act of violence against women is not a "joke" ! And can only be Jane considered one by those who have total disregard for women's safety. I urge you, Prime Minister Rishi, to consider threats against women a serious matter.
- Deborah End Violence Against Women & Girls. Radical policy, sentencing & legal changes are urgently needed to deter the avalanche of males committing physical & sexual violence against females in the UK. Women are not prepared to wait any longer for government action; it is time to pursue radical change.

- Louella I'm in Australia but I have an adult daughter living in London, so this is very important to me.
- Sally This movement to allow men to identify as women and silence any woman who objects with threats of or actual violence and all in the name of 'kindness', 'inclusion' HAS TO BE EXPOSED AND STOPPED before it erodes all the hard-won safeguards and rights for the more vulnerable (not weaker) sex.
- Tracy I was asked to stop tweeting (non-violent) comments about women's sex-based rights by the CEO & Chair of a charity I was trustee for. They said they could see my point, but were scared I'd bring the org. into disrepute & lose it its funding if anyone connected my twitter account to the charity.
- M Please help stop this exhausting living nightmare
- Caroline "Trans rights" activism is a movement of mentally unwell men demanding their sexual fetishes become mainstream, at the expense of women's rights to safety, privacy and dignity.
- Carina Why is this government not protecting women from gender identity ideology? Police 'visit' women for photographing stickers & courts allow violent men who 'identify' as woman to publicly & violently threaten us.
- Victoria A woman
- Karen How can you defend women and their rights and boundaries if you can't define what a woman is?
- Georgia The judicial system is extremely and openly corrupted against justice for real women. Remove this bias and this judge from serving the general public.
- Carole Thank you for this letter. I never thought I would see such open misogyny in the UK. How this ideology captured public institutions is a disgrace.
- Ivan Please put an end to the transactivist agenda, particularly its promotion in schools where is only confuses and damages young children.
- Carol Norfolk county council has ordered schools to teach ' pansexualism' to 7 year olds! Teachers have no right to inflict their perverse agendas on innocent children, ever! 7 year olds are not capable of understanding the consequences or that they are being indoctrinated.

Julia	We cannot protect women's sex based rights if we cannot even speak up without fear of intimidation
Sarah	Excusing these vile threats gives a green light to other men who want to abuse and slander women who speak up about the erosion of our rights. Please stop enabling violence against women.
Julie	This violence against women/girls has got to stop. These people forget they have mothers and sisters. Would they act this way towards them. Ministers remember you can and should show you stand against this. Put action where your mouths are.
Fiona	Don't forget 50% of your constituents!
Sharon	Stop this erosion of women's rights and protections now.
Joseph	I support women and girls in their right to single sex spaces and freedom of expression. Women and girls have the right to compete in female only sports. I have witnessed the violent rhetoric and behaviour of trans activists, towards women and girls, first hand in both Bristol and Brighton.
Elizabeth	As a victim of DV the actions of very public trans activist mirror those of my ex . Thus concerns me as it is clear that abusive behaviours are being encouraged within society where many men already need very little encouragement do abuse women and children .
Janet	Adult human female, daughter, wife, mother
Diane	MVAWG is a very real threat. Trust in the police is at an all time low yet it took a public outcry for the police to arrest Baker. The Mayor of London has started a campaign so we are calling you out to take the threats of a convicted kidnapper, torturer & attempted murderer seriously.
Beverley	Being a woman , a fully grown adult female , is not a feeling . It's a fact
Isabel	I am a parent who is very concerned as my young adult daughter is making her way into the world. I want her and her rights to have protection under the law and the authorities who are meant to uphold the law.
Lisa	Please take action on this before more women are hurt.
Julia	I am very worried and am grateful for everything that is done to make the issue more visible.

Bhagvati	I quoted this gender confused male on facebook, and was asked to remove the quote as it was 'hate mail', yet in a court of law it seems 'punch 'em in the face' is not violent but is a joke. It seems men are allowed to say one thing and women are not, yet again.
Damian	As a husband, a son, a father of two daughters, and friend to many women, I cannot idly stand by and do nothing as Women's Right are eroded by this quasi-religion of Gender.
Paula	I am so sick of defending my right to be a woman and not give up everything we have gained to men!
Cath	I am horrified about what is happening and that women are being cancelled and threatened with violence for saying what the majority believe but are now too scared to say.
Cosima	In every event women have gathered to speak about women's rights, they have been attacked by trans activists. When lesbians have tried to have events where only biological females are allowed they have been called transphobes and attacked. Sex matters. Protect our rights.
ALIFIA	I'm disturbed by the glib attitude of the police and the magistrate court to a known violent offender who has a history of expressing a desire to harm then actually following through. The TRA encouraged a cheering cohort 'to punch a terf' (women) - this is incitement to commit violence.
Martin	Please take action to maintain the fairness of women's sports, to ensure safety of women to stand up for rights issues and restore a balanced and thought out approach to sex and gender issues
DIANA	You must have wives, girlfriends, daughters, granddaughters. . . .
Julianne	This country is eroding women's rights at a furious rate, all thanks to a tiny number of gobby men with serious mental disorders. This cannot continue.
Juliet	Help us, Prime Minister. Your daughters' futures depend on it. As do mine.
Ian	It's getting worrying that women's rights are being ignored . Threatened violence against women should be acted upon.
John	Women are being silenced by explicit threats of violence. Threats made in the public arena in front of the media and law enforcement with apparent tacit agreement.
Cedwyn	Teaching Assistant

- Jane When will the government wake up to the plight of women defending women's and children's rights against threatening and abusive men who take cover from the trans coat? ENOUGH!
- Andrew This measure should not be necessary but obviously it is.
- Clare Thank you for your valuable work
- Moiria Like the majority of people, I have no issue with trans people and their right to dress how they like etc, and they should be free to live their lives how they want and should be treated with respect - the same as everyone else. However this should not be to the detriment of women and girls.
- Maxine Women are born not worn. End the misogyny disguised as "inclusivity", we want stronger protections for our sex based rights. Women's rights are human rights.
- Catriona I'm sick of this judicial system that protects bad men and does not protect or represent women fairly.
- Suzanne If you substitute the word TERF with Black person or Muslim for example I predict Sarah Jane Baker's defence of 'just having a lard' would not have stood up in court. Please make this stop.
- Sally This is such an important issue, so many brave women who speak up against this ideology have done so at the expense of their careers and reputations. Language has been made meaningless by the constant confusion caused by misuse of the terms sex and gender.
- Elaine the latest example of the vile threats and insults towards women by trans activists. I defy them to come up with examples of the same level of abuse towards trans people from women's rights campaigners. They are the hateful ones not us.
- Victoria Women and girls need our single sex spaces reinstated. We need our language and descriptors returned. We need our sports equity back. We need our voices heard and no longer diminished by overused slurs, threats of physical harm, and actual violence. We need the rights we have in law upheld.
- Yvonne History will not look favourably on those who did nothing
- Meinir So sick of women and girls and all children being punished in all parts of life because sick men who " feel like women" must be put first. So disgusting all all levels
- jake Calls for violence are always unacceptable. Calls for violence against women by Men even more so.

- Mo The word woman is being made toxic by those who wish to support trans rights. This must stop. Sex based rights were hard fought by women. Support those rights
- Maxine As a woman I have had to wait when I desperately wanted to use a female public toilet at Barnsley Bus Interchange as I was scared to go in because a man who self identified as a woman was using it. He looked nothing like a woman to me and was dress in all male clothing.
- Jason The rights of biological women and men matter. Sex matters and this must be protected.
- Helen The fact that the line "your name will not be made public" is a) necessary and b) why I felt able to sign should be taken a lot more seriously. We are afraid.
We are afraid of what's happening, what's being threatened by TRAs and we're afraid of saying so. My niece is 8 & believes you can change sex.
- Gail Extreme transactivism is an increasingly detrimental to women's rights. Violent men/males must not be allowed to use unscientific gender ideology as a shield to harm women.
- Janus Being female is when you're born female.
- Lisa Police are waste of time- why are we still paying a police force what do they do? Prove me wrong.
- Belinda Sex always matters in life and law!
- Adele I am so happy that someone is trying to coordinate a push back against this dystopian alternative reality that is infiltrating all areas of our government and public services. The fear of reprisals and the outrageous treatment of any individual who disagrees shows that we need to work together now
- Jill I really hate that I only feel I can sign this because my name will not be made public. I see myself as a tolerant, empathetic person - not someone with strong views. But someone who can see the light and shade. Yet I no longer feel able to express myself/any misgivings publicly.
- Alison It's long past time that everyday misogyny and harassment of women was taken seriously. Strengthen laws to protect women (and children) from men and increase sentences to actually reflect the lifelong impact on victims and serve as a deterrent. And repeal the misogynist, homophobic GRA!
- Sheva This must be addressed and the investigations begun into Tavistock Stonewall, Mermaids and meanwhile the removal of any links to them on charities/services providing support to victims of any form of abuse is essential. Also an urgent clear programme for any current or future clinics being set up.

- Maria Keep men, ALL men out of women's sport, changing rooms, locker rooms, toilets, Domestic Violence facilities and Prisons.
- Kathryn I'm the mother of a 16 yr old girl (and yes, there is a 'cat' at her all girls school) and work in financial services and have had enough of the misogyny and gaslighting of women's rights in recent years. Thank you so much for everything you do.
- Kim The ability to threat, bully and intimidate people into compliance with a particular viewpoint should have no place in a democracy. Please help end this.
- Chris I feel desperately sad for anyone who genuinely feels they are in the wrong body. But there seem to be a lot of people who suddenly declare themselves as women in order to avoid being questioned about their behaviour.
- Philip Law enforcement in the UK has become a two tiered system that favours the most violent in society. In such a situation, widespread public hostility towards law enforcement agencies will only worsen. One law for all and equal treatment for all is the only solution.
- Harry How many women who were "punched in the face" were grey-haired and wrinkled, I wonder.
- Sara I fully support you
- D How long before a woman loses her life? How long before women are unable to get away from men?
- Kitty Women are adult human females. Full stop.
- Wendy The prosecution made little effort to convict Sarah Jane Baker of any offence. Libellous allegations made in court were not challenged. Witnesses were not called. There is "bad character " provision to raise a defendants past convictions, the prosecution made no attempt to use it. Women are unsafe.
- Virginia I feel scared and furious each time I read about a case where violence against women is discounted, trivialised or dismissed.
- Karen I'd love to say I was sick and tired of the hierarchy of oppression resulting in offences against women being minimised and even disappeared, but it's worse than that - I'm starting to think we don't feature on the scale at all...

- Phillip Women fought long and hard to get their rights and a Conservative Prime Minister sits back and lets [trans]men take them away and put them in danger. You should be ashamed.
- Ben The silence - and worse - of our political leaders is shameful.
- Siobhan Women rights need to be protected. Biological sex matters.
- Jane I'm a solicitor with a long history of representing women including WAVAW, Reclaim the Night, Greenham Common and many others. At no time have I ever seen such a concerted, well funded and determined attack not just on women's rights but on our fundamental identity. With you every inch of the way.
- Mrs Donna I'm sick of men dressing up and calling themselves women . It's ludicrous.
- No joke. Imagine if this was said about an ethnic group. Would 'joke' be excepted? We all know it wouldn't.
- Lois What are you going to do about this system of intimidation, violence and media complicity in the erasure of women as a sex class?
- How comfortable do you think your daughters would be at being forced to change after swimming next to a boy who announced last week that he was a girl?
- Iris Please keep campaigning to fight for and protect Women's rights so our sisters, daughters and mothers can feel valued, recognised and acknowledged for who they are.
- Laura In a civilised society it is not acceptable for any group of people to encourage violence against another. This basic rule should not be bent or ignored by those in authority by virtue of the fact that those calling for violence are trans activists. They are not above the law.
- Annette I hope the PM starts listening, too many people are losing their jobs, their reputations. Time to step up Rishi, time for your government to tell organisations like the NHS, councils and the police to do their jobs not bow to the madness of stonewall.
- Jan I am shocked at how such divisive gender ideology is being perpetuated in schools, universities and the NHS among other institutions. This madness that sex doesn't count has to stop. The extreme trans rights is normalised. And that is dangerous.
- Amanda Please put a stop to male violence under cover of trans activism.
- Gail Suella Braverman has issued a letter to all CC. That's great news BUT we need action to stop this hate campaign against women who rightly state that sex is immutable. It isn't a belief - it's a fact.

Yvonne	I was disgusted at Baker's public calls to punch women in the face - the slur used is mainly aimed at women. Was it a joke? I found it terrifying, not funny.
Tim	No one should have to face violence, threats and intimidation for standing up for their rights.
Pauline	Women make up 51% of the population - we deserve better from our government than we get
Lee	Misogynistic behaviour must be stopped and our rights protected from this onslaught
Jacqui	Please do more to protect women.
Ann	End the violent and hate speech towards women
Ann	Men are increasingly acting with impunity in invading our spaces and threatening women, intimidating us and trying to stop us meeting. Misogyny is on the rise and no one is listening. It's terrifying.
Leah	As someone called a terf just because I don't want a trans women with a penis naked and changing in front of my 9 year old daughter then unless the term TERF is used correctly and is policed as such you need to protect women who fight for the daughters safety who are NOT anti trans just anti THAT
Jillian	I am a woman and a mother of sons & daughters. Enough is enough.
D	Supposed "trans activism" has bodysnatched proactive feminism and gay liberation and has been completely overtaken as a powerful, fascistic front for the worst people on earth - paedophiles, violent domestic abusers, prostitutes, and if I speak to condemn it my life is ruined? We allow this?
Sarah	It has all gone way, way too far and the damage done is immense!! Time to stop this now. Enough.
Caroline	A woman is an adult human female
Elizabeth	Thank goodness SexMatters are standing up for women. Thank you.
Louis	Good luck to you x
Clare	100% support this. It's appalling the way extreme TRAs can intimidate, threaten and even assault women (as in a case in Scotland recently) with impunity, while women are hounded by the police just for taking photos of stickers. SJ Baker's acquittal for clearly inciting male VAWG is a travesty.

- Fiona We are not 3rd class citizens despite the agenda being pushed by trans activists. We are UK citizens and demand that we are protected and treated as equals. keep women safe, and keep trans women out of our sport and out of our women's only spaces.
- Michelle Women must be protected at all cost from this insane criminal behaviour before
- Tish That man lied under oath and that alone should call into question the finding. He invented an attack on a young "trans" person at a Standing For Women event.
- Helen "Woman" - adult human female.
Women are not an idea in men's head.
Women are not weak men.
Transwomen are, by definition, males.
- MAGGIE The Trans activists have already punched a woman twice in the face in Scotland. Their rhetoric is full of these violent statements towards women. The term TERF is a label widely used for women and they seem to think this labelling provides an entitlement to encourage violence towards women.
- martin I believe in biological sex, male and female. stop the destruction of women's rights to have safe single sex spaces.
- Gillian If Sarah Jane can shout 'Punch a TERF', can I go about shouting 'Punch a Tranny'? No. I didn't think so. Double standards.
- Angie For my grand daughters!
- Cassandra TERFs are women. We are human. Since when was it okay to actively encourage violence against women, just for holding and expressing views that certain people do not like? This dehumanization of women who care about our sex based rights needs to stop. NOW.
- Angela This is about evil men trying to harm women by any means within their disposal. Trans is their go to excuse.
- David This has to stop. "If you see a TERF etc" is genuine and heartfelt hate speech, not being "an idiot".
- norma Women live in fear of these men, the law ignore them. What will it take before the law will act against these men who openly threaten us without fear of any punishment.
- It's ridiculous that trans people have so much protection and power to voice things and a biological female has no rights. A female has a reproductive system of female species that carries offspring, a male has the ability to fertilise a female to carry the offspring. Facts not fiction. End of Annamary We women have fought so hard to be equal. And now we have men not even transitioning, continuing to carry their full package, return and steal away opportunities, awards, and monetary reimbursement. It is as if we are being thrown back into the 1800s. Please stop this madness.

Sylvia Why are women not deserving of protection from the law?

L I'm signing this because I have witnessed the verbal and physical abuse to women for standing up for their sex based rights and not wanting biological men in their spaces. I have been called a terf, bigot and cunt among many things for saying I don't want men in my spaces because I am afraid of men.

Christopher Time to act time to stop male violence against women

M I'm signing this to support all women as a man I'm saying this men do not belong in womens spaces as they are a threat to women IV seen what trans have said and threatened to even kill women all because women Don't want them in there space women are entitled to there space end this lunacy now

Pat There has never been a more urgent call to protect Women's Sex Based Rights than now. As a woman, a feminist and a lesbian I am very alarmed at the escalation of hate and harm being done to ordinary women ,in the name of trans rights and equality. Natal women are entitled to women only spaces.

Kerry Stop the erosion of women's rights and protection. Stop male violence. Prove it Sunak.

Anthony In a liberal society, everyone is entitled to freedom of expression but with freedom of expression comes responsibility

M The rights and freedom of speech of 51% of the electorate should not be swept away by the flagrant misogyny of trans activists, who represent a minuscule proportion of the electorate but who have captured the nation's major institutions through Stonewall. It's time to put a stop to their bullying.

Nicole Unbelievable we are in a position where this letter is required. When else in history has someone's sex not mattered? How did this happen?

Adrienne Open hatred and violence against women is escalating. Violent men and their cheerleaders must be stopped. Time for elected leaders to show some backbone or be replaced.

JEAN	Girls and women safety must be defended. While I defend anyones right to be what they want to be it cannot be at the price of woman's hard fought for rights.
Lyn	Ordinary trans people will end up suffering for these extremists. Men with male bits are not women. And never will be.
M	The demands and tactics of trans rights activism are often unreasonable and in conflict with the rights of other groups. I want women and girls to be safe from intimidation and violence.
William	Good luck with the campaign.
Jan	Please put an end to this madness. Allow women to speak their truth and believe in their truth without fear of intimidation and threats of violence. And please protect women's rights to safe spaces - they are there for a reason.
Arthur	Solidarity
Ali	Need to be stopped.
A	I would like to see more safer world for my daughter
Victoria	It's astounding that a male who has served time in prison for a serious crime can call upon a large community to physically assault women and be applauded for it, not only by the crowd but Britain's institutions. Men are not, nor can they ever become women/female, biology matters, women should too.
Christina	Common sense has lost it's way, this hateful trend should be dealt with by the full force of the law, it is out of hand.
Alex	Terrifying to see violence against women being trivialised and treated as a joke
Patrick	Violence and threats of violence simply evidence the weakness of argument.
Kate	Keep up the good work. I stand with you
Karin	I'm signing this for real women everywhere. Real women are not a feeling in an aggs fetid imagination. We deserve women's spaces away from threatening, larping men. Women's sports need protection. The kids need protection from these groomers pretending to be women. Enough Orwellian claptrap. STOP
Denise	Fully support this letter.
Tony	The male and female sex have been established since (pro)creation began. 'Trans' is an attempt at a power-grab for evil purposes.

- Stuart I am a retired lawyer, law professor and administrative judge and the state has an obligation to provide effective protection for these courageous women.
- Annie I was part of the second wave of feminism, full of hope that we would misogyny become as vilified as racism rightly is.
I cannot understand how attacks on women's rights, on women's bodies, on women's lives have become acceptable to so many people, organisations and politicians.
- Kate inciting violence against any group should be called out and punished. This includes inciting violence against women. gender critical beliefs are worthy of respect in a democratic society.
- Julie I do not agree with gender ideology, nor do I appreciate the infiltration of this idea being forced upon society. I abhor the changes in language.. A woman is a woman as she has a womb and a 40 year menstrual cycle.. Nobody should remove healthy body parts.. I have much to say topic..
- Patricia The police and politicians need to see these actions for what they are, a threat to women.
Women are vilified at demonstrations such as "Let Women Speak", they are accused of being transphobic, which they are not, they are just fighting to hold onto rights that have taken women years to achieve.
- Chris Someone has to stop the erasure of women's rights
- Paul misogyny in the form of extreme transactivism needs to be acknowledged by the legal system in the UK. Many men are concerned for the safety of their partners,mothers,..wives,daughters and female friends
- Mairi Please eliminate the influence of outside activist groups in setting police, government, school and healthcare policy and practice. Women's issues are too important to allow biased minority viewpoints to hold sway. We are a majority in the nation and our views should be listened to.
- Nicola 'Women have very little idea how much men hate them.' I thought Germaine Greer was exaggerating when I first read this. While I don't think it's true of all men, I no longer think, for some, it's an exaggeration.
- Emily Thank you for making sense of this attack on women. Keep to help but not sure how. I am retired so have time and skills.
- Barbara This is a major turning point in our society. Choosing the wrong path will have devastating and destructive consequences for centuries to come.

- M It is time to stop these dangerous and intolerant people. I'm sickened by their verbal violence and physical threats.
- Anne Women have right to be safe.
- Jo I am completely baffled, distressed, angry and really sad about this campaign of violence against women just for speaking up for their hard fought rights and safety. This is so important for future generations of women because they will be very damaged if we don't fight for them now!
Protect women
- Jayne I object to 'men' taking over women's spaces; be it changing rooms, toilets or women's sport. I have no problem with people living their lives as they wish, but not at the expense of women's safety, dignity and rights.
Those before us fought long and hard for us to have the lives we lead today.
- Karyn This is the most important issue for me going forward, please remember that politicians!
- Gary The trans activists are largely represented by weak aggressive male bullies who demonstrate their pathetic cowardice and inadequacies by intimidating vulnerable women. I stand by women against this assault on their hard won rights and freedoms
- Olivia Despicable
Women must stand against this nonsense
- Vivienne I Stand with you all.
Thankyou for speaking up and defending women.
- Val I see this issue of gender identity, Incel and the likes of Andrew Tate as a 21st century witch hunt to be resisted in every possible way. This is misogyny by any definition.
- Helena Women have had enough of men pretending to be women, they are not and never will be.
- Sonia Eradicate the hate and collective abuse and violence against women and girls! Stand up for females and sex
- Caroline Stop this violence of women. men violently abusing us women.
- Carla I'm scared. This is endorsement of a threat against the safety of all of us who might be tempted to say what we think.

Sarah	When I see how some trans rights activists threaten women who raise questions or issues about safeguarding concerns for women and children it makes me afraid to speak out or raise questions myself even though as a trainee clinical psychologist I have a duty to do so.
Liam	I was a victim of violence and sexual abuse when I was a child; I recognise the males like Alan. They pretend that they are 'only joking' when they make these remarks - but they are violent sex offenders who would like nothing more than to be able to 'punch a Terf' if they could get away with it.
Kim	This person has been proven to be a violent person, how can you take this as a joke? Biological women are defenceless against someone like this who is bent on hurting them!
Anastasia	This needs to stop immediately.
Andy	Thank you for starting this petition.
Leah	Absolutely disgusting that this deranged bloke has been allowed back into society to incite violence towards women.
Julia	Violence against women is NOT a joke.
Jacqueline	Please keep women and girls safe
Trish	...and Years too late. It's way past time to deal with these people as the domestic terrorist groups that they are. And YOU, the govt. have been funding these groups to spread throughout the foundations of every single part of our democracy. Stop the funding Now, stop the terror of terrorised females
Elsbeth	Women's rights affect 50% of the population; recognition of biological sex is vital in order to have sex-disaggregated data to monitor and address how women are disadvantaged
Laurie	Solidarity Maya, Helen and all at Sex Matters
Hayley	Please protect us from being attacked and eradicated. We are scared, we are being silenced. We are under attack at work, for the NHS, we are under attack when we go out. We have been pushed to the side and we no longer have our own spaces to feel safe. We need women only spaces to be the law.
Lizbeth	Many thanks for all your work .

- Linda You can make my name public. I have never been anonymous in this fight. I am not a shame if telling the truth and I am not scared of the trans terrorists, I won't bow to them now. I'm already cancelled anyway.
- Zoe I feel threatened
- Mira Threatening women into silence is a strategy that has no place in the C21st
- Barbara I am appalled that a clear desire for women to be hurt can be expressed to a crowd publicly by an activist with criminal records of violence, and not being taken for what it is.
It is a reminder that women's safety is not a priority for the judiciary and police, again! What does it have to take?
- Dulcie Happy to have my name made public.
- McKenzie Women deserve sex-segregated spaces.
- Jo The rights of those who chose to identify as women cannot be allowed to impact on the rights of women and children. This movement is using intimidation and harassment to silence women.
- Ann What a world I live in now. This man matters because he proclaims to be a woman. He is not. He is a violent man.
- Michaela Gender Identity does not change sex. Women are fighting for their sex based rights... to Fair sports, female only privacy and safety in women locker rooms and women shelters, prisons, college and military housing.
The war on Females is fuelled by Transactivist verbally abusing and threatening women.
- Rose Women and Girls deserve male violence being addressed and positive action taken to bring it to an end...STARTING RIGHT NOW!
- Cláudia Admin @ Gender Critical Lesbians ♀
- Pebo 2 sexes: Women and Men. Nothing else. Stop "gender ideology" BS! Stop mutilating children. Stop erasing women & girls' rights!
- Kyla This is what happens when women say no and set boundaries,. We all should be worried.
- Madelaine Trans activists are misogynist thugs who silence women at every opportunity. If "punch a terf" isn't a threat of violence, what is??!

Gideon	It is time to act
Ness	Voter
Charmaine	It is incomprehensible that Alan Baker called for violence against women in public and he wasn't given a sentence. Do you realise this constitutes open season for violence against women by transactivists? They had enough power before, now they know there won't be consequences. Do something.
Caroline	THANK YOU, all at Sex Matters, for ensuring that violence against women is taken serious.
Patricia	The trans indoctrination is harming people. It is a cult I am prepared to stand up against.
Joanne	Signing on behalf of my two teenage daughters!!!
John	Retired Consultant Surgeon/Medicolegal Expert
Giselle	Thank you for standing up to this insidious wave of woke and trans ideology which as you state clearly and eloquently is in fact pure misogyny!
T	The trans lobby has degraded women's rights. It's influence on our public life is malign, and it's complete capture of our education system is deeply concerning. Parliament should take action to protect the rights of women and people of conscience who oppose this ideology.
Jonathan	Keep up the good work
Frankie	Women's Rights should be upheld. Are the authorities waiting for an inevitable tragedy before taking violent threats against women seriously? Shocking.
Susan	I have a life time ban from 'X' (Twitter) for defending women against a tweet showing men dressed as women with knives, wearing t-shirts that say 'kill the terf'. My parody was hateful yet the tweet was benign as no 'one was actually killed'! Misogyny and violence against women dwells in 'X'.
Jaclynn	Disgusting and criminal behaviour that should be stopped!!!
SJ	Please keep going. Sex matters in life - in policy, spaces, sports, health and so much more. Safeguarding is everyone's job.

- Peter Politicians and the NHS, are putting woman's safety second to trans ideology. Neither medical science or the law can change anyone's biological sex, women have a right to privacy, dignity and safety. Trans ideology has no place invading women only spaces or displacing them in sports!
- Louis Keep boys and men out of woman's sports and spaces.
- Melanie Please protect women. Your daughters will need this protection
- Look after the women of this country otherwise this movement will marginalise us. This affects our safety, dignity and privacy as well as anyone's freedom of speech or any sense of independent thought.
- Sylvia I went to a let women speak gathering in Birmingham and was screamed at by a large group of men , mostly in masks, for being a fg terf! I was scared and intimidated but the police just stood there as if this were normal and acceptable behaviour against me.
- Dee We are worth fighting for!
- Margaret The misogyny is palpable. Please put your words in to action, there is so much rhetoric about protecting women from male violence but very little done about it.
- Sonja Solidarity from Germany to you all!
- M I was a victim, became a survivor that led me to being a warrior, women won't wheesht, EVER!
- Amanda Women's rights matter!
- Lynn I sympathise with people who have gender and body dysmorphia and believe that they need timely help to become the person they need to be to live their best lives, but trans women remain trans women and don't have the same experiences as those of us born female.
- Christine Thank you for everything you do in this fight for Women's Sex-based Rights and Child Protection.
- Vickyb As a rape and abuse survivor, I've faced hate from the TQ+ crowd for merely speaking about how my PTSD and trauma affects me.
- I've literally been told to "sit down and shut up" by TRAs who then go on about how peeing in a men's bathroom is more traumatic the rape and abuse I suffered for 9 ½ year

- Mary Sick to death of being treated like a 2nd class citizen
WOMENS LIVES MATTER 🖐️🖐️
- Lindsay Male who is disgusted by the treatment of biological women who stand up for their hard earned rights. Campaigning and protesting for the real women
- Alison The increasing violent response to women who dare challenge gender ideology and the lack of any meaningful action by the police makes it more vital than ever that our government take action. I was with my friend when she was punched by a trans activist in Duthie Park.
- Jennifer Women & girls are a sex class- female human beings with distinctive sexed developmental pathways, gametes, anatomical differences, needs, sexual vulnerabilities & reproductive capacities; oppressed & terrorized on the axis of our innate & immutable female sex throughout recorded history. Sex Matters
- Sandra There's away a worrier for the safety of myself my daughters niece sisters and all women something needs to be done to protect women and make us feel safe
- Karl I wish I could do something. I feel like we're drenched in hateful, harmful lies all the time. That these lies are obviously lies, to all except a minority who are genuinely unwell, is by design. We are obliged under the threat of loss of livelihood not just to repeat falsehoods but to cheer them.
- Darius As a father of 2 teenage daughters, this is of great concern to me. In truth, it is a violation of the trust that our daughters, wives, mothers and sisters have placed on society, and seems distinctly un-British.
- Lynn Thank you for starting this petition. I am with you 100% .
- David I deplore the state we have come to in this country where innocent people are harassed by the police (eg West Yorkshire police as reported by the Telegraph 4 Sept 23) yet take no action against the violent abuse thrown at those who stand up for the protection of women and girls.
- Ian I'm not happy that I am being forced (by the police for example) to believe in this new religion.
Thanks, but no thanks
- Philip If I said 'punch a tranny in the face' I would expect to be punished. So, why not in this case?
- Sarah This pernicious ideology only serves to diminish women and their rights and remove previously safe spaces. The entire fabric of society is being unpicked - that is no exaggeration - by the idea that men are actually women. Children's mental health is being damaged by the concept of gender identity.

Amanda Women's rights are being rolled back in plain sight. Extreme Trans Activism is destroying our precious advances.

Eric MVAWG needs to end.
It's coming from all corners of society it seems.
Men in dresses. Fetishists. Even MPs and Police officers.
Increase sentencing and a life time of monitoring for convicted men and,
ADDITIONALLY, those convicted of crime should NOT be able to change their legal name EVER.

Mille Support from Denmark!
Damgaard

Clare I think the fact that I had to check that signatories' names would not be made public rather proves the point of this letter!

Rebecca These TRAs are misogynistic, totalitarian terrorists. It's an utter disgrace the way the police facilitate their behaviour, whilst treating women exactly as if we really were living under a totalitarian regime.

F No other demographic is allowed to openly threaten violence except transgenderists. The trans movement is terrorism, using violence to keep people silent about the medical harms being inflicted on children and the physical/sexual violence done to women in prisons, shelters, changing rooms and so on.

Kate It's now becoming imperative that the UK Prime Minister makes a stand against the bullying culture behind the trans activist movement. Women are now being harassed by the police for something as innocuous as taking a picture of a poster!

Trevor The police have taken sides in the Culture Wars and we need to see drastic change - depoliticise the police.

Elissa SJB is fine to say what he wants but if women dare speak up about not wanting these violent deluded men in our spaces we're chastised and harassed by authorities?

Sheila I can't believe that woman are having to fight for their rights all over again.

Sarah I can't believe that women are having to restart the campaign for women to be heard and their concerns taken seriously. I thought we'd already got there but a small group of violent, misogynistic activists are making inroads into those rights with the help of the judiciary. This must be stopped now!

Karin	Women and girls sex based rights need protecting.
Lisa	Men need to wake up to the social, psychological, and sometimes physical damage being done to women by trans-allied men because we assert that women's sex based rights must be upheld in law and by society.
K J	Humans are mammals. We cannot change our sex.
Daisy	Keep up the good work you have my full support
Jim	More respect for women needed.
Sarah	Fully support your stance, shocking to believe this keeps needing to be done.
Simon	I add my name to this list in defence of freedom of expression. Democratic society requires that we do not intimidate those with whom we disagree but we argue, discuss debate.. we do not threaten. And when that does happen we need to be confident that we can rely on the police to protect us.
Helen	Hate speech or incitement to hate speech against women should be punished by a custodial sentence.
Rina	Unless this escalating violence & intimidation is addressed the government must take responsibility for the consequences of being complicit in facilitating this culture.
Caroline	I have been directly intimidated by ignorant misogynist female social workers for being gender critical
Jeffrey	This madness has gone on long enough. We need police forces protect women from intimidation for defending their sex-based rights.
Christine	Politicians, police, lawmakers, lawkeepers, are failing women and children. Have you lost your minds! What if it is your wife or partner, your mother, your daughter, would you just let her be bullied, intimidated, threatened with violence? Use the powers we give you to do what is right.
Paulene	Brilliant letter to the Prime Minister.
Lorraine	Woman/Mother/Grandmother
John J	We cannot have the wishes of a few control the lives of the many
Reg	Pensioner, father of three girls and grandfather of two granddaughters. Utterly perplexed at how traditional respect for, and honour for the rights of women and girls has been usurped by the fictional issue of transgenderism ferekh	There should be no place for calls to violence against women in a civilised society.

Barbara	Shocking misogyny
Hilary	Women's concerns are always trivialised. This is the worst rollback of or rights in a generation.
Debbie	Good luck all
Sarah	Unless we as a society take action now, the situation for women will continue to get worse.
Anna	A biological male, ergo, a man - cannot be a biological female, ergo, a woman. A man does not become a woman - ever, or just because he 'feels like it'. Stop the bullshit!
Audrey	Please help women in Scotland
A	It's enough of the nonsense. We need to stop playing pretend and face reality. Men are men. Women are women. People can not change sex. Women need to stop being silenced, harassed, and intimidated. I've experienced a rise in sexism. I have no doubt that the two are related.
Claire	Women should be allowed to speak the truth without punishment.
Sam	It is vital that women be protected from violence or the threat thereof, particularly given the clearly repressive political agenda behind these threats, and the chilling effects on the he political liberties of women if the tactical deployment of political intimidation is unchecked.
Sylvie	Everyone seems to have Human Rights except biological women ☹️
Susan	There is no 'pro- choice' when it comes to the reality that sex is forever determined when human life begins: at conception.
Teresa	The current situation is appalling. These 'activists' are committing 'hate crimes' every time they open their mouths.
Christina	Don't condone encouraging violence against women from trans activists
Reg	Well done SM, great work!
Edward	As an honorary TERF I wholly support this petition regarding the lack of respect that permeates our society to real women. It has to stop.

- joanne i would like us all to have freedom of speech and to continue to work towards women's safety.
- Samantha As a woman, I want to be legally recognised as an adult human female. I do not want language that describes my functions as a women changed. I want my hard earned rights and all female spaces, sports and prisons protected and free from mentally deluded men. I want to feel safe.
- Nigel Women's rights will not be stolen by violent thugs.
- Dominic Incitement to violence is one of the few fair and necessary exceptions to free speech, hence my signature.
That and obvious double standards on display.
- Annabelle It is my right to live without fear of violence for expressing my opinions. The fact that my opinions are rigorously based in science makes it even more important that they are not silenced.
People died for our rights to free speech. Now people risk dying to protect women from violence.
- Maxine Any incitement of violence against a person or group of people is a crime. This has to be taken seriously to protect freedom of speech and women everywhere.
- Caroline Women's rights are being chipped away by educational establishments, healthcare bodies, governments and non-government NGOs, charities and private organisations nationwide. This affects women and girls of all ages from all walks of life.
- Chris Stand up for women's rights.
- Jessica There's no good reason why this vicious public incitement to violence against women (being abused as Terfs simply means they are being abused as women) should be acceptable and go unpunished. What kind of signal does it send about the values of our society?
- Elizabeth Everyone on this planet was born by a woman. Please help us to protect our rights as women and mothers to all on this planet.
- Rosemary Thank you for your work
- Diane Stop this trans madness!
- ANTONY Any Government needs to get a grip on gender rights. Currently there is too much accommodation of tiny minority views. Meanwhile society is raising a generation of very confused young children. A man is a man, a woman is a woman, a trans is a trans.

- sally I know I'm one of many many women who are scared to express in public their concerns about certain aspects of the trans movement.
I was very disappointed with the court believing that 'Sarah Jane Baker' was just joking when inviting and approving violence against women.
- Rowan We are in a time of unprecedented misogyny, where women are not seen as full humans.
- Katherine Academic and researcher of women's historical writing
- Isobel This hatred of women has to stop
- Marie Totally behind this.
As an adult human female, I'm sick of seeing men being openly hostile and inciting violence towards women.
- Jemma Thank you to all at Sex Matters for standing up for women.
- Sheena Trans women are trans women. Simple. Women are women. Simple. Each have the same human rights but women's rights are being eroded by trans women who are biological men.
- Emily This is gross misogyny, pure and simple.
- Judy I am signing this letter as my focus in order to protect women and safeguard children which is the primary focus of my work.
I am not, and never will be told what to think or what I am able to discuss.
Sex matters!!
RESPECT MY SEX IF YOU WANT MY 'X'
- Andrea Will never understand why for this known violent criminal his words were just 'being a bit of an idiot', yet women who say men are men and may have a sticker get investigated, harassed, demonised. This has to change.
- rosalyn It really is time that women are listened to on this.
- Julie I am sick and tired of barking mad Trans Activists trampling women's Rights into the ground.
Women DO NOT have penises, men DO NOT menstruate or get pregnant.
Gender Neutral loos are a threat to women and an assault on everyone's dignity.
The Trans nonsense has to stop.
- Ellen I feel that women and girls are more at risk from violence nowadays than at any other point in my life and I am 76. More at risk and yet the perpetrators appear to be far less at risk of being apprehended and punished - police forces across the UK are a disgrace.

We need to take solid action now!

- Morna I have commented many times on the comment threads of The Times and The Sunday Times, that the only violence I have ever heard comes from the 'trans-supporting' (which I distinguish from the actually trans) side.
- Michael And what about the NCHI recorded against the 73 year old retired social worker who took a picture of a poster in order to show it to her partner when she got home?
When will the police return to responding to complaints and reports of crime instead of wasting taxpayers' money on this nonsense?
- Carol I have witnessed the harassment myself and seen how passive and ineffectual the police have been in protecting women who simply wish to meet and discuss these very issues.
Please take notice.
Do not ignore.
- Gale There is a real danger that the Police will lose credibility with a large proportion of the public if they continue to police in misogynistic virtue-signalling ways, rather than taking seriously the direct threats to physical violence against (mainly) women.
- Paula Real women need protection against this farse!
- Katharine I have seen firsthand the violence and intimidation of women. These activists are completely against free speech and respectful debate. They believe that any male with a 'gender identity' should be entitled to use women's spaces and take part in women's sports. Vulnerable children are also at risk.
- Rhona Gender ideology is harmful, it must be removed from all government bodies and police forces.
Women are being erased in Language, Policy and Law.
This hatred of women must end.
- Radical I am signing as a political cartoonist, who was cancelled in 2020 by the Morning Star newspaper, when they were forced to apologise for printing my cartoon "Endgame". It warned of the dangers of men invading women's safe spaces by pretending to be women.
- Miriam Women do not believe the metropolitan police in its current state protects us and our daughters. This has to change.
- Jennifer Protect my sex, if you want my X !

Tracey	This is dangerous.
Joan	Demo violence is entirely from the trans lobby; they can't hide their hatred of biological women standing up for our natural born rights. Genuine transsexuals exist but self ID is too often abused by cross-dressers, autogynephiles and criminals to prey on women and girls in our safe spaces.
Sylvia	So sick and tired of male violence and the be kind brigade who have no understanding.
Elizabeth	Please support women. The old-fashioned ones, with wombs.
Jennifer	Please address our concerns urgently.
Rachel	Failure to categorize this language as incitement is incredibly disturbing. Any woman who stands up for women's rights is deemed a TERF by trans activists. Yet this is absolutely a women's issue as it affects women's rights and identities. Denying the incitement to violence is dangerous to all women.
Mal	Faith in justice system declines by the day.
Kevin	It appears that the progress we have made in our democracy is shifting based on attitudes devoid of reason. Please attend to the needs represented by the majority of people reflected in the whole of human history regarding sex and gender and not the recent fad of delusional subjective views.
S	I've watched in horror as institutions enable these types of threats and violence against women by ignoring them, failing to condemn them or even punishing the victims. This effectively permits the intimidation of women in an attempt to silence them and others. Urgent action is needed.
Gillian	How can I and my daughter be safe when someone rallies a crowd to punch women in the face but says, I didn't mean it? I have had enough, women are no longer safe in this country. Men's feelings take priority.
Suzanne	No woman should ever have to fear that saying no to other people's ideology should become illegal. Ringfencing the right of 'free speech' to only those threatening physical or material harm to women who have the right to say no, the law enables abusers to incite or commit VAWG without hindrance.
Sian	We've only just won sex based rights, we can't let them be taken away from us in the space of a couple of generations.

- Mike I wonder what would happen if I stood on a stage and said "If you meet a transperson punch them in the fg face" and then told the police and judge I was just having a laugh.
- Kenneth In addition the Police must stop cautioning and investigating people, under the guise of investigating hate crime, who say trans women are not women Trans women are not women.
- Rosy Recently a violent misogynist publicly called for violence against "terfs", 'Terf is the latest misogynistic word for women after witches and feminazi no longer became acceptable, it dehumanises us.
Yet the courts found this hate, based on our sex, legal.
There's disturbing double standards at play
- Robert I am appalled at the threats against women and the "cancellation" of artists and employees which is a result of Trans extremism. The source of this extremism is our educational system, which has fallen for the Critical Race Theory (CRT).
- Jane If you care about women, children and their safety, you must stop this violence against women.
- Anna Enough is enough.
- Robert Women persistently talk of male violence to women. Now a man decides he's a woman and we are meant to take that at face value and we're wrong to say otherwise.
Transitioning does not make them safe cuddly bunnies and women shouldn't have to give up their rights to service an extreme minority.
- Susan Support women. Stop the erasure of women. Stop the hatred of women. Stop attacks on women. Give women a chance of equality - you can't be equal if you're going to be beaten, cancelled, raped, murdered etc. Women are worthy of respect in a democratic society. Define women as 'adult human females'.
- Carol This utter nonsense must stop - the government must be strong enough to stand up and say it
- Jacqui I am appalled by the decision not to prosecute this person. However, women are regularly arrested for calling transwomen by what they are; biological men. I am an older lesbian who has experienced physical abuse in previous women/lesbian only spaces at the hands of men who "identify" as women.

Beverley	Threats of violence lead to actual violence. Threatening violence is not a joke. Women and girls live in constant fear of this type of male violence and the judicial system fails us day after day by ignoring this behaviour. It condones hatred of women and must end.
Susan	Sex matters because male bodies are stronger than female bodies. This makes women vulnerable, this has always been a protected characteristic and needs to remain so for the safety of women and children everywhere. Women's rights matter
Raymond	I wish more women and men would speak out on this subject. Pressure groups like Stonewall & Mermaids have been allowed to covertly influence government departments and private organisations to change policies and practices without debate or consideration of repercussions in society.
Karima	It cannot be right that all forms of other hate are prosecuted but violence against women is condoned/excused by the courts! It is absolutely outrageous. In 2023 men can now send death threats and encourage acts for violence against women and this is ok.
Britt	I remain confused as to why calls for physical violence are disregarded or diminished but non-violent 'hate crimes' seem to be pursued.
Samantha	Male violence and inciting violence against women and girls in the name of radical gender ideology is no joke.
Eddie	Prime Minister, unlike Kier Starmer, will you stand up for Women's Rights? The fact that a violent criminal can stand up in public and incite a cheering crowd to attack women in front of complacent policemen says much about the UK today. For him to be found not guilty of any crime is a disgrace.
Dawn	Something should be done about this as soon as possible
Natalie	A clear case of incitement to violent hatred....women's safety and justice traded by this decision
Jayne	I really feel the rights and protection of women are under threat. It's like we don't matter anymore. All that seems to matter are men and their rights. It's like going back to the dark ages.
J	Keep up the good work - the world is going mad but thankfully there is a brave minority that points out the emperor is naked.
Margaret	Consenting adults can indulge in whatever strange proclivities they like, but I am female and have not consented to share women's sport or spaces with male bodies whatever pronoun they choose to use.

- Claire We are under attack and need a strong leader to uphold common sense. Please let it be you
- Sandy Please save us natural born women. We are your wives, mothers,sisters,girlfriends, grandmother's, and children. Please help keep us safe and keep our identity.
- sasha Violence against Women and Girls has recently been recognised as akin to terrorism. Why are a small group of extremists being allowed to issue threats - and often carry these out - in public? Why are women' rights/very existence & child protection being eradicated with full state endorsement?
- Gill Proof that the patriarchy is alive and well, especially if nothing is done about this outrage.
- David Women make up over half the population but are treated like 2nd-class citizens at times. Unacceptable, to say the very least.
- Lucy The fight for equality was hard enough for women! Why should we be put back in our box and not fight for our rights
- Jane Threats and violence against women must stop.
- Lynda Biological men's rights in guise as trans women should not trump hard fought for sex based rights. TERF is offensive, when biological women are defending our rights to our biological sex rights. There is space for everyone in the world but trans women are not the 51% of the majority population women r
- Dr Jacqueline As a practitioner psychologist and as a woman I am concerned about trans-ideology and ask you to help protect women's rights.
- Stephanie I am a woman, born a woman and as such should be allowed to state this fact freely. However I now face being abused, receive threats of violence or sacked from my job if I state this. Something needs to be done to protect women and our rights, the 'trans-activists' are taking our rights from us.
- Kathryn This is a matter of urgency. On the Tory watch, women have become targets of violence and online mob culture, all for saying that in specific cases, sex overrides identity. You must intervene on behalf of women while you still can.
- Janet-May I will not vote for anyone who sits and watches biological women being threatened and will not stand up for biological women. They are your mothers, sisters, daughters, they gave birth to us. How dare you not stand up for them- 50% of the country.

- Stephen In my seventies with a mother, wife, daughter and granddaughter watching what happens next, it is time to recognise the statistic that 99.5% of women are not trans. They wish to lead their lives as adult biological females and to recognise the importance, and implications, of those simple facts.
- Ian This is such an urgent and pressing matter. It touches on general issues of the protection of free speech, as well as the vital subject of women's rights. We need to reverse the toxic culture of conversations on this subject.
- Susan As a survivor of sexual violence the current threats to women and lack of action taken terrifies me.
- Julie Stop this eradication of real women. I am actually scared for my future and my female sisters, us with a womb, who feed our children with a mother's milk, from a breast. We are women and therefore we do not have a penis. No woman does.
- Sarah I'm beyond dismayed that a convicted criminal with a history of violent offending has got away with making this appalling statement.
- Cathrine Its very easy for politicians to ignore these threats and dismiss them as a "culture war" perpetrated by extreme right wingers. I'm sick of being told I'm an intolerant bigot for questioning extreme trans ideology. A review is way overdue.
- Maja Adult human female
- Josephine Women need to stand together Now more than ever
- Margaret Absolutely fed to the teeth with misogynistic men, masquerading as women, who behave in a violent manner and are excused for it! This criminal has convictions for violent crime and yet the court believed his excuses. Shame on the judicial system.
- Bernadette Gender/ trans ideology is impinging on women's sex based rights and causing harm to both women and children of both sexes. This form of extremism needs to be stopped. Making clear, in law and in practice, the importance of sex will be an important step in stopping this.
- Barbara Permitting men to intimidate and threaten violence against women must stop. what kind of a society ignores this and allows this to happen? ...even treating it as a joke. Would you accept this if it was done to your mother? To your sister? To your wife? To your daughter? Seriously?

- Caroline Women = adult human female, and no ideology can trump fact. Please support our right to state fact.
- Alex Perhaps you could look into why police and a judge believe that a man inciting a crowd to punch women is not a crime?
- Karin What is going on with these awful people is disgusting & us women will not tolerate such violence against us
- Lesley It is time the judiciary realised the reality that women's freedom to have their own space wherein they feel safe along with their right to have an opinion is being eroded.
- Keturah I'm tired of the double standards. There is only one side in this debate using threats, intimidation and violence - and it's not terfs.
- Jo Men like Baker should not be on the streets, let alone allowed to set up hate groups. The authorities need to get rid of the GRA and start punishing these criminals who have used this ridiculous ideology to threaten violence towards women without any repercussions.
- Catherine Misogyny has always been a challenge for women but the current approach of police, courts and other enforcement bodies, to the rise in violent threats issued to women, almost always by men, is both worrying and angering. Do we have to take to the streets en masse to show how angry we are?
- Gerard Incitement to violence is illegal and should be punished with appropriate punishment.
- Rachel I am horrified by the increase in open, public hatred of women. I never thought I'd remember the sexism of the 1970s fondly, but it seems so benign compared with the vicious misogyny I see today. Our political leaders must take action to protect us.
- Sarah It is sickening to be scared because I know the police and parliament fail to support sex based rights.
Not only do the police/judiciary/politicians not support women they actively support men who call themselves women and activists who are prepared to be physically violent to women.
- Simon I'm utterly appalled and disgusted by the content shown in this video. I have seen content like this before. How these men can claim that they are the ones suffering abuse and violence is beyond me. Women must be protected.
- Gilly It is utterly shocking that a small group of men with fetishes has come to manipulate so many organisations including the NHS. Their aim appears to be demeaning all women by eroding our rights and threatening us with violence. All under the banner of 'trans' it is a distorted and damaging ideology.

- Richard This will be a real test of the government's commitment to ending violence against women. Actions speak louder than words.
- Derek There is no difference between Marxist and Fascist ideologies- both are based on hate for others and "we know what's best for you" These ideologies feed off folk with low self worth and those who love to hate "the LGBTQ+ followers"
- Eileen Hugely important
- John "Action" is long overdue! Solidarity from an adult human male!
- Tanial A lot of us women are single issue voters I encourage you to be in dialogue with conservatives for women
- Georgina I have worked in mental health for most of my adult life and therefore have dealt with many victims and survivors of violence and abuse. It starts with unacceptable words and ends with violence and assault. When did punching women pass as humour?
- Clare I am a middle age middle class mum and have never felt more afraid of my own safety and the safety of other women and girls. Institutions and public bodies including the NHS, courts and police have been taken over by gender ideology and are anti women. Please think of your two daughters.
- Dawn Violence against women and girls is a serious issue.
The issue can only be addressed if it is treated seriously,
This was a direct threat and it was dismissed as a joke.
Women's rights and protections are being treated as a joke.
- Eileen I am also concerned by reports of words like woman and mother being erased in the health service, and in large public and private organisations. I find it astonishing that widespread beliefs about sex and gender have been virtually criminalised. A person with a penis is not a woman.
- Rachel Thank you so much for the very vital work you are doing in standing up against bullies who are being endorsed and encouraged by the state.
- Helen Wholeheartedly agree with this petition. This anti-women lunacy has to STOP.
- Hilary Fully support this cause. Women's safety and identity is under threat. The Police are not doing their job. Disgraceful

- Russell We must find a common place to all live in peace. The radical “left’s” violent proclivities must be resisted and punished.
- Karen The systematic attacks on women using their voices to speak out about the erosion of women’s rights is insidious and dangerous.
It is the ultimate act of misogyny to identify as women then silence those who recognise that sex matters.
VAWG continues through trans rights activism
- Taelor You either protect women’s rights or you don’t. Humans cannot change sex. Stand up for truth!
- Corinda I am very concerned about the marginalisation of biological women. It seems the trans lobby and activists are working hard to remove us from society.
Remove the word CIS and create the term transperson - we do not need another label for man/male or woman/female.
- MICHELE Please stop the violence against women from the trans community. I am very scared to speak out to defend myself and daughter against these violent trans people.
- Lisa Please protect the right to talk about biological facts & to be able to support those that do, accurately, without fear of being silenced, ostracised or even potentially prosecuted. (And this is from my own trans perspective).
- Brian I will not vote for any politician that does not PUBLICALLY defend women from threats of physical violence from trans rights activists. Also any politician that does not recognise biological reality.
- Lesley It’s time the Uk government, Opposition party and the judiciary realised that there is a gradual erosion of women’s freedom with regard to freedom of speech, freedom to have human female safe spaces and freedom from the vitriolic and hate filled speech from men such as Alan AKA Sarah Jane Baker.
- Arianna Women should not live in fear for speaking the truth about the scientific realities of sex. The police should protect these women from harassment and allow them to voice their concerns rather than contributing to their bullying.
- Di Never give up this hugely important battle for women and girls
- Geraldine Why are the police and the judiciary failing in their duty to protect women against violence and intimidation when they protect other groups covered by the human rights act? The UK Government needs to address this failure as a matter of extreme urgency.
- Tim Father of a trans identifying daughter

- Jane Thanks for this opportunity
- V How can it be that those who choose to believe in reality have to fight for their rights to safety and tolerance? Why has it happened under a Conservative Government? As our democratically elected leaders, we demand you condemn such behaviour without reservation.
- Ruth Time for the government to prove they defend the rights of women, adult human females, and are committed to standing up to those who insight violence against women.
- Fiona Women's rights are being destroyed as we watch, and I cannot accept this. We have to keep on raising these issues until finally someone with some power actually does something. What we cannot do is give up or move over.
- colette In a democratic society of only two sexes - the female sex should should be able to rely on their police force, judiciary and government to not enable or collude with male violence against women.
- Jane Wonder what would happen if a women's group held up banners saying decapitate a trans or punch a trans in the face.
The police would be there making arrests in their dozens.
- Helen Violence against women no matter who is the perpetrator is wrong. Trans identified males should not be allowed a free pass to incite violence against women by branding us terfs. Women have had enough.
- Jenny I have been shocked and dismayed to see this public exhortation for violence to take place against women exonerated by a court 'because it was a joke'. To me, it was a misogynistic hate crime and should be dealt with as such.
- Paul It is utterly shameful that women are being intimidated by delusional narcissists while the state stands bay, or even enables.
- Emma Personally I have felt intimidated by aggressive activists, as never before in my life. This fear has stopped me, and many others I'm sure, sharing my wholly moderate views. The atmosphere of fear is damaging to democracy.
- Hazel As a woman of 60+ (& mother of 2 daughters), I'm increasingly worried about the direction, & speed, that transextremism is going in. Women make up 51% of the population. How can this extreme hate & violence be happening against us in 20223, under Conservatives? Remember, women are also voters.

- Colin The misogyny of the transgender ideologues needs to be nipped in the bud before it pours its toxins everywhere.
- Shaun Some of the fastest growing rates of hatred in the country are coming from TQ+ people and their activist sympathisers.
This can't just be glossed over for the sake of diversity. It has to be opposed like all other forms of hatred.
- Christine Men demanding women be punched and attacked for existing - nothing has changed over hundreds of years. It's time we stood up and protect ourselves from these animals.
- Lynne A woman is an adult human female. Women are not second class citizens. Women are not support humans. Women's rights are human rights.
Women's rights to safety, privacy and dignity are being destroyed by gender ideology. This general assault on women's rights, and free speech, must be stopped.
- Denise 51% of the population are female. We count and we matter. We deserve protection and the right to free speech. Stand up to the bullies and start taking action before more women get hurt.
- Carol This is a linguistic, cultural and social war on Women.
- Jane 'Trans' activists have inserted themselves into visible places in government organisations & both public & private institutions, where they create division by claiming grievances, mostly where no grievance is justified. They lack no rights, & it's biological fact that men cannot actually be women.
- Carol I'm hopeful that by the time my daughter is old enough to be going in to places alone that she is safe. The changing of language centred around females, is an absolute travesty and should not be what defines this generation in the history books.
- Victoria During my campaigning against men's violence in mixed sex changing rooms and advocating that an element of single sex is provided for women & girls a man (who identified as a woman) wished me and other women dead in an online public forum. The police did nothing.
- Teresa It's absolutely ridiculous. A woman is investigated for photographing a sticker, stating a biological fact.
A violent, aggressive Male thug incites violence against women and it's classified as a bit of banter.
- Helen I wholeheartedly stand by all women who are campaigning for the women's rights - safe spaces, female only sports, changing rooms, toilets etc. I am very concerned that our children are being led into clinical/ medical procedures etc regardless of how young they are and their parents' permission.

Gwen Can somebody please start applying some common sense to the discussion. That this man in a dress was found not guilty of inciting hate is unbelievable. That the police are constantly pursuing people for non-crime hate incidents is unbelievable. It high past time the government did something.

Allison We need you to help protect our rights not to have to share our women-only places with men, including men who claim to be women (which is impossible). Also to not be threatened, lose our jobs and platforms for stating the fact that humans cannot change their sex.

katherine
sian This is a very disturbing situation.

Linda The police turned up at a 73 year old ex social worker's home after she was seen photographing a sticker saying women only spaces and treat it as a hate crime. Now Body Shop saying staff want all products non gender specific. I am sick of it it's a nasty campaign against women who identify as such Andrew I have been appalled at the level of intimidation and bullying seen for people expressing perfectly reasonable opinions, whether in gatherings. The menacing masked men outside Kathleen Stock's offices, the numerous people's lives made impossible in their jobs in universities.

Ethna Women need safe women only spaces. Putting on makeup and a skirt doesn't change your sex.

Hilary I am fed up of this campaign of intimidating and silencing women in the name of "trans-rights", when in fact it's just reinvented misogyny.

CRAIG Women fought long and hard for their rights as women.
Sad blokes playing dress up are not women and never will be women.

Sue Adult human females (women) make up 50% of every electorate. Ignore us all at every political party's ultimate peril! I am sick and tired of biological women and girls being second class citizens, trawled by activists, being spat upon, physically and verbally assaulted. Is this what you stand for?

Steve LET WOMEN SPEAK

Liz It is very odd how all this violence and against women and intimidation of women goes unchallenged and yet women get visited by the police, lectured, warned or even prosecuted for hate crime if they simply take photos of a sticker or make a post about biological facts on twitter.

- Mhairi It seems recently that when it comes to hate crime laws, there is one law for women another for men. Just calling a man a man can get a woman interviewed by the police, but incitements to actual violence against women are not deemed as serious, even when spoken by a convicted kidnapper and murderer.
- Catherine Threats and incitement to violence against women are abhorrent in any context but to remain unpunished from a violent male criminal is unethical and unacceptable.
- Ann Please take this seriously. It's not about intolerance - it's about safeguarding rights that women have fought for centuries. We never thought that fight would be jeopardised by the very people who should be standing with us, as transwomen in a shared battle.
- Jan Wife, mother of 2 girls, grandmother and supporter of women's rights.
- Karen I am entitled to a view just as other people are entitled to hold a differing view. I should not be afraid to be penalised for holding that view.
- Judy Outraged that a Court hearing acquitted a convicted criminal with an appalling record of violence, for inciting an angry crowd of trans activists to kill gender critical women
- Calvin When was it ok for a biological man to threaten a woman?
- claire Women are so sick of this blatant misogyny, yet many are afraid to speak out. Every woman I speak to has had enough. Women are being erased and attacked in the name of inclusiveness. This will be a pivotal factor for me in how I vote at the next election. The same goes for thousands of others.
- Pamela I am a pensioner and I can confirm that the current atmosphere of misogyny is worse even than women suffered in the 1960s and 70s, when being a woman in the workplace was to expect derision and sometimes outright opposition.
- Paul Happy to sign to keep my wife and daughter safe x
- Rebecca Trans activism is a misogynistic men's rights movement.
- Glenys I am very concerned about this
- Sarah I am a woman, an adult human female and live in a society where this fact should be protected. Women are now being vilified, threatened and abused by trans-activists if they state this fact. We need to be protected now.

Annie	For the sake of our daughters and granddaughters, goddaughters and nieces, the status of biological women must be protected.
Robert	Trans rights activism has revealed itself to be an intolerant, aggressive, violent and misogynistic movement that does not have popular support and so it is unclear why any part of any political party, yet alone a responsible government would want to align itself with such a divisive ideology.
Marie	This hate of women must stop
Margaret	Men in balaclavas, police who stand by whilst they hurl abuse and even worse attack women, what is going on, how can this be happening in this country, why is it allowed to happen?
Sian	I am so grateful to all the women in the public domain who are standing up for women's rights. I hope the Prime Minister responds positively to this letter and we see some real change as a result.
Janice	Women's rights are being destroyed by men. Again.
Ann	I have been targeted in my job as a Maths teacher for pointing out that children are legally entitled to believe there are only two sexes.
Sarah	Thank you so much for standing up for women's rights. I think you are all amazing!
Sue	Women are women and should be protected from male violence no matter what these bodies call themselves on what day.
Andy	The man clearly committed a crime, and the fact that our justice system did not recognise this simple fact further undermines my faith in that system. The case should be reviewed now.
Kirsty	If the PM is committed to ending violence against women and girls as he claims, then threats of this nature MUST be taken seriously, particularly when made by someone with a violent history.
Tamlyn	Thank you for all that you do for women
Viv	We must make misogyny a hate crime. Biological women need protection from men.
Sally	Women's rights must NOT take a huge step backwards. Women have the right to BE. I am a woman. I have the RIGHT TO BE. Let me be!
Maire	As a woman I feel betrayed by the justice system.

- Linda Shocking that more than half the population aka women are being discriminated like this
- Fleur Right now, the actions of the Thought Police are rapidly approaching those of China and other countries not known for their valuing of free speech and expression. Very disappointing!
- Sue Advocating violence against anyone is not acceptable. Anyone doing this, even as a so called joke, should be held to account.
- Eilidh Shocked by this case, as usual men can do whatever they like without fear of reprimand.
- Carol A Biological women are entitled to single sex spaces, such as toilets and changing rooms, as are biological men. Women and girls should be able to play sports together without having to compete against biological males. No child is born in the wrong body.
- James We fight till we win. Lunatics are running the asylum.
- David Anything I can do to counter the current insanity.
- Daphne It's outrageous that the trans lobby has been allowed to get away with denying basic human biology, and vilifying those who won't. The hate campaign they have waged against women has been an attempt to bully us into silence. Those with jobs to lose are still fearful of speaking up.
- Gia For the past 10 years, I have had violent threats from trans activists for simply saying that female mammals produce eggs, male mammals produce sperm and humans are mammals. For this I should apparently have my throat slit, have my head stomped on and be set on fire. Don't ignore this anymore.
- Jane Men dominating women again!
- Maggie Stop harming women and children.
Politicians and other people in power should not be allowed to put trans people's rights over others without first gaining a full understanding of the designation of trans woman in all its different forms and knowledge of psychological and physical health issues.
- Linda This violence is disgusting. Men wanting to kill women. No Change There Then???
- L Why are women second class citizens? Why does the Government continue to do nothing about our loss of essential protections and rights?

- Sarah Thank you for continuing to fight the good fight. You keep me sane in a world of craziness. I work for a university and feel like I'm being smothered by the Stonewall propaganda. I truly thought women had made some progress since I was a teenager in the 1970s but it's worse.
- Sara I wholeheartedly support this campaign. It is essential that women are freely able to discuss our rights in a safe manner. It is dreadful that some women have been threatened by trans rights activists.
- Constance Stop violence against women!
- Rebecca You know, transgender people have always been around, but the hatred of trans women towards actual women has never manifest before. I see no difference between damaging ways women are frequently treated by men, and the way trans activist men treat women. Can that be surprising? They are all men.
- Julie I am an older woman who now never goes to anywhere where there is a communal changing room because of the potential of having an entire male there. I would be very embarrassed. My life is being restricted. I am even wary of using toilets which are "out of the way" when out in a pub or for a meal.
- Des Quite apart from the flagrant disregard towards women, you're encouraging intolerance towards the many trans-identified people who do not think "jokes" like the one Baker claimed to make are remotely funny, or acceptable expressions of "anger".
- David Baker is a dangerous and violent man who should still be behind bars. Many aggressive male trans activists are exactly the same. This abusive misogyny, which leaves so many women and girls at risk, must be stopped.
- Kate I participate in animal rights activism. I have never and would never promote violence. Were I to use a megaphone and call on people to punch animal farmers and hunters in the face, could I expect to be treated with such leniency?
- Jemma This male activist made a public call to action against women who recognise that any male, regardless of how he personally identifies, is a risk to women and girls in our spaces and any female that recognises the right to organise separately of the male sex. Stand up 4 us against bullies like him!!
- Suzi Getting heartily sick of the way these vile Trans activists are being protected like they are some "protected species" and are handled with kid gloves. The justice system is a joke. Women are being erased, abused and are vilified if they speak out against these activists, simply evil

Catherine	Disgraceful!
Heather	Women have fought so hard for recognition as citizens with equal rights. Please consider how the current state of affairs pushes us back down and has an extremely damaging effect on women of all ages.
Jackie	Violence against Women should be stopped .
Andrew	100% support Sex Matters and others, eg Fair Play for Women. I fail to understand how supposedly intelligent people allow themselves to agree with ideas that lead from saying men can be women to the mutilation of children.
Phil	I totally agree with Sex Matters over this
Nicolette	Not a TERF, nor anti-transgender, but extremely concerned when people quickly use threats and intimidation to silence others whose views do not match their own.
Susan	Protect biological females.
Lily	The campaign of hate and intimidation against women has negatively affected my life as a young lesbian, I feel discriminated against in areas of life where I previously felt welcomed. Please condemn the violence and abuse.
Peter	A woman was reprimanded by police for a non-crime hate incident” for taking a picture of a sticker saying “keep males out of women-only spaces”. A man, with a history of extreme violent acts, calls on people to punch TERFs in the face goes free. Holders of gender critical views need protection now.
Alison	I expect the government and the state officials, police officers and local authorities to carry out their Public Sector Equality Duty to balance the rights of ALL holders of protected characteristics, & to foster good relations between all groups, not only to promote those of a favoured few.
Carol	Great work. Keep it up
Russell	The entitlement and misogyny of the creepy activists who have infiltrated the trans movement is never clearer than when they assault, abuse and threaten women who simply seek to maintain their own spaces free of men. The government must protect the basic rights of women against such attacks.
Robert	If transgender people want to be respected they have to respect others!
Sarah	What’s it going to take for this violence against women to be taken seriously? How many more of us will be hurt? Will it take a murder?

Stewart	Good luck!
Brenda	Absolutely sick to death of the constant intimidation, bullying and harassing of these so called trans activists. They hate women and will stop at nothing to destroy us. Time to fight back and fight back hard.
Elaine	We have to protect women's rights, it is so important we have a voice through Sex Matters.
Jackie	Women deserve better
Shelly	Woman I am a woman not a cis woman I am a adult human female
Samuel	Cults need to be recognised by law as the cults they are, they do not and should not take president in secular law. Why are the UK courts upholding legal bias to minority groups with poor self definition over other minority groups?
Jennie	This issue is central to personal and public life. Those who are in positions of power need to speak out.
Glenis	I am a biological female and have every right to exist in safety as have my daughters and granddaughter. I no longer feel safe in the country I was born in and over the years women have become more and more vulnerable. In a civilised country, this is not just unacceptable, it is unbelievable!
Martina	Our rights and our identity are being eroded constantly. We need to make a stand and say enough is enough.
Rebecca	This is hugely important for the safety of women and girls
Jeremy	It defies reason that this letter is needed. Ten years ago, everyone knew what a woman was, and that there was a need for greater protection for them as a group.
Alexis	THIS HAS TO STOP. VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN AND GIRLS IS A HATE CRIME AND POLICE HAVE TO TAKE APPROPRIATE ACTION. NOW.
Michelle	I support my fellow females and hope that you would support us too. For the sake of your wives and daughters. Female changing rooms should be safe spaces. Females should be allowed to compete with each other fairly. And without fear of violence.
Lynn	You are fantastic women and I support you absolutely. Thank you for everything you have done and are doing. This work and cause is absolutely vital for women's safety, for children's safety and for the preservation of truth and free speech without which democracy ceases to exist.

- Bobby Stop this woke society and stop gender ideology.
#leaveourkidsalone
Stop protecting woke left wing violence.
The equality act isn't a shield for woke and trans activists.
Protect gender critical views.
- Mary Please think of your daughters, Mr Sunak. They will need these legal protections as they grow up.
- Eiryl How come so much is changing just for a few members of society not to be offended.
Let people live how they wish but don't delete 'women' 'mothers' breast feeding. Women are women, adult females. We are not cis women.
- carole this insanity has got to stop....
- Louise History will look back at this time and be amazed how many good women and men allowed this kind of speech and actions to happen.
- Elizabeth I support this wholeheartedly
- Katie I will never vote for a political party who cannot admit the plain biological fact that there are only two sexes - male and female and that neither sex can 'become' the other (other than superficially). If they can't get the basics right, how can I trust their judgement on other important matters?
- Katie I will never vote for a political party who cannot admit the plain biological fact that there are only two sexes - male and female and that neither sex can 'become' the other (other than superficially). If they can't get the basics right, how can I trust their judgement on other important matters?
- Eduardo I wholeheartedly endorse efforts to combat violence against women in the name of "trans rights." It's deeply concerning that women face threats and harm for expressing their beliefs.
Urging swift government action to protect all women's rights and safety.
- Marion Violent threats are not acceptable at any time, yet a man can put on women's clothing and that somehow makes it okay.
Any pushback against this is deemed transphobic. No. This is a violent threat against women from a man. It doesn't matter what he's wearing.

- Fiona Are we really saying hate crime is acceptable towards 'woman'?
Prime Minister do the laws of our land differ towards different individuals? Clearly this is the case here.
As a woman, I feel unprotected and unsafe by our police and law, and not prepared to attend hospital, WHY?
- Sian I feel we as women are being erased. It has taken so much sacrifice for our voices to be heard in some parts of the world and now this public and promoted campaign of violence against us is truly frightening. We are now too scared to even voice our thoughts. We are under attack.
- Donald To say this was a joke makes a mockery of the Law. If someone calls a trans woman by his birth name they potentially get a police visit, a trans woman says this and nothing is done. Very far from equal treatment as far as I can see.
- Olivia In 2023, a convicted dangerous male can urge that feminists should be punched in the face and get away with it, while the police visit a woman who took a photograph of a sticker... that sticker itself voicing a lawful opinion, and one that is simply defending women's rights. Surreal and terrifying.
- Sammi Thank you for advocating for us.
- Maggie In the face of a clear and very violent threat again women made at a 'trans rights rally', the police initially failed to act. Appalling! When finally it went to court, it was seen as just 'a joke'. Outrageous!
The police and courts need a massive overhaul if women are ever to feel safe again.
- Aryalila I am a woman disabled by long-term illness. Please protect my right to single sex care, both at home and in hospital.
- Elizabeth For the first time in over twenty years women have become second class citizens. Not only attacked physically, verbally, emotionally we have had our right to complain removed. We are subject to false charges, we are subject to public harassment and threats whilst police officers stand by.
- Joanne Adult human female. Only the truth is true.
- Martin How could a judge accept that that comment was a joke!!!!
- Tracey Women like me are genuinely frightened that a violent man will assault us because we don't subscribe to the madness that men can become women. I have spoken to friends who no longer go to bars or restaurants because they cannot speak freely for fear of violence. This is 2023 and we are afraid.

- Catriona It really is time that our government took a clear position on the issue of the rights of women and children. Biological sex must be recognised in law and respected by the institutions that serve us (police, NHS, education and the courts). The current situation is a shambles.
- Richard This woke misogyny has to stop.
- Martin The populace considered 'gender' to be a simple genteel synonym for 'sex'. We saw one or the other, never both on forms. When that was the case, Young women weren't having mastectomies on healthy breasts as a 'cure' for lesbianism. The Trans agenda have obfuscated 'gender' (binary) with persona.
- Diana Women deserve safety and privacy and should be treated a lot better
- Carolyn My son is headed down this path. Please help.
- Carol This is too important to be ignored.
- Amanda Who would think that in the 21st century women would be facing this kind of threat for stating that sex (not gender) differences between women and men matter? Sign this for our mothers, our sisters, our daughters, our friends.
- Roisin Women are being treated shamefully and I don't see your government doing a blind thing about it.
- Ellen Keep men out of women's spaces.
- Isabella Everyone has the right to express opinions but not to cite violence when opinions differ. I feel biological women are slowly being erased. This is not the equality that the Suffragettes campaigned so hard for. We need to take their example and stand up for ourselves, non violently.
- Grahame I am angry women's rights are being eroded and their lives threatened by transactivists. I angry at the invasion of trans ideology into schools to the exclusion of biological sex and the damage this does to children. I am angry at the distortions in the English Language avoid sex in favour 'gender'.
- Abjean Our daughters. Future women, are being replaced and attempt to reduce them to silence is unbearable. You must protect women and children !
- Claire The is a movement that harms women and children, is misogynistic, and once again women are fighting to protect their sex category. Why is this allowed to happen...

- Magdalena Over the time I have been feeling more and more concerned about the state of the discussion about the reality of biological sex and what that means for women's sex-based rights. I hope action will be taken to clear up things.
- jan For those politicians who, appear to be confused as to what or who a WOMEN is: WOMEN - an adult (BIOLOGICAL AT BIRTH) FEMALE. SEX MATTERS.
- Kristina I don't even know what to say, I'm feeling very downtrodden with all of this. I'm pro trans, pro women, pro men, pro everyone. But this is just out of control and women need protecting. I'm just astonished every single day by what I see and read in the news, we need proper discussions & healthy debate
- Jennifer Totally supportive of all you are doing, and agree that the words and actions of Alan Baker are totally unacceptable in a civilised society.
- Robert It is not good enough to say that puberty is what matters. A woman is, and always will be, an adult female and a man an adult male. No ifs or buts.
- Julie Extremist transactivism is a form of terrorism and poses a real threat to women and girls. Please protect us...
- Alison Good luck and thank you x
- Sonia Treat hateful trans activists who incite abuse and violence towards women in the same way the lefty woke law is treating gender critical women speaking out and up to protect all biological women!
- Karen I feel like an entire lifetime of progress towards women being taken seriously and being valued in society has been swept away in the wash of internet special interests, pornography, and the pursuit of ever weaker boundaries now torn apart by an extreme personality cult.
- patrick These violent men acting under the protection of trans rights are a danger to women.
- diane It's time for the policy capture to be challenged. So many have been conned into believing that they're supporting a 'trans liberation' campaign. When in reality no-one is seeking to remove any rights of trans people. The demands of transactivists threaten existing legal rights of women under EA 2010
- Michael Thank you
- Nick Thank you for doing what you're doing.

- H. J. Why is it a hate crime to have a critical opinion but it's ok for specific groups to encourage violence against people who have critical opinions?! Where has our respect for freedom of conscience gone?! Are we going to introduce gulags for people who have opinions that specific groups don't like?!
- Russell This grotesque tolerance of the hate-filled threats and actions of (many) trans-activists is a major threat to the hard-won rights of women.
- Michael Much much more needs to be done to protect women.
- Mandy We are over 50% of the population, we should be treated equally. We should not suffer hatred, death and rape threats when we voice our biological factors. Stop the hatred towards women now!
- Tricia I am appalled at the blatant misogyny shown by the judge in this ruling. He has given backing to all abusers who claim the victim cannot take a joke as an excuse for their behaviour. Women have had enough and will not put up w this state-sponsored war on women.
- Katy Women are 51% of the UK's population but we are slowly being erased, intimidated and silenced. Politicians must put women's rights and safety high on their agendas.
- Cara All rights should matter, women are the reason for every birth in the world and yet do not receive basic respect or common decency
- Katy This is wrong on so many levels. How dare the courts give any category of man a get out clause for inciting violence towards women. If Rishi Sunak doesn't address this then I will know that NO ONE cares about VWAG.
- Jules I am a parish councillor, I have been investigated for hate speech merely fir saying that I believe Emily Bridges is a man and should not have been teaching in the Women's category.
Trans activists are weaponising every complaints process they can and we have to put a stop to it.
- Debra As a woman I am sick and tired of the violence being hurled at women who believe in their biological sex. I expect politicians to rejoice in adult human female success. There are no votes for anyone who does not in our household, and that includes the men.
- Nadia This isn't even about trans people. It's just misogynists that have hijacked an issue to incite violence against women. Shameful that more people can't see this anti-women movement for what it is.
- Steven This needs to stop, now.

Robina	Thank you. Let's fight on....
chris	As a co-founder of male Allies Challenging Sexism we are committed to supporting the campaign of Safe Spaces for women which are seriously under threat .
Fiona	As a survivor of torture and abuse by lots of men (including in childhood) I am seriously concerned at how normalised sexual physical and emotional abuse is.
Kelly	The intimidation of women standing up for their rights needs to stop!
Daniel	This attack on women's rights is utterly abhorrent. It is being condoned by politicians who seem prepared to lie to the public about biological realities. It is resulting in threats of violence against women that go unpunished. This is an atrocious message to be sending to women and girls.
Carol	Please protect the right of women to have their own space and privacy and to compete on an even playing field. Above all, act to ensure their safety. Thank you.
Jenny	Please sort this out PM
Sarah	Thank you for the work you do.
S	The Equality Act stipulates that a person's beliefs are a protected characteristic therefore it is unacceptable that women (and men) can be harassed and intimidated for holding gender-critical beliefs.
Simon	Women have always suffered violence and threats of violence from men. Now, all a man has to do is call himself a woman and he is able to threaten women with impunity.
Rebecca	Protect women now! I am fed up by seeing the police acting as puppets for the trans rights brigade and persecuting women on the flimsiest of excuses. Meanwhile threats of actual violence against women are ignored and we women are dehumanised as Terfs.
Simon	I stand with women, and protecting their rights from being misappropriated by men under the guise of Trans Rights.
Cynthia	Trans-identifying males, a particular segment of THE "most vulnerable" demographic, the LGBTQ+ community, seems to have been given "a get out of jail card" by the police. Now it appears that men who think they're women are able to publicly incite violence against adult human females w/ impunity.
Denise	We are strong when we stand together, thank you Maya & all who give us a voice

- Rachael The government must end the violence against women trying to protect safe spaces, and speaking peacefully about their beliefs, transactivist violence is hate crime against women.
- Tom Biology matters!
- Jan Thank you SO much for standing up to this sinister movement/cult that does not represent trans people but is using them as a shield for misogynistic attacks on women.
- Nick This madness needs to stop and the Government must act.
- Felicity Trans activism is based entirely on a fundamental and blatant LIE.
The State must STOP allowing these lies - so NO to falsifying birth certificates, driving licences, passports, NO to NHS issuing new NHS number, NO to schools lying to children.
Gov MUST STOP the LIES.
- SIMON Action needed now!
- I wholeheartedly agree with the contents in the letter.
- Robert I fully support this letter and its vitally important requests of the UK Gov, in the interests of protecting and supporting women's sex-based rights.
- Sue Keep us safe
- Susan Stop the hate, we're all human beings!
- Rebekah I wish I could sign it a dozen times. Especially after the situation in Yorkshire where police arrested a 70 year old woman for taking a photo of a sticker on a lamppost which called for the preservation of women only safe spaces.
- Caroline We all quite rightly have equal rights in this country but it seems to me that the rights of 50% of the population i.e.. Biological women are being ignored and trampled on in favour of a very small percentage of the population .
- Soreh I feel appalled and frightened by the rapidly escalating violence that women who stand up for our sex based rights are facing. The hatred being shown to women has nothing to do with trans rights and everything to do with a very misogynistic trans activists movement.
- Angela Thank you for all you do. I live in Canada and we all need to work together to stop this attack on women and girls.

- Katrina It seems that all the rights and dignity that women have achieved is being eroded by trans activism. The fact that some people feel they are born in the wrong body and choose to change that, should not mean that biological sex no longer exists. Biological females are becoming invisible once again.
- Bernard Official indifference to the campaign against Women being waged by this violent trans lobby is indefensible & inexplicable (apart from its essential contribution to growing divisiveness that now characterises GB politics).
Read the 1st stanza of W B Yeats, "The Second Coming"
- Heather Anyone can say that their comment which incited violence against women is a joke!
Why should a judge be taken in by this?
- Kamila As a woman I am shocked to see that women's rights are being eroded at pace. I no longer feel safe at work. I worry about the future for my daughters.
- Sue There is a shocking disrespect by certain groups against women today, unfortunately others do not stand up to these trans activists and the rights of women so these trans activists act with impunity!
Please stand up for us so that we have safe spaces and are allowed to voice our opinions.
- Martin Women are women. Men who wear a skirt a dash of lippy Lacey knickers. Cut off their manhood have fake boobs are still men.
- Conrad When will the madness of gender supremacy be made subject to law?
- Margaret Why do the courts accept that an offender who decides to suddenly identify as a woman is entitled to be addressed as if this is a genuine choice? And to be accepted as such. when it's is blatantly obvious it's just a ploy.
- Kamila As a woman I am shocked to see that women's rights are being eroded at pace. I no longer feel safe at work. I worry about the future for my daughters.
- Jeanne This is the most aggressive push-back by Biological MEN against Biological WOMEN since we gained Equal Rights with MEN in 1975. The SEX Discrimination Act 1975!
The violence the Hate the Misogyny is palpable.
When I saw placards stating 'Decapitate the TERFS' that could not be plainer!
- Sandra This is an extremely important issue. Direct threats against gender critical women are not taken seriously. Women who exercise the right to free speech can lose their livelihood and face being ostracised. Are we still a country of free expression? Increasingly it is beginning to appear that we are not

- Stephen This complete nonsense has got to stop. The mass majority have got to win against the tiny minority.
- Kathy I am not anti trans but am opposed to the trans activism which is destroying years of hard fought for protections of women. Any man who decides he is now a woman is not recognising this in the name of their masculine, now trans, rights. Please protect women NOW.
- dusty Please reconsider the case against Sarah Jane Baker and please make sure this doe snot happen again
- Karen Women's sex based rights must be protected. It isn't fair that by saying as such people lose their jobs etc. please look at this issue and provide guidance.
- Mike The courts cannot justify throwing 51% of the population under the bus for the sake of .01% of men who cannot control their feelings! 100% of mothers are having their rights taken away.
- Leslie Women are speaking out, submitting valid, evidence-based complaints, but are ignored or defamed. There has been no justification for removing safeguarding standards women and girls require to participate in society, while male violence against women and children is unchanged. Sex matters.
- It's unconscionable that a judge accepted violent criminal Sarah Jane (previously Alan) Baker's explanation that his words - "If you see a TERF, punch them in the fucking face!" - were just a "joke". This bullying and violent abuse must be stopped, with perpetrators being punished with jail time.
- Yvonne If you do not defend women - all of you - you shame your mother.
- Linda I am horrified at how extreme this has become and more horrified that nothing is being done about it.
- Hilary Stop the madness. L & G components of LGBTQ+ are now distancing themselves publicly and strenuously from the T component because of its harassment, intimidation, and indeed assault of gender-critical feminists AND because of the co-option of gay sexuality by arrogant, violent trans "women." Enough!
- Susan The media is complicit. I have been unable to comment on Sarah Jane Parker, nor the pensioner who had her "thinking corrected" for taking a photo of a sticker. It's an onslaught from all directions. the police who are supposed to fight crime and not defend the feelings of men who identify as women.

- Gundula Defend women against violence by men and men who claim to be “women”. Defend sex based women’s rights in sport, in medicine, in the workplace, in public, online and in your language. Woman is a sex based definition.
- Pamela This must change. Please do whatever it takes to reverse the new woke culture. Let’s have some sanity.
- Mike The ideology of ‘inclusivity and diversity’ is demonizing anyone whose views do not align with that ideology. This needs to be stopped by ensuring that freedom to express one’s opinions are not shut down by any ‘activist’ group. Threats to punch someone in the f* face is not a joke, it is a real threat
- Amber I want my single sex spaces back
- Emily Autistic people (like me and like the teenage girl in Leeds recently) are held to strict rules about speech, but not Mr Baker.
- Emma Rising violence against women in UK, expressed/actual, in this and other areas of life is unacceptable. Fear is being engendered in holding/ expressing a different opinion. Today the BBC write re Elizabeth Dalgarno’s report. An integrated approach to life for women in UK in all sectors a must.
- Carolina Imagine what would authorities do if instead of “terf”, some activist shouted to punch black people, gays, disabled, trans people, jew, you name it. This insanity must be dealt with for what it is.
- Collette It is vital that we have organisations like “Sex Matters” to fight for women’s rights on this matter. So many people are ignorant of the tsunami of hate that is in society when it comes to women having their rights protected on all fronts. I think you are an inspiration to us all.
- MICHAEL There is a clear imbalance in the reaction of public servants, including the police and the courts, to these sorts of events and thus I fully support this letter.
- Karen Enough is enough. Protect the 52%!
- David Women’s spaces should be for women only. Gay men spaces should be gay men only.
- Mark I feel that this is such a critical issue of our time. It is real Big Brother material, analogous to 2+2=5 we are being asked to accept an ideology that confounds the evidence of our eyes and basic understanding of empirical knowledge. Men are not women and I am not hateful to say so.

- Kim Outrageous and abusive behaviour, why do the police believe inciting violence against women is acceptable from this individual and his co-conspirators? Women are not the exception to the rule
- Paul This is one of many examples where the attack on women's rights is disgraceful and needs to be stopped and reversed. I for one will stand against these vile people.
- Jackie Hi.
The more I hear, the more worried I get.
I can imagine a future like the handmaidens tale where all we appreciate is breeding stock and when we are beyond breeding age then there will be no more need for us. It makes me so sad for our future generations. This has to stop now!
- Bryony I hope you will take this issue of violence against women, disguised as a civil rights movement, seriously. You have a responsibility to take seriously the safety of women and girls and to not collude with a dangerous unscientific and increasingly powerful cult.
- Sarah Women's rights are at threat. Children's lives are in danger. All our children! This is no time to be complacent!!!
- David Women and their allies are routinely the subject of abuse and harassment just for speaking up, yet those who target women and girls with violent rhetoric so often go unpunished. There is a war being waged against the female sex and the government increasingly seems unprepared to act on this.
- matthew STOP!
- Shirley I believe that sex matters in order to ensure Women's safety. And I don't want to ever be persecuted for this entirely honest and straightforward belief...Thank you.
- Sarah C H This issue has become a political hot potato but no one, least if all politicians, should be afraid to explore the issues.
Sacrificing your brains on the altar of woke opinion needs to end.
- Victoria Women all over are being intimidated by trans rights activists, threatened with violence. In a time where charities and the media are doing all they can do highlight the dangers women face from men on a daily basis, women's sex based rights need to be protected in the face of the TR movement.

- Andrea Hello Rishi. I am a trans woman, i.e. biologically male.
I am deeply concerned by the treatment suffered by gender critical women, and I wholeheartedly support their beliefs and arguments.
I am free to live my life how I choose. I do not, however, need to trample over the rights of women to do so
- Suzanne “Transactivists” generally are men. Whatever they call themselves, look like or medicate themselves with, they have had years of being male. The behaviour seen on the video is offensively masculine.
- Betsy Author of Battered Women’s Directory, anti- violence activist.
- Chris Women matter.
- Ann Women need to feel safe from male violence.
- Susannah Thank you for the work you are doing.
- Lucy Sex Matters.
- Gera Why are women being treated as non-citizens. Trans activists are intent on erasing our identity.
- Madeleine Women’s civil rights are non-negotiable.
I am a single issue voter, such is the importance of this issue for me and my family.
Threats of violence should not be tolerated and a strong message must be sent from UKG that threats will not be tolerated.
- Janet Gender critical women are subjected to significant levels of harassment and Susan discrimination which at worst can lead to loss of their job and even arrest by police who no longer police without fear or favour. Their meetings are shut down or venues cancelled. This needs to be addressed.
- Renate This is beyond criminal! He should be in jail for life!
- Jane I’m a former CAMHS clinician and psychotherapist. The acceptance of gender ideology into the NHS, public sector organisations, universities and corporations has happened by attaching itself to progressive social justice organisations and those who resist it are attacked and intimidated into silence.
- Serena I am horrified to come to the realisation that women are not valued and have been demoted to second class citizens since the unscientific gender ideology has taken hold in the uk.

I recall much sexism in the 1980s but the blatant misogyny of today's world in 2023 is much more sinister.

AILEEN Excellent work! You speak for the majority of decent people in this country.

Alison I would urge all decision makers to read widely on this subject and not be swayed by fear of not being 'woke' - sex-based rights have been hard won.

AnneMaria Equality and fairness for everyone is not a zero sum game. Everyone wins.

Tracey Gender critical women are not TERFs. It's a ridiculous label. It is a fact that there are two sexes; male and female. No one should be bullied or intimidated for stating facts. I am very worried about the intimidation of women for wanting single sex spaces and single sex sports.

Jan I am lost for words as to how and why we are in this situation. We have sleep walked into where evil people dictate the agenda and narrative. Women need to wake up as we are being erased. I despair.

Natalia Keep up the great work you're doing!

Margaret What Alan Baker meant..."If you see a WOMAN, punch them in the fucking face!"
I am a WOMAN. Alan Baker would class me as a "TERF" because i am gender critical.
I'm not laughing.
Are you Prime Minister? Do you find this "joke" funny?

Daniela Transactivists are abusers who often harass and beat women for speaking up. This abuse must stop!

Wendy I remember when women were treated as human beings in this country. Now we're just cattle. This is unacceptable. Where is the justice for women? Please commit to upholding our rights as a sex class.

Keith You can't gainsay a Y chromosome.

Laura Trans activism is a men's rights movement in increasingly shabby disguise. Please defend women's rights against institutional misogyny.

Abigail Even if it was appropriate to physically attack someone which it is not, how does one even go about identifying a 'terf' to assault? It seems it is just the perception of the aggressor thus leaving all women at risk and an excuse for others to attack them. The law must protect all.

Sandra Appalled at the words spoken by this individual and also with the verdict.

- Rachel Absolutely horrified that a judge can describe that as a joke? A joke? Since when has punching a woman in the face been described as a joke. Absolutely shocking
- Ruth Being a woman is not a feeling or an identity. Being a woman is biological fact, and our biology is the cause of our oppression.
- Susan Women's rights and safety must be protected from highly aggressive male trans activists who are hell bent on silencing us.
- David Urgent action required.
- Charlotte There are certain situations where an individual's genetic sex has to be used and a transgender person has to be able to accept this, using reasoned arguments. The hate that certain transgender individuals have expressed especially in a violent way cannot be acceptable/ignored.
- Emma As a white woman I feel like this country, and particularly Rishi Sunak are doing all they can to erase us.
- Grace Disgraceful that a Trans Identifying man can assault a female in public, the assault was videoed and police were in attendance, and not face prosecution . Only received a caution
- Judith Please don't send us women down the river.
- Jennifer Woman
- Karen I was hesitant to sign this until I saw my name would not be made public as that is how much intimidation I feel by speaking out on this issue. That surely says it all.
- Ray It's time to put an end to this nonsense.
- Colin Police! Do your job and stop this crime against women.
- Paul The woke penchant for censorship and self justified political violence is destroying free speech and political discourse.
- Carol Women and girls require Westminster to act on this. In Scotland Women's rights are being trampled by the Scottish Government.
- Trisha Stop stalling and support women. Now.
- Caroline As a father of daughters you must surely care that it seems to be alright for men to threaten women and invade their spaces whilst if a woman should dare to call them men, as they actually are, the punishments range from trolling, cancelling to rape and death threats...

Stop this nonsense!!!

- Susan Women are being threatened, abused ,their rights removed and airbrushed out of existence.
Impose the law.
- Karen The vicious campaign against women, girls, LGB, by transactivists who call all defenders of women's/girls'/LGB rights, safeguarding, privacy, dignity, sexual orientation, and fair sports, "Terfs" has to stop. Full stop.
- Wayne TERf is a nasty and mean spirited term that positions ordinary women as monsters, while those that use it along with their fists are portrayed as angels. It's time to shine the light...
- Aliz Things are getting out of hands when it comes to gender critical women. I hope we can have the urgently needed guarantee from the government!!
- Suzanne It shouldn't be a crime to want to protect children and vulnerable woman from autogynephilic misogynists. Please save our sex based private spaces & protect our kids from trans cult indoctrination
- Kathryn I am happy to have my name published.
- Anne Life is becoming very difficult for many women now because of this extreme trans rights activism. We often hear about 'both sides' being as bad as each other. This is totally untrue: we never behave like the extremists do. I urge you to take a strong stance on this. Votes are at stake.
- Di Wrong just wrong
- Jennifer We all came from woman and they must be upheld in their own right
- Caroline Unbelievably vile, why would anyone say such stupid things.
- Marianne This is disturbing & disgusting. I'm signing for me, my mum, my sister, my daughters & all my many women friends.
- Susan If a non trans male e.g. my own son suggested 'punch a woman in the face ' there would be an outcry & the defence of 'it was a joke' would not be accepted
This is selective judiciary
In light of the Sara Everard case, how is this behaviour by trans biological males suddenly acceptable?

- Nenagh It's like living within a Margaret Atwood novel!!!! Absolutely madness!
- Clare It is essential that definition of girl and woman is based on biological sex (not psychological gender identity) and that this is the definition written into law. Unless this distinction is made it is not possible to protect the rights of actual women and girls. Protection must be targeted
- Eleanor This situation of abuse and cancellation of women has to stop!
- Jenny Thank you all for taking this initiative and for standing up for the truth.
- Linda Stop the hatred of women and girls. You owe your lives to us
- Melanie Women already remain at substantial risk from violent crimes usually perpetrated by men, the idea that anyone in a public forum can urge even more violence against us and do so with impunity is an absolute disgrace.
- Richard I wish that politicians would have the 'backbone' to stand up and admit that men cannot become women and that women cannot become men. A simple fact; why can they not come out and say it?
- Penny Human beings cannot change sex and people who say that should not be subject to abuse. People can change their gender - adopt behaviours etc associated with the opposite sex - and that is fine by me.
- Karen Why are the prosecutors prosecuting those who pray silently and do no one any harm , yet allowing those who actually not only express vitriol but work themselves and others up into a frenzy of active hatred which intends physical harm allowed to continue unchallenged?
And the rule of law?
- Alice We just want equality. This means that women have as much right to the words related to females, such as mother, as men have the right to words such as father. We want to be able to express our opinions without being harassed by angry men or indeed the police. We want to be free to gather as women...
- Hazel Biological sex matters.
A man can not just become female.
Privacy, modesty, safety - three reasons why women's spaces have to be biological women ONLY
- Marilyn Thank you for standing up for women. I was born a woman. A female. A man burn a man is and will never be a woman or a female. There are 2 genders. Male and female.

I'm not prejudiced against men. I love my husband son and 2 grandsons and granddaughter. I want them to know this.

- Elizabeth Why are women being neglected and progressively made to feel like second class citizens in their own skin?
Violence peddling Transgender activists MUST be stopped and punished- just like real women would be if they promoted violence towards Transgenders!
Wake up before it's too late.
- Kat What is happening to women is absolutely disgraceful...a biological man will NEVER be a woman
- terri Thank you for your service. You are doing something really important.
- Kathryn I have had my business targeted for holding personal gender critical views. That view being that biology matters. As such, I find it terrifying what is happening to women's rights under the grip of gender ideology and trans rights activism.
- Alice It is outrageous that UK women are being visited and arrested by police for exercising their right to free speech on any subject, including in support of women's sex-based rights, yet police are not enforcing the law against men who make violent threats against women for their views.
- Linda This is a real threat against woman of every age, I worry for the younger generation been brought up in a society where such things as the above are celebrated, the police do not make me feel safe anymore, and before this cult movement of trans, I would have always felt safe
- Rachel Women's rights trump all the other current gender identity ideology. This is important stop women being silenced, afraid to speak up concerned they may lose their jobs & girls at school & in sports being silenced.
- Sarah This misogyny has to end.
- Joan The rapidly emerging threat of men laying claim to being women must be faced and challenged by the government.
If this support for women and children is not forthcoming, then it will be the greatest betrayal of truth and justice, further pushing the expanse of misogyny.
- Alison Interesting that these trans women activists are behaving in a very masculine way. Men telling women how to think? Well it was ever thus ... but not on my watch.
- Kate The capture of major institutions like the police is making women feel increasingly unsafe. In Scotland women can be assaulted and the perpetrators let off due to police 'discretion' while name calling towards certain minorities leads to prosecution. Some balance must be restored urgently.

- Sarah I fully support this campaign , I was dismayed at the police's initial inaction and the judge's comments , this normalises violence and threats of violence towards women, which is never acceptable .
- Sally Women have lost faith in the police. The police need to make a stand against the aggression aimed at us by trans activists
- Pam I have always fought against all types of misogyny and I have been educating women I know about the trans cult and incels because many women have no idea this is happening. We must educate and fight.
- Vanessa Protect sex based rights.
- Claire Unbelievable that this is not a clear cut case or incite to violence... how clearer could this person have made his intentions?
- Christine Women's rights are human rights.
- Gillian Woman = Adult Human Female
Stop the threats to Women's rights, safety and identity.
- Linda I support safe spaces for women, keep women's spaces single sex!
- Dawn Women's rights were hard won and need to be protected - I am woman hear me roar!
- Geraldine I want to be able to say women are women and are different to men without being threatened with violence
- Hanna I refuse to allow men to define what a woman is. I've been a lifetime leftist but this movement is extremely regressive and sexist. Women are adult human females. I refuse to be reduced to my (sexed) body parts. I am not a birthing person, menstruator or body with a vagina. I am a woman. I am human
- Susan This is not what the suffragettes fought for. Women,,who make up more than 50% of the population, deserve better than this.
- M People should not be threatened, attacked, or cancelled just because of their point of view that isn't even offensive because it's fact and the truth.
- Maz If the courts allow written or verbal threats to kill or threats of violence towards women to go unchallenged or unpunished, then there is no justice for women at all in our society.

Freedom of speech, thought or beliefs are enshrined in law and belong to the whole of society not one group.

Christina Why is this violence against women allowed? It must not be permitted to continue.

Women's rights matter. Women's choices matter. Women's sports matter.

Jennifer Thank you thank you

Julie Thankyou. Been on the ground fighting (not physically of course) this. Had rotten eggs thrown at me at 2022 LGB Conference. Was contacted by Victims Support but when read their ? Website was too fearful of contacting this organisation as I realised I could not rely on being offered a woman

Alexandra I am utterly disheartened by just how gullible and divorced from reality the judge in this case was. That's the kindest thing I can say about him. However, the cynic in me feels the judge really just thought it didn't matter. So sending out a clear message to misogynist men - it's open season.

L It's disgraceful how (men's) feelings matter more than (women's) safety.

janet The campaign of hate and intimidation against women who stand up for women's rights is beyond a joke.

Jacqueline You have two daughters Mr Sunak. Do you want them to grow up in a world where women's safety is disregarded for the sake of the feelings of entitled men? I have never voted conservative in my life but this issue has made me a single issue voter - whichever party will protect women will get my vote.

Natalie It is appalling how these men can get away with making violent threats against women.

James
Richard It's about time all Devolved Governments and Westminster ended the re-writing of our laws and acts via Lobby Groups - the damage it's doing to our women and girls is setting us on a course of "Where Next, Who's Next?" It's time the adults also took over and sensibilities returned.

C Please end the intimidation we are only asking to keep our spaces and to not be shouted down by men.

Ivana Keep on fighting

Jane If women's rights are not respected & upheld in law, then in my view, the UK is no better than any 3rd world country in its treatment of women & girls. Destroying our hard fought for sex based rights is not progressive, it's positively regressive. To quote Lord Winston, "no human can change sex".

- Jermaine We must band together and put a stop to violence against women because it is wrong cruel and unacceptable and this needs to be stopped once and for all .
- Amanda I am outraged! A man inciting a crowd to be violent towards women gets away with it because he only wanted to be a 'news' story in the Daily Mail. WTF?
Thank you to all the Sex Matters team. Thank everything sensible in this world for all the work you are doing to make politicians grow the hell up!
- Caroline Men claiming performing femininity defines being a woman is even more sexist than the classic "women who won't adhere to gender roles are unnatural and sinful"
- Michael Please take positive action to protect women from the trans activist hate campaign and give them legal rights against hate crime that other sections of society enjoy. Make misogyny an aggravated hate crime too.
- Mel For centuries we've fought for standing, equality, intellectual independence and body autonomy. Violence against women and children is NEVER acceptable. Biological women cannot allowed to be usurped of the gains made to be safe, recognised and treated with respect and protected from threat.
- Alexander Enough! This is an outrage.
Our Justice system needs to learn and know that open threats of violence against women are intolerable.
'Joking' about it is NOT a defence.
Not when it comes from the mouth of a convicted criminal.....Words fail.
Enough.
- Brad This hate crime should be eradicated now
- Mol It's undeniable that extremists are being given freedom to verbally threaten, intimidate and in some cases physically attack women.
The government must no longer remain passive.
- C It's frightening
- Susanne When I travel the UK I would like to be safe when I meet other women.
- Cynthia As usual, Sex Matters says it better than I could.
- S Women are being bullied and harassed to believe lies as a means of control. A small minority of men are trying to cancel out women only spaces that have been created for safety reasons. We are cancelled if we dare to question the reality of changing sex. We are no longer allowed to have our own truth.

- Bev Keep up the good work!
The threats against women's rights must be stopped.
- Raymond It's time for action, either amending existing law to make this a specific criminal offence, or directing the police to act within the current laws regarding threatening behaviour, conduct likely to cause a breach of the peace, incitement etc
- R There is an air of intimidation and humiliation of people who stand up for women. The situation feels like fascism and oppression and it prevents people speaking their minds freely.
- Margaret Member of Standing for Women
- delia this is not acceptable!
- J Stop this madness. Someone has to say the emperor has no clothes
- Jean Why are the Government letting down real women?
- Nel We shouldn't be hounded for stating facts
- Stephen Freedom of speech is the cornerstone of democracy regardless is some don't like what is said
- Adrian Fully support this
- Fran We, women, do need our space. Trans women need their space too.
- Jewant Women born female at birth are under threat. We want to protect our rights we fought so hard for over a hundred years ago. The rights of others should not be at our expense. Stop violence against women!
- Emma Protect women and girls.
- Jacqui Did you notice that everyone this letter is going to is male (you know the kind of male I mean, the one with a Y chromosome).
- Carole As a real woman born in the fifties who campaigned and fought for the equality of women in our society I am increasingly becoming alarmed at how my sex is once again being marginalized, how issues that affect our safety are been ignored all because of a small minority of sexually confused men!

- K Let us remember how the Nazis started their campaign against Jews in the 1930s - it was also with some people encouraging violence against them, and the majority of the population not taking it serious.
- Suzanne Total unacceptable to allow hate crimes to happen right in front of the police and they do nothing. Women have the right to protect their rights as does the trans community. They should be free to do so without fear and threats and sometimes violent.
- Cat What in the hell is wrong with politicians and police not protecting women. This insanity needs to stop now. Sunak is a moron for not standing up for women. We have enough to deal with. How would they like it if it's their mothers or daughters?
- Ailsa Which other group in society would they be allowed to talk/write about like that in public? Women and children need to be protected from this kind of violence and non-scientific ideology.
- A Thank you
- Jan What can I say that hasn't been said before? The world has gone completely bonkers.
- Judith The police should protect women when they are abused like this, we have rights as well as the trans.
- L I have seen this behaviour from transactivists first hand. This is Male violence against women. It must stop.
- Jill I am increasingly alarmed by how women are being persecuted for stating reality. Thank you for standing up for us.
- Janet I cannot believe that in the 50 years since I was a working class teenager in a discriminatory, hostile and dangerous place for young women and 50 years since the sex equality act that my teenage daughter is in an environment now that rivals this and is in many instances worse than the 70's.
- Gwen Our government, opposition parties and police should be ashamed of what they are allowing to happen to women. I believe in live and let live but things are getting out of control and there is no law and order, not just on this subject but on any good British values and standards.
- Bridget On all levels of discussion it has been unpleasant.
It has forced me to recognise, again, how little thought the majority give to issues that affect them.
It has been like talking with the tabloid headlines last few years.

- Marina I'm 60 and feel that women's rights - hard won over the last century - are slowly but surely being diluted.
- Jenna The spiritually sick makes of this world need serious healing. Vulnerable women get treated like objects to fulfil their weak urges, and need for dominance and power.
- E Women and girls should be able to express their protected beliefs on sex based rights without the fear of angry, dangerous men threatening violence against them AND encouraging others to do the same. We are so sick of this!!
- Kath Women and men who believe in science deserve equal rights under the law and that includes the right to feel safe from violence and intimidation. The UK Government must take urgent action to require the police to protect women from violence and intimidation instigated by the trans movement.
- I STOP ALLOWING MEN ACCESS TO WOMENS SPACES !!!
- Leslie I stood against Rishi Sunak as the Green candidate in his first election in 2015.I ask him to recall his promise to be a principled politician and support this call to defend women's rights.
- Steven Safeguarding is there for a reason. As a man, although I have no history of violence towards women I understand that because others do have that history is the reason we have female only spaces in society.
- Gillian A woman is an adult human female. Men who think they are women must be kept out of our private, safe places, awards, sports, etc., for our safety.
- Ali As an expert in the field of male violence against women and girls I can see how far we have come in ending this. However, to allow this unfettered attack on women in the name of gender ideology and trans rights is a huge step back and a real threat to the safety of women and girls.
- d Sex does matter.
- Ali As a local women's rights group that has personal experience of the threats of violence, abuse and intimidation, we believe something has to be done to stop this from escalating. This is a new wave of violence done through the name of trans rights.
- C I am an autistic woman with autistic children. In specific an autistic daughter who is extremely vulnerable and susceptible to unwarranted abuse already. Biological sex matters!
- Steve This madness HAS to stop.

Roz	Who in their right mind could possibly criticise this group?! Wake up! Sex matters hugely!
Teresa	This is blatant misogyny and must be treated as a criminal offence when it occurs
Sandra	Attacking women for saying that 6' 4" male swimmers should not compete against biological female swimmers is not a crime! Is not anti trans. It is just fair.
Mel	The ongoing escalation in violence and intimidation towards women who are standing up for women's rights is not a 'joke' to be brushed aside and ignored.
Nichola	Signing for myself but mainly to ensure that my daughters have the right to grow up safe with her rights protected in law! My daughter has just started college and whilst she is petrified of males identifying into her toilets and changing rooms, she is more scared of receiving abuse for saying "NO."
Jackie	It is a crime against woman and there right to free speech. There are and will only ever be 2 Genders Male & Female. This Government is lost ,PC has gone crazy to much emphasises put on a minority group what about the rights of women born woman ???
Carol	Good luck!
Aileen	Thank you to the brave women who campaign and work tirelessly for all women and girls.
sarah	Protect the most vulnerable in our communities
Sandra	This trans person's aggression is solely about control and power and absolutely nothing to do with trans women's rights
Susan	Women need safe spaces and the government need to uphold the law to stop men identifying as women to invade them and get stonewall out of schools
Duval	Unfortunately the judicial system has proven themselves to have been captured by the trans movement.
Tanya	Why are you so afraid of stating the truth, that humans can not change sex only how they present. Are you men or mice?
Daphne	i do not find the comment - "If you see a TERF, punch them in the fucking face!" at all amusing, this has just gone too far
Kerry	It's about time you started protecting women and children from all this violence, harassment and intimidation.

- R J The abuse of women defending their hard won sex based rights has to stop. If we were any other group being persecuted in this way, the abusers would be brought to justice. Women deserve and demand to be protected from incitement to violence and verbal abuse.
- Hana There's been an alarming regression back towards a 'she had it coming' attitude to violence against women. Many female voters are taking careful note of those parties remaining silent and inept.
- Chris We have to take action against this ideology - it has no scientific basis and it is damaging the hard fought rights that everyone in our country should enjoy. To see this happening under a conservative government is lamentable.
Women are adult human females - not cis, just women.
- Sarah I am very tired of feeling intimidated into not sharing my views. We have to be able to have open debate about topics that affect all of us, and particularly affect our young, our future. All members of society, not just the current flavour of the month, should enjoy the protection of the law.
- Gemma This is an extremely pressing matter. All the women I talk to feel the safe but are afraid to speak up in case of repercussions or fear or losing their job.
- Louise Changing a name or one's clothes to 'identify as a woman' does not change that person's sex.
Nothing can.
It doesn't stop the individual from living their life the way they choose. It does not mean that women can be disadvantaged, hurt or threatened in any way to make this happen.
- jJnet Being gender critical and believing in science does not equal being transphobic. My rights, beliefs and feelings are just as important, no more, no less, than those of trans activists. The difference is that I treat them with politeness, despite disagreeing. Inciting violence is never OK.
- Irena On behalf of the Older Feminist Network
- I As a solicitor I am particularly appalled by the failures of the legal system to bring to justice those who incite violence against women.
- Owen Peter I despair that in a civilised democratic society we have become dictated to by small minorities in so many aspects of our lives. I have nothing against people who feel that they were born in the wrong body. I have great sympathy with their situation, but can't justify changing our laws and language.

- Linda Keep up the good work God is on our side. The light the love and all things honest are too x
- Clair This Maoist nonsense needs to end. We are either a democracy or we are not
- Jacci If the powers that be do not stand up and defend the law of the land, then they are complicit in the breaking of that law. Their crime is actually worse than the perpetrators of incitement to violence, as the Nazi violence against Jews has already demonstrated.
- Jill I'm a parent of an ROGD, now adult child who's been captured by this insidious ideology: I saw first hand how vicious, trans activists are and how our NHS has been infiltrated by said trans activists and lobby groups, who overturned any notion of 'first do no harm'. I'm proud to sign this letter.
- Jane I have never, in my lifetime, witnessed such bare faced dislike, disrespect & genuine hatred of women as has been unleashed in the name of Gender Identity and Trans Rights. What I've seen has destroyed any naive ideas I once had about Feminism & women achieving equality. For Shame.
- Teresa I cannot actually believe I'm having to sign a petition like this but here I am.
- J These violent perverts need to be held to account for their actions, not emboldened by a legal system that is in thrall to "self-identification" - such a flimsy concept.
- Kim men out of women's toilets!
At a recent trans pride event, a woman in a wheelchair had a placard which read- "I'd rather share a bathroom with a Trans person than a TERF!!"
- Brian Shouldn't even have to be said or need a letter to demand it.
- Thomas I totally condemn the violence, threats and intimidation of gender-critical women. It is disgraceful that women aren't treated as equals in society, and under the law of the land.
How are women meant to feel safe today when they can't be treated as equals and given the same rights.
- Kate Northumberland ReSisters thank you Sex-matters
- Jan I totally agree with everything this letter so clearly states. It is the job of the State and those who represent it to defend the women of this land from this growing endemic hate crime against women.
- Caroline This kind of abuse abuse hurts all women, including Trans women as well as society as a whole. Please don't mistake it for concern about a minority group.

Karen	I thought our country was better than this.
Mary	Incitement to violence against women must be stopped.
Theo	Mr. Prime Minister, stand up for women & against a men's sexual rights movement. Let the UK be the first country in the world to fight back against this movement which is destroying the lives of vulnerable children, adolescents, and young adults, is homophobic, and misogynist.
H	Please make it stop.
Therese	Women and girls make up 51% of the UK population but their hard-won rights are being destroyed by men's rights activists - please help put a stop to this.
Sarah	It's really disappointing that the police did nothing about the aggressive tactics used by some of the TRA's. Women are asking for safe spaces without fear of male violence and aggression, why are they not being taken seriously and why are the police allowing aggressive threats to go unpunished?
Denise	Mother, daughter, sister, wife. Concerned for the safety of women and protecting women and girls rights in law.
Peter	Violence against women for their reasonable belief in the biological reality of sex is unacceptable in a supposedly democratic society. It's well past the time for authorities to act!
Nancy	This madness must stop.
D	Women are not a feeling, or something a man can wear like a costume. We are real, we are human beings, we have rights under law and yet we are being treated appallingly.
Stewart	This misogyny has been going on too long.
Sue	I fully support the contents of this letter. The erosion of women's rights, from the right to fair participation in sport to the right to safety in places which should offer sanctuary to vulnerable women such as women's refuges is a deplorable and regressive development.
Sharmani	The UK government appears to actively endorse misogyny. Never did I imagine in my wildest nightmares that the UK would become once again an unsafe place for women and girls. By supporting violent transactivists, this government, courts and Police show that they are pro violence against women.

- M What I have been watching for the last six years has blown my mind, and changed who I am, nobody has cared about it. Trans activism is misogyny in action. Women matter.
- Peter As a gay male, formerly on my teaching Union's LGBTI Committee and the TUC's LGBT+ Committee, I have witnessed intimidation of anyone who dares to question the Transgender narrative.
Women have been persecuted for too long, they have human rights and so this violence against them has to stop NOW.
- Hilary #PatriarchyIncarnate is pernicious - and that is what this horrible behaviour represents. It's dangerous and it must be a serious priority of government to bring it to a stop.
- Lisa Men who 'change sex' to become women in the UK should do so under rigorous conditions of psychological suitability and full surgical and hormonal transition. Otherwise they are not women, they are trans women which ought to be a separate legal category.
- Cheryl I support Sex Matters so of course I am more than happy to sign. I sincerely hope this has an impact, it's past time and needs to be addressed seriously.
- Terri Male violence is still male violence even if he is wearing a dress.
- Sharon Extremist TRAs should be treated like the domestic terrorists that they are. Biased policing and biased judges need to be dealt with and LGBT groups should be giving training courses to public servants which misrepresents the law and encourages magical thinking and discrimination against women.
- Lorren We must stop this erosion of women's rights.
- Anthony The double standards are insane. Mild jokes or mere opinions lead to police action over tweets. Threats of violence? Nothing.
- S Male violence against women is beyond a effing joke.
- S P Thanks for doing this
- James Women are now in danger of becoming THIRD CLASS CITIZENS - after men (... plus ca change!) and now, men who "feel they are women". Our female family members and friends must be protected and their equality realised.
- J Trans-activists are volatile and frequently violent. We can't tolerate further incitement <http://terfisaslur.com>
- Jean Nothing more violent than a man angry with a woman who won't do as he tells her.

- Sally Totally support this campaign to preserve women's rights, safety and equality which is being eroded and we being vilified.
- angela Let's not go back 100 years please.
- Carol Biology has established there are only two sexes. Please do not force the lie that we can change sex on society. We retain XX or XY genes regardless of surgery. Please protect our children, all women and all who hold gender critical beliefs. Women are relying on you before the next election.
- DIANA This disgusting nonsense needs to stop and the police and courts need to get a grip as this is blatant discrimination against women who dare to called themselves women.
- N I fear for the future of my granddaughters. This level of hatred & violence would rightly not be tolerated against any other group in society. Why is it allowed against women? Shame on you men who have the power to change this but choose to do nothing.
- Stacey Been a feminist all my long adult life. Now having to defend hard won and essential women's rights again. Trans activism threatens women, lesbians and gay men, and most worryingly, children and young people's lives.
- Emma Thank you for standing for women !
- Helen Good luck to you... I think what's going on with trans rights is very scary
- Tony I don't condemn people who identify as trans providing they make this choice as an adult. I tend to consider many as victims. However those that think men can become woman and therefore have unfettered access to women only areas are wrong as are those who call lesbians transphobic.
- Michael The ability to engage with views that oppose your own is being lost. The "them vs us" needs to stop, and open dialogue, debate and discussion encouraged. No one should have violence threatened against them based on their opinions, no matter how strongly you disagree
- Caroline Today an individual can exhort the public to punch a TERF in the face – and a magistrate will agree that such violent language constitutes a joke. That makes the world more dangerous for women – and is intended to – in this, the third decade of the twenty-first century. Prime Minster, please act!
- Pat This has to stop, women also have rights.
- H This deliberate intimidation and psychological abuse of women and girls, has no place in a civilised society. No matter if you are a believer in this political ideology or not.

- Elaine Violence against women is escalating. Between 2 to 3 women a week in the U.K are killed at the hands of their partner. This has to stop now.
- J Women (humans with XX chromosomes) are a sex-based category of humans who are losing long fought-for rights, to including but not limited, safe spaces, health, language, education, career and sporting opportunities. Stop sacrificing us. Stop hate against women.
- Sybil This is also for my daughter and granddaughters
- Sonia Protect women at all costs from violent males.
- Anna I would like the government to step up and take swift action to deal with the violent threats women are increasingly receiving from trans gender extremists. It must be condemned and stopped.
- Sheila Gender critical women are persecuted despite the fact that the law states their views are legal and they have a protected characteristic. We need the courts to send a strong message to men who claim to be women that they should respect the rights of biological women to challenge the trans ideology.
- Kathryn It is not equality to use violence and intimidation to shut up women who are gender critical.
We are not abusing trans women, we just honestly believe them to be men.
- Helen I am so tired of the constant need to be on my guard in case I say something 'wrong' and risk my job, whilst this person stands up in public and makes threats of violence against women with no action taken. Biology has not changed and I refuse to buy in to the delusion.
- MARIA Please support women against threats of violence and intimidation
- Francesca Women defending their hard-fought, sex-based rights should never be threatened with their lives and livelihoods.
- Sharyl Amazing how taking a photo of a sticker is deemed a hate crime, yet inciting violence against predominantly women isn't. And a captured magistrate to boot. Baker needs to stay in jail. He may only be verbalising his violent intent at present, he will snap and take it further at some point.
- J Dear Government - stop assisting these people to brainwash a generation and set women's rights back 50 years. Do something positive for a change and support women's rights (sex based) and stop the hate and bile from these extremists.

Lily	Protect women's rights and single-sex spaces! End the horrific male violence against women and girls! Create a 'justice' system that actually CARES about and PROTECTS women and girls, from police to judicial system through to incarcerated women.
Carol	Adult human females exist
Paul	For her tireless work in fighting for the rights of women and children she deserves to be raised to the House of Lords to give her a bigger platform. This despite all the ignorant insults and abuse she receives.
Shannon	Men are not women, and aa a Californian, incitement to violence is the line for speech! Shame on UK authorities!
zara suzanne	i personally support trans people, and those i know do not support tras ("trans rights activists")- neither do i. tras seem to be about dividing the lgbt community, instead of everyone uniting. they claim to want to be women, yet call for violence against women-misogyny in a dress. it's dangerous.
Pj	It's a disgrace that men, sex offenders to boot, can incite hatred towards women in this way. It would not be tolerated against any other members of the public such as Muslim, Black or disabled people, but a tiny minority of men is allowed to incite violence towards the female half of the population
Sally	Please act to protect women and the right to free speech without the fear of violence and intimidation. Enough is enough.
Susanne	A joke? I rather think the judge made a joke by believing this!
Dawn	It speaks volumes that this is still being allowed to go on. One might almost think that women don't matter! Many men think it's funny.
Kate	we are doing the best we can but: 1. the police should apply the law equally 2. pass legislation to clarify what the definition of "sex" is under the Equalities Act, you made the problem by at best poor drafting at worst being partial and discriminatory and therefore you need to remedy the problem
Cherry	This is not a fringe issue. The campaign of dehumanisation, suppression and intimidation of women has already succeeded in silencing most of those who would speak up for their rights and opportunities. Don't mistake our coerced silence for consent.

- C I am scared to open my mouth on this issue in public for fear of aggression. I am 78 year old and never imagined that women's rights would become threatened in this way in a democracy
- Sheila Inciting violence to any group is a crime.
- Brenda This is a joke, but taking a photo of a sticker is a crime?
- Nikki I find it abhorrent that in 21st century Britain, women are being threatened and abused all in the name of "being kind" to & by men! This behaviour has no right to exist in a democracy and I sincerely hope that women & men who respect biological sex stand up against an ridiculous ideology
- T It amazes me that the police have arrested and harassed so many women just for having gender critical views, yet TRA's can incite violence with impunity.
- Chris Biological women (I prefer to say ladies) are real ladies and this is a lifelong situation. By all means transgender, either way, but please do not 'ram it down my throat'.....I am fed up being told a man is a woman and a woman is a man!!!
- Lorraine I am glad a stand is being made. Naturally born women are becoming excluding and those wishing to become women are inciting hatred. We have for too long had to fight for rights only to see them eroded by minority groups with far too much sway.
- Amanda Those that are gender critical have the right to not be threatened with physical violence, experience it, or intimation. This has gone too far, and we need it to stop.
- Michael Males self-identifying as women seem to be unable to restrain their masculine misogyny so the law needs to.
- SHONA Protect the FEMALES of our SEX
- Helen I feel very strongly that we have entered a very dangerous and illiberal period of extreme misogyny. I'm ashamed of the way corporations, public bodies, including NHS Trusts, government offices and media are facilitating this misogyny in the name of 'inclusion'.
- A As a woman &a lesbian I feel let down & betrayed by the mayor of London; as P.M, Please do not also betray the women of Britain. We have a suffragette history to be proud of, don't sacrifice that. Men are not & never will be a sub-class of women, it is not prejudice or hate to say that.
- Daniel I wholeheartedly support this letter regardless of whether or not I agree with 'TERF' criticisms of trans ideology. The only way to respond to arguments you don't like is with counter arguments, not with intimidation, threats and violence etc. Women must be allowed to speak and be heard without fear

- Victoria I never thought I would see the UK what it has become. Women who hold legally protected beliefs are routinely harassed and intimidated and sometimes are attacked or have to their property vandalised. I am rapidly losing all faith in public institutions to protect us.
- Rosie In the face of hate speech and attacks, women need the support of the government, organisations and people. The Trans lobby has become violent and terrifying and women need protection. Please stand up to the bullies.
- Teresa Only women are women.
- L Thank you for your bravery in speaking out. You are doing a fantastic job.
- R This is such an important issue, especially women and girls. The Activist message is homophobic and anti-women, and the threat of violence and “cancellation” for anyone who stands up to them is extremely worrying in a democratic society that values freedom of thought and expression.
- Trish Women have always been an afterthought on the political agenda, and as long as men(especially those in a dress and bad wig) are able to threaten women without consequence, then politicians paying lip service to end violence against women is a joke!
- M Human beings cannot change sex. I am shocked at the conspiracy of pretence, that men can be women, consistently engaged in by journalists, politicians (particularly Labour and LibDem), feminists, the NHS and the medical profession and educators – they are careerist cowards, the lot of them.
- Sally Disgraceful that such a small minority (it does not represent all trans people) could hold so much sway in academic, private and public organisations. Biological women’s rights must be upheld.
- Jeff A society that will not protect women and children has no right to call itself civilised
- Nuala Like many people I am losing confidence in the police. The interpretation of legislation by some police officers is difficult to comprehend and repeatedly we see examples of individuals being arrested when no crime has been committed, yet men with a known criminal history of violence are left free.
- Paul Let’s take a step back into reality, where safeguards are respected and upheld.

- gabrielle Just joking- was he joking when he attacked his victim all those years ago?
Did his victim find it funny?
- HMF We need this protection, we need it now. I fear for my young female relatives and their futures.
- Carol Substitute 'Terf' for any other way of referring to any other group of people (eg 'trans') and the police would have recognised it was based on discrimination and hate.
- Katie Imagine if someone had stood in a public sphere and said 'punch gays in the face' or another group that faces oppression and violence. There would be consequences and women deserve protection from this violent rhetoric. Disturbing a judge accepted Baker's 'it was just a joke love' type defence.
- Poppy The aggressive speech used against women these days and the threat of male violence is quite scary. Mainly because there seems to be no consequences. Open season on women trying to hold onto our hard win rights.
- Michael We need our lgb back not this nonsense to+
- Lisa Women who stand for the protection of transgender people in employment, housing, and other forms of discrimination are called Nazis. Could you help us wrap our head around that? What's really going on here?
- Michaela Please make it stop
- Margo Inciting violence in public is a CRIME!
- Sheila There was outrage when footage of Stephen Lawrence's killers discussing killing black people using racist language.
Why is it okay for violent criminals to use aggressive language inciting others to violence against women? Statistically, out will be men he is inviting to violence against women.
- Joanna Teacher
- J I'm an old woman, I'm doing this for future women and girls.
- JoyOt is time to stop It is past time to stop this mass delusion that men can become women & take our rights, our spaces, our sports and our prizes. All whilst belittling & threatening us & sacrificing the healthy future of gay children and young people to their need to publicly perform their fetish.
- E Keep men out of women's spaces

- Bonnie We all know this is a strategic part of a sinister agenda that society cannot withstand. It really is End of Days stuff. DO SOMETHING.
- LT It's completely outrageous that women are being treated like this in 2023.
- Ann Free speech and opinions must be allowed and we must continue to protest.
- Christopher Biological sex is real. Gender identity dysmorphia is a defined mental illness. It must be treated as such.
- Monica For such a violent man to be allowed to threaten women in public with impunity cannot stand.
- C I'm so tired of violence and threats against women being seen as progressive.
- Alison I wholeheartedly support this campaign and urge you to listen and act.
- Claire This campaign of misogyny and violence against women must be taken seriously and countered.
- Dawn This is a completely reasonable and well-evidenced statement. Who could object?
- Val I WILL FIGHT TO MY LAST BREATH TO STOP THE EROSION OF WOMENS RIGHTS. MY GRANDDAUGHTER WILL NOT BE A SECOND FLASS CITIZEN IN THIS WORLD.
- Julie Please help us stop men setting the agenda for women's lives. We are different but equal. And all autonomous beings.
- David Do Something!
- A This is such an important issue. Thank you for fighting this open misogyny.
- Jean good on you
- Emily I am sick to the back teeth of these vile men getting away with advocating for violence against women. It is high time something was done about any man that publicly or privately calls for violence towards women.
- Priscilla Please protect women and girls in the United Kingdom by keeping single sex spaces and prosecuting aggressors who are targeting women speaking out on this issue.
- Siobhan Thank you Sex Matters for all the work you do.
- Kay This is an appalling response from Magistrate Tan Ikram. Anyone can not threaten violence to intimidate - and then claim not to have meant it. The accused has a history of violence including time spent in jail. The institutions of society do not take women's safety seriously.

- Liz I applaud this campaign by Sex Matters to halt the encroaching limitations on gender critical females to defend their lawful protections and rights without fear of intimidation or violence.
- Lynn Women should not be forced to lose safe spaces and protection because a man in a dress calls himself a woman, give them their own loos and locker rooms, sports etc, why should they erode our rights
- E It's so important to protect women's hard-won rights.
- REBECCA This HAS to stop.
- A It is said that a nation is judged on how well they treat their women and children. Present society's high levels of violence, abuse, and intimidation against women do not reflect the admired, respectful value system of Britain. It can be fixed if good men and women speak up please do.
- S The next general election will be a single issue one for me. Any politician who will defend women gets my vote. It's that simple.
- S Women have lived in fear and suppression for long enough. We don't need people taking our rights backwards.
- Sandra The lack of action against those that abuse, harass, persecute and promote violence against women highlights the extreme misogyny prevalent in our society. Women and girls deserve better
- Kirstyn Extreme transactivism constitutes a violent and hateful campaign of harassment and intimidation against women, action needs to be taken to ensure the safety of women and girls- currently it's not safe to express your views, or to state biological facts for fear of physical and virtual attack.
- Charlotte By all means make my name public if it is at all useful
- Ivane In practical life, regardless of gender, people born with penises are the ones who physically or sexually hurt people born with vaginas in majority of cases, and that being the case, law must give priority to sex in matters of safety.
- Andrew Transgenderism might just be the most successful con ever played out on society. Men's rights activism in plain sight.

- Jeremy A woman is an adult human female and sex is immutable.
In common with many and probably most men, I want to support women in the protection of their safety, security, privacy, and private space.
- Brett I'm lgbtq and an advocate for my community, how hard generations before us, worked and sacrificed to fight homophobia and secure rights to safety and equality for lgbtq people. Sarah Baker is destroying that. She's using her gender identity as a cloak for her shocking life long violent criminality
- A Women need to be protected from these people who are inciting hatred and violence and our justice system needs to be seen to be proactively dealing with these situations... Mental health excuses are not a clause to get out of punishment inciting hatred and violence against a protected vulnerable sex.
- T Please defend us from this open violence against women.
- Narelle Enough is enough! Stop treating women as second class citizens. We deserve space away from men.
- Susan Please save women from the bullying and intimidation dragging our society down. Women should not be devalued or objectified into body parts. Nor denied the right to our own personal spaces and free speech which confirms the reality of binary sex categories.
- Wendy If someone publicly threatened to punch a senior, or a police officer, or a trans person, and encouraged others to do so, they would not get away with claiming this was a "joke" when they finally got to court. Once again, this is misogyny and an attack on women who are willing to speak up about harm
- N I went to a meeting and was terrified by the sheer rage and venom expressed by demonstrators. It was a women's rights conference. I was so shaken just entering the building, it took me an hour to recover. I was doing nothing illegal.
- Lorena Stop the violence and threats against women who hold gender critical beliefs. Our beliefs are legal and we shouldn't be threatened for them. Women are a sex class, we aren't dysphoric males and we don't exist to be their free therapists or their human shields. We're done taking it, we'll fight back.
- Will Please act or this will only get worse.
- V Stand up for women!

- Sue I have spent 50 years fighting for women's rights & also lesbian & gays rights. To see this extreme behaviour happening is absolutely frightening & I feel that it's just wiped all that out .
- Amanda Violence against women is not a "joke".
- Daniel This reversal of women's right to be in charge of their own safety, voice and choices is a blight on modern society.
- Hazel The state must defend women against physical intimidation, threats of violence and assault, and to protect our freedom of speech.
- G We are being cancelled, our children are being stolen by the cult and the state, our rights taken away.
Enough is enough, end this now.
- Tim It baffles me why so many organisations and governments are ignoring these threats against women and instead siding with people who want to unravel women's hard-won rights. (I'm a Quaker, we are failing too.) Please stop this sliding any further, and undo some of the damage.
- D In the last 4 years I have been horrified by the escalating violence and intimidation of trans activists. At this point I feel it is no longer "activism" or reasonable counter protest, it is extremist terrorism against women that should be investigated by Counter Terrorism Police.
- NINA Equality does not mean trampling all over other's rights!
- R Proudly terf
- H I'm in Greater Manchester where official GM Police twitter accounts tweet that there should be "no TERFs on our turf". They will not protect women from these attacks.
- Hugh Good Luck
- Gillian So glad to see someone standing up for women against this madness and the sheer cowardice of politicians.
- J This violence against biological women has gone on far too long. These men are violent misogynists that are being allowed to do as they wish.
- Jenny In real life, humans cannot change sex. Forcing people to pretend that they can is destroying UK society. Women are losing their jobs and livelihoods because of the hate campaign being promoted against women.

Linda	I'm appalled by the increasing threats of violence and actual acts of violence by trans activists against women attempting to protect their rights. Action MUST be taken NOW.
Caroline	Couldn't support this more
Christine	Dear PM Take action now. We don't want to end up a messed up society like the States, Canada, Australia and New Zealand. Protect our children and our way of life Please.
Colin	Sex. is a biological human right! not trans anything!. thank you.
Carmen	https://clponce.substack.com/p/objective-reality-is-fixed
Laura	From the start to the finish of this sorry affair, I have been incredulous at the timidity of the authorities.
Tracey	Women are frightened of violent and threatening TRAs. We fear assault, rape and death, all of which we are threatened with on a daily basis. When we are assaulted the police do nothing but they treat the perpetrators with kid gloves. Enough is enough. Affirming these men makes them worse. Stop now.
Vikki	Terf = Women who believes in biology and sex Matters always
Léopold	Sex matters!
L	How does feeling like a woman feel like? Do you feel the same as I feel? How can you tell? How can I tell?
GRAEME	TRA by judiciary. Like the good 'ol boys playing the white man in the deep south.
Di	Outrageous court decision. Clearly was no joke, are we now allowing people charged with an offence to just say "but I didn't really mean it"!!!
phil	Gay man who disagrees with the extremist attitudes of the queer theorists.
TESSA	It's about time something was done about the extreme LGBTQ community!
Wendy	The term woman is deemed at birth.
Helen	Protect women's rights
Lynne	Please take the safety of women and girls seriously.
Roisin	Extreme transactivism constitutes a violent and hateful campaign of harassment and intimidation against women, please be remembered as the person who took a stand & act.

It is plainly obvious to any right minded person that women are the ones who are paying the price.

- Estelle Disgusting misogyny and incitement to violence against women is being treated as a joke, as justified in some way. 'She was asking for it' shouted from the rooftops. This has to stop.
- M Keep up the amazing work... sanity and reason will prevail...
- J. This has become concerning.
- J Keep fighting the good fight!
- Jenny Thank you for doing this!!
- Patricia No man should be able to encourage violence to women. No person who is on parole should be able to speak violently or incite violence in a public forum against women. This is how women end up dead. When violent offenders breach their parole they should go back to gaol!
- Catherine Women's rights are becoming dangerously under threat from the militant, aggressive trans-activism movement. The response of Government, the police and other organisations is reminiscent of "1984" thought police with people arrested merely for questioning gender ideology. This MUST stop and soon
- Paul The UK government needs to wake up and uphold the rights of women (adult females) and girls as well as the free speech rights of the majority who do not agree with this ideology that is being aggressively forced on them.
- Joanna Sick of violent sex offenders: men pretending to be women and going into women's changing Rooms and safe spaces.
- Kate This sick madness has to stop. I will support you 100% to help achieve this. Thank you for your work.
- L Females have been so afraid to even mention our rights to Female only spaces. The intimidation from members of the trans community has been far worse than any they say they receive. As females, we also have the right to be called Females and women. Not cis. It's misogynistic and distressing.
- A Thank you for your work.

- Tracey It's 2023 and we're almost begging for protection from violent men. It's unbelievable that this abuse is allowed.
I fear for my 5 and 9 year old niece's.
- B Our world is rapidly changing for the worse. Thank you for trying to bring us back to sanity.
- Gem Women and girls must be protected from the trans ideology.
- Janaki After 6 years I finally feel more women realise what is happening Finally we are mobilising in numbers to this existential threat to our sex based rights
- Joanna I fully support freedom of speech and open debate and find threats of violence towards women and attempts to block and stifle debate abhorrent.
- Marios Defend women's rights. Stop the violence against them
- Maureen The way women are treated is a global disgrace
- D 'Sarah Jane' Baker and their ilk should not be allowed to incite violence because their ideology is on trend. These 'activists' harm women and trans people
- Deirdre In addition, schools must be given clear guidance on sex education and support for unhappy teenagers to avoid active encouragement to 'transition'.
- Julie Please make this a priority for the sake of future generations
- Juliet This terrifying, dystopian war on facts, reality and truth needs stopping now! So much damage is being done. I cannot believe that the Conservative Party, of all people, are allowing this to continue. Enough of your occasional trite words of condemnation, we need DEEDS now Mr Sunak!
- M Threatening violence is illegal.
Police need to stop being partisan and deal with those men who threaten women.
The police are meant to protect 'without fear or favour' yet they routinely and wear partisan  and insignia. This is unacceptable. Do not ignore this. We will remember at the polls.
- J Misogyny hiding in plain site as a call for trans rights, denigrates and frightens women and those making reasoned and respectful claims for trans rights
- G I'm 100% in support of all your work to defend women and children.
- Brenda I completely support this and it is outrageous that a violent man who now pretends to be a woman has more rights than real women. It is frightening that those who are meant to uphold the law appear to be complicit in the destruction of women's hard fought rights and protections.

Audrey Please help us in Scotland

Vivian Please stop this madness

Jane Such an important topic! It's time to sit up and take notice!

Simon "The sleep of reason brings forth Monsters" Goya

Kate Please protect women from male violence

S That it is women who receive the harshest criticism for talking about, and acting to protect, their rights tells you everything you need to know.

Maureen Women's rights are being trampled on by violent men. Please listen to women and take some action to protect women against this.

ANDREW We must must must protect the rights of women. Any ideology that denigrates women or seeks to undermine their rights and freedoms must be opposed and rejected.

R Standing up for the rights & safety of women is NOT being anti trans. I object to the safety of women being trivialised.
We already have to live our lives thinking 'is it safe to go there, how will I get home safely etc.'
Whatever colour lipstick is worn, someone with a penis is not a woman.

Thomas Women and girls need to be protected as do their rights. They should be treated as equal members of society, and like everyone protected from violence, and deserve justice like everyone else.

Kathleen Please act upon our request for the protection of women. Thank you.

Bridget Retired

Sarah Go get em ladies!

LJ Keep fighting

Anneka Protect biological women's rights

Laetitia This is a matter of national and international emergency. Women's rights are under attack from so-called 'trans rights activists'. Our rights, our single sex spaces, words used to define us, are under attack and at risk of being erased. Nobody should lose their job for defining what a woman is.

Donna Without a victory on this there is no human dignity.

Sara There's no other way to put it, this is insanity and it needs to end.

Monica I was yesterday the victim of a pile on by a random number of trans people for "liking" a post by Maya Forstater on X. It was relentless and continued until the early hours of this morning. I'm sick of these people bullying and harassing women for believing in scientific fact.

Kyle This is clearly a crime according to the Met Police and that history of male violence is clearly even more evidence.
<https://www.met.police.uk/advice/advice-and-information/hco/hate-crime/what-is-hate-crime/#:~:text=The%20offence%20of%20incitement%20to,a%20specific%20person%20or%20group>

Janetunv Unbelievable that women have had to resort to this method to be heard, respected and to spell out the blatantly obvious to keep women safe.

L The law is not being applied equally.

Jak This man belongs in a male prison where he cannot threaten or attack women and girls.

Brenda Women have had to work hard to be recognised in all works of working life. It's time for Rishi Sunak and his "government" to get to grips with what is being done against women.

Melanie It's disturbing the vitriolic narrative supporting the trans movement right now that women dare not use their own language for fear of losing their jobs, their rights and their physical well-being. A red flag movement. Enough is enough. How has such a dangerous ideology become so institutionalised.

Emma Stand up for women Rishi and don't let yourself be bullied by this extremist hate Mob who want to stop women from talking and publicly threaten us with violence.

Michael Trans activism has gone too far, too far!! It's time we all stand up for woman rights and be heard!

sara Thank you for standing up for women and girls.

Judy Sex Matters. Men will never adult human females. 🤝🤝💖💖

Graeme	Men are not women
Waw'tseka	LET WOMEN SPEAK!
Stephanie	This is not a joke. This is the beginning of a world of horror for women that will only grow worse if it is not stopped now and stopped decisively. At no point in known history will it be as bad as this path is going to make it. Please stop it now.
Angela	I was shocked and stunned to read this and more than surprised at what is happening to our society. I am woman - through no fault of my own - I am childless. Man cannot give birth. Man cannot breast feed. Man do not have horrific and painful menstruation. Do not pillory me for my beliefs.
S.	As a woman, I am entitled to respect, I have the right to safety, I should not be cancelled when I speak nor dismissed as a thinking, sentient, being, I should not have to endure the falsification of the record of women's achievements, women's crimes, or women's existence.
Julie	Thank you Sex Matters Team for what you're doing including speaking up publicly. I daren't openly share my GC views at work and with some very good friends. I even wondered about signing this letter. What a state of affairs! I'll try to be braver. There is strength in numbers and joining others x
Kim	How on earth is this violence against women and girls being allowed to go unpunished! I can't believe I would live to this age to witness this shocking abuse of real women and our hard fought for RIGHTS.
Gail	Dear Prime Minister It's time for Deeds not Words
Helen	I'm horrified at the escalation of aggression and hate against women. We are going backwards. Only women understand the fear of always having to be on alert when walking anywhere. This is next level erosion of our rights. We are being silenced for speaking out.
Malcolm	This man with a history of violence literally stood up in public and encouraged violence against women and somehow got cleared. Start treating women's rights seriously.
Jen	Biological sex matters and I vote Stop this insidious eradication of woman and girls, protect children from predators and groomers

Claire	This utter madness needs to stop!
Daressa	Women must be allowed to speak up to defend their rights. Intimidation and silencing of women cannot be allowed.
Polly	Extreme trans rights activism should be a PREVENT issue and should be dealt with as such.
Dale	It is crucial that the rational and reasonable critics of the trans ideology are now silenced by oppressive intimidation by those too irrational and intolerant to be able to face objective evidence and arguments.
Ian	Gender identity - a case of The Emperor's new summer frock.
James	The intimidatory tactics of some of those who claim to be advocating for trans rights is the mark of an intolerant movement that cares not about winning hearts or minds. Instead they wish to bully those who disagree with them (especially if they're women) into silence and obedience.
F	Since when did stating basic biological facts become "hate speech" to the police? There are only two sexes, you cannot change sex. Why, in 2023, is this controversial to state?
Angela	Women are afraid now. I have 2 trans people in my circle of friends, they simply want to live their lives. These 'activists' are making things difficult for them too by stirring up ill feeling. Equality should be a given but some people want more 'equality' than others.
Kathleen	The sooner this Trans ideology is erased the better.
S.	We demand the right to speak FREELY on issues regarding our bodies and our sex-based rights without being threatened! It is not hate to say that women don't have penises. It's just a fact.
Vicky	As a 69 year old woman it seems very simple to me, us born female have struggled to be heard and to identify the key areas where we want change for decades. But a man claiming to be female can overturn all that in a second. Doesn't that tell you men want everything, including our identities?
Samantha	I am so tired of feeling like a 2nd class citizen in my own country and fearful of how police react to my sex & views compared to violent men & theirs. This misogyny has to stop
Alison	Time and again the response from authorities serves to reinforce the evidence that our society is so deeply anti-women, it is the air we breathe and unrecognisable until women take a stand and name it.

Thank you, Sex Matters, for your brilliant work.

Jeannine Rishi Sunak - Will you?

Chris SO very important...

Desna Thank you for leading the way. This has got to stop.

M Trans 'women' are men.

Hadas Thank you for organising this viral campaign.

Yvonne I am signing this not only for women, but for all of us. No one should be threatened or hounded out of the job if what they are saying is lawful. The police must be empowered to defend people's right to speak their lawful opinion, and also to remove people who are inciting hatred and violence.

Flis Many thousands of gender critical women are fighting for women's rights and safeguarding children but being put in danger because the UK police and courts do not take the threats of violence by trans rights activists seriously. This is despite the fact evidence shows violence by TRAs is increasing.

Mairead Transactivism seems to be just the latest excuse for male violence against women.

Sue What's happening to policing without fear or favour? Protecting women from threats and violence should be a priority.

Francisca These people are demonically possessed or led, it's in the sheer hatred for people you can see in their eyes.

Margo Never in my long lesbian life have I witnessed this kind of hatred endorsed by government laws and the police force. And now judges in courts are giving a free pass to violent men too. Where/who can women turn to and ask 'WILL YOU DEFEND MY HUMAN RIGHTS?'

Lawrence The rights and protections of so many women must not be swept away for the sake of keep a tiny group of people. People with gender dysphoria should be treated to accept it. Not have society complicit in affirming something that is biologically impossible.

B I'm a secondary school student, and I don't want to grow up to a world where an abuser has more rights than his victim.

N Absolutely appalled that Baker was let off.

Louise	I cannot believe how corrupt our criminal justice system has become.
Hilary	I have been watching with growing alarm this movement, which seems to be anti women in so many ways. Please let's stop this madness which is misogyny at its very worst. Hatred of women is not OK, we defend peoples religion, race, disabilities why not women's rights and safety.
Ray	Stop this horrific abuse.
Sue	Experienced this first-hand in Birmingham, where thankfully things were tense but not violent due to the fine work of the LWS stewards (police were hopeless).
Sarah	The time for silence is over. We are women who dare to speak our name.
Christine	Have fought for women's rights for most of my 78 years. Sickened by this latest assault on women.
M	Prime Minister, Please do whatever it takes to protect single sex provisions and the rights of our daughters to dignity, safety, respect and freedom of expression.
Katherine	Please stop men from terrorising women whose beliefs they don't like. What is happening is shocking.
Tyrone	My thoughts are unprintable!
Lisa	I ask the Prime Minister. Would you let your mother be treated in this way? Women have battled misogyny and violence from men to gain the rights we deserve. Violence and threats of violence are not a joking matter.
Jean	This is outrageous behaviour from those men who identify as women. All women who speak about women's rights, safety & the safety of children, are only explaining how these rights need protecting. While the trans activists shout, threaten, bully, trying to silence women. Little support from the po
Peter	As a proud gay man I stand in solidarity with all biological women. This makes on female aggression must be stopped.
Norah	The more the mentally ill get no correct treatment they will get worse escalating if they are doing this in public guess what they are doing when no one is looking
Una-Jane	Keep going. Sex Matters, of course it does.
Debra	U.K. citizen, residing in Canada. Thank you!

Jane	I was shocked and dismayed at the lack of action against this person and also that there hasn't been any consequences for them despite their clear incitement to violence. It is appalling that there are no real protections for women trying to speak.
Nancy	The fact that Sarah-Jane's appalling threat was accepted to be a 'joke' turns my stomach. Rapists and violent criminals have more protection under the law than their victims. I for one will not accept this and thank you Sex Matters for standing in the vanguard of this battle.
Ursula	Women should be able to meet in public and discuss their rights without intimidation and threat of violence.
Elizabeth	Without government help this issue will hover around for centuries. Please get on with it. You have wives and daughters yes.... Please?
Anna	There needs to be parity in the reaction to abuse. It is equally as morally repugnant to threaten, intimidate and verbally incite violence to gender critical people, as it is to transgender individuals or activists.
F	No other group would get away with this. They don't even do "trans" any favours.
Joanna	Trans ideology is reversing a long-fought battle to protect women & girls from male violence. It has captured our academic institutions and is harming our children by denying them access to credible, scientifically proven facts about sex and human biology. Don't be cowards. Stand up for the truth.
Heather	TY for writing to PM in light of avalanche of aggression from TRAs and their allies. Most men are not affected and they don't care, even those with female partners and daughters. 'Gender critical' should go; too negative. Something memorable, well-understood, and positive should replace it.
Brian	May The Force be with you.
Dominic	I stand up for women against misogynist intimidation by toxic trans-activists.
Adam	As a gay man I am horrified to see 'Pride' events being used to preach hatred and violence. No-one deserves to be bullied or threatened simply for what they believe!
Chris	I am an adult human female and stand with all women. My rights were so hard fought for and I cannot stand quietly by whilst they are undermined.
Robert	100 PC support this

- Alex Of course sex matters!
- Eric Trans gives an easy cover for violent incels and mras to be violent incels and MRAs. The police do nothing for fear of upsetting violent incels and MRAs because they're run by violent males and employ rapists.
- David It's time to end violence against women and girls. The old fashioned kind of women, the ones that aren't men.
- Beth The actions of the trans rights activists are not that of reasonable protest or campaign. They are vicious and deliberate attempts to stop women speaking, meeting and campaigning for our rights. Parliament and Police must do more to stop these Gender Terrorists.
- Caroline We will keep fighting for our rights, keep pushing these mentally unstable males back. We will get them out of our sports and our private spaces.
- Erika These men must be removed from the street and locked up if they behave in this abusive manner. Girls and women deserve to be protected from such vile men.
- Judy Women have a right to speak without fear of being abused. We are not 'anti trans' we are merely trying to protect our rights. Sex matters to us and its not transphobic to acknowledge the biological reality that there are only 2 sexes and those sexes are immutable.
- Margaret It's time common sense prevailed with our political parties. All the hard work by the Suffragettes and Feminists in the 1970s is being ignored and wasted!
- Sue I was actively feminist in the 80s and the left sided with us. Now the left side with men who openly threaten women, men who want to invade our spaces, our gatherings. Men who want children to suffer a lifetime of medical intervention. Men who conveniently trans to escape jail time with men
- Harriet Well done for doing this.
- June This needs to be aired to the greater public. Thank you.
- Karen I no longer feel safe in my own country just because I don't hold the ridiculous belief that a woman can have a penis.
- Rich I have seen the extreme side of trans activism, these individuals do not fight for equality. They fight for utter domination, a narcissistic cult, that want rights at the expense of all others.

Elaine	Lesbian Rights Alliance
jayne	Good luck. This crap is making me mad as hell!
Jo	Policing needs to be without fear nor favour when it comes to violent trans activist behaviour. Women can have police visit for just taking a picture of a sticker... TRAs threaten violence all the time & only a matter of time before women are seriously hurt or worse. Enough is enough!
Gillian	This level of violent threats and intimidation would not be tolerated against any other group.
Waltraud	Please speak up for women's rights and for us to speak the truth. Thank you.
Jana	Support only peaceful protest
Nancy	Women and children need the protection of the state. We're in an emergency situation where our rights are daily being eroded by 'gender' ideology. This is a top down 'movement' put into policy, and in some cases law, without a shred of public input. The overwhelming majority disagree with it.
Denise	Keep up the good work. So many people are remaining silent afraid of the repercussions.
Ali	I've 2 trans friends and have always been sympathetic to people suffering with body dysmorphia. This compassion, however, does not extend to the current crop of Trans Rights Activists. Their actions are often abusive and violent, thus harming true 'trans'. My eyes have been opened this past 2 years.
Polly	Only dangerous men try to convince u that sex doesn't matter
Amy	Standing for women's rights
Deborah	End Violence Against Women and Girls. Doing nothing is no longer an option.
L	Safeguarding women and children should be a priority in a every community.
Jenny	Breakdown stereotypes, allow male and female to be and dress however they like but we must protect women and stop allowing this misogyny. When will men stop bullying and abusing women.
Yvonne	Totally fed up that these bullies keep getting away with violent acts.

- Elizabeth This is long overdue.
- Theresa It is entirely unacceptable for one group to incite violence against another. Trans women (men) seek to intimidate and oppress women by attempting to strip them of their identity whilst insisting we accept theirs unquestioningly. The hypocrisy is astonishing.
- Jane As a school teacher I address violence, intimidation and aggression from pupils. What example is being set here?
- T Allowing men identifying as women to play sports against born females is unfair and unsafe.
Letting men identifying as women into female changing rooms can cause unnecessary suffering to females who have undergone sex assaults or domestic abuse. I have stopped going to gym and pool because of this
- E The transgender community is trying to force the larger community to comply with their needs. They threaten violence against women.
- Jane I was at a Let Women Speak event in Brighton, talking about autistic children. The activists completely surrounded us, yelling, sounding klaxons and at one point threw a smoke bomb into the space where we were. I'm autistic and experienced complete sensory overload - it was absolutely terrifying.
- Kerrie Women should be allowed to speak for their sex based rights without the intolerance of anyone.
- Ruth There is so much that could be commented on I hardly know where to begin. The erosion of women's rights by organisations such as the NHS, universities, the police, the Crown Prosecution Service and courts is truly frightening.
- Tristan PUT AN END TO THIS CLOWN SHOW.
- J Thank you for what you are doing.
- Aisha So sick of this men's right movement, masquerading as a 'be-kind' movement
- Arthur Women deserve to be heard without intimidation & threats of violence! Trans activists understand that " "A truth does not mind being questioned. A lie does not like being challenged", that's why they try to silence women!
- Stephanie I'm tired, so tired of this fight. But I won't give up, I will stand with you as long as I'm breathing.

- ashley I stand with biological women and their right to exist without fear of their spaces being invaded.
- Helen You have the power but you lack the will. The whole police and judiciary are captured. You are public servants. We are 51% of the public. We demand to be protected
- Rachel It's disgusting the way women are treated nowadays!
- Tessa Genuine conversations between two groups of people with competing rights needs protection against violence and hate speech.
- Liz Protect women in public places. Our voices are being drowned out by trans activists who threaten us with violence for saying a woman is an adult human female.
- Joan It's a complete disgrace this obvious call to violence by a convicted criminal convicted of extreme violence
- Stephen Please keep me informed on future events. I wanted to attend the talk in Manchester yesterday but was instead taxiing my daughters to their various sports. Keep up the good work. Keep it polite, reasonable and a force for fairness.
- D You do an amazing job. This intimidation has got to stop.
- Barbara G Woman = Adult Human Female
Keep biological men out of women's safe spaces, women's sports, women's organisations and stand up for women and girls.
- Dawn This is a frightening down slide for women who dare to stand up for their rights. And you expect us to feel safe with these people in our toilets and changing rooms? And when we DARE to say anything about our concerns this is the abuse we're subjected to, same old story, me man, you woman, shut up
- H. Women's Rights are Human Rights.
Respect My Sex
- Olimpia Keep it up!
- charlotte Women are people too
- david Trans people these days are a DISGRACE. Back in the day trans people actually changed sex. These days they wear make up, leopard-skin capri pants but they still have a penis and expect to be called a woman!!!!!! I'm a gay man and find the modern trans ideology an absolute sham
- Sarah Publish my name if you want. I am sick and tired of a minority wanting to keep me quiet

- Pat Deegan Why is intimidation suddenly being treated as legal?
- Beverley Thank you for raising this incredibly important issue!
- carolyn Women's rights are important for everyone's well-being
- Samantha Sex matters. Grateful for every human standing up!
- Jeannine Stop those who hate women
- Susan I am saddened that the government, and the Police force, have taken no action to protect women from extreme intimidation. These are extremely aggressive men attacking women. Please do something. I was a Conservative voter but I intend to vote Reform UK. The Conservative Party has allowed this.
- M The normalization of violence against women has to end. Please be one of the good men who does something.
- SL If good men/women do nothing evil will prevail
- A Like so many I want to thank you for this and all you do to support women
- Sarah Ann We must draw a line. Enough is enough
- Edward Please take this very seriously and take action immediately
- Melissa I needed to use the toilet in a rural pub, two cubicles, both doors were open, I entered the 1st. When I came out there was a huge man in a dress standing there. No one had entered, meaning he was already in the other cubicle. He stood at the sink, staring at me. I ran out, he followed me. Horrific
- Jacqueline Women put up with more than enough intimidation. It needs to be stopped.
- Joanne It's physical assault to shout in someone's face through a megaphone, it can damage hearing or worsen existing conditions, anyone doing this should be arrested. Women should not be subjected to hate and intimidation every time they meet.
- Rowan As the group name says Sex Matters. Women and girls should be allowed to exist without men in their spaces whether that is in public toilets and changing rooms, in sport, in women only support groups, in prisons, in hospitals and clinical settings, in swimming baths, and in many other places.
- Lourdes This is a country where ALL people have a right to feel safe, not withstanding their differences of opinion. It is a duty of the government and the police to produce and enforce rules, so dialogue and debate can be had without any party suffering abuse, for the benefit of all.

Paula Please support women

Rachel Every woman and girl are precious and need to protected.

S Thank you for standing up for us women

Deborah Protect women from male violence.

Siobhan Please put an end to excuses for violence under the guise of 'inclusivity'

Suzanne Thank you Maya, Helen and all at Sex Matters for everything you do. xx

Jacqui We need to stop this shit

Karen I hope the LED event on 16th September doesn't provide more proof of violence against women.

P Horrified at how women are being treated by politicians in 2023. This time is the most misogynistic of my entire life. Parliament is sending the message to all women that our human rights don't matter, our lives must be subordinate to 'special' men who are superior to us. Back to the dark ages

Amanda It is becoming terrifying to live in a society where such threats and intimidation toward women are common place and we feel we have no protection by the authorities. I am frightened for my daughter.

Miriam I am sick and tired of being told I don't matter, that women don't matter, that children don't matter, and that penis is all that matters.
Make my name public. I want these violent men who hide behind masks to know who they face. I refuse to be erased, refuse to be frightened into silence.

Arlene This letter should be sent to Keir Starmer too

Debra Trans rights cannot come at the expense of the rights of natal females.

T The amount of intimidation and threatening behaviour of people, especially women, when they gather to discuss sex-based rights never ceases to shock me. Free speech must be protected from aggressive/abusive people who seek to silence.

E This utter nonsense, and onslaught on WOMEN and minors, HAS GOT TO BE STOPPED!
Men are not women 🙄 FFS!

Josh	Go get em!! Biological women are real women. Not pansy men in a dress!!
Christine	Clothes worn by male abusers does not change the fact that it's still male violence against women. Same threats of violence & abuse should have the same sanctions
Eva	Violence and hatred against gender critical women should not be tolerated in our so called "inclusive" society.
Mairi	This must be identified as a priority before it gets out of hand.
Declan	Incitement to violence is not a joke. It is a crime that deserves a custodial sentence
Gillian	I hope that those in power listen to the concerns of women regarding this. It is a matter of great importance to your mothers, daughters, sisters, wives and girlfriends.
Virginia	I resent all the names being used against women for simply believing the truth. There are two sexes, male or female.
Jon	The deviancy exhibited by the Trans movement has to be quashed. Women and young girls need and deserve to be protected from these mentally ill men.
Kerry	Agree wholeheartedly, there's something rotten when the police and others with authority pander to such aggression and pursue women for stating facts.
Janice	I fully support you. The people at the top of our Government have got to put a stop to this. Sunak is weak and has done nothing for anybody, but he needs to put a stop to this nonsense.
Trish	Enough ! It's getting totally out of control against biological women
Fiona	The government must act NOW to send a clear message to activists who call for violence against women who defend our biological reality. By not condemning it, the perpetuate it and send the message that abusing women is permissible. It is not!
Michelle	I'm doing this to protect the rights of all women from this lunacy, you can't change your sex!!!
Margaret	Please stop hate to women.
Rosa	Violence is never acceptable. #LetWomenSpeak
Alex	I still remember that "decapitate TERFs" sign. This madness has gone on long enough.

- Barbara Women speaking up for our rights is not hateful.
Threats of rape, beatings, and murder from trans activists, are tho.
Grow a spine. LEAD.
- John Women and girls must be protected against extreme transactivism and their right to freedom of speech upheld. The government must ensure this protection now.
- S My wife and daughter need to be safe.
- Suzanne If it were any other group experiencing abuse this blatant there would be an uproar.
- Clare Trans women are men.
- Sian Trying to take away sex based rights of half the population is disgraceful. Sex based spaces are integral for the safety of woman and most often their young kids. Shelters, Prisons, Changing rooms and Bathrooms are sex separated for a reason.
KEEP IT THAT WAY.
- Barry Hugely important and needs recognition. Women need protection from threats and intimidation.
- Lydia Thankyou. It is outrageous that women are threatened and vilified for standing up for their rights as per the Equality Act.
- Corinne The fabric of our society is threatened when insults and behaviour like this is allowed to go on unpunished. I have 3 children (12,9,2) 2 are girls, I owe it to them to stand up to this. Be on the right side of history. We women have a habit of rising up!
- I The rights to female safety and protection from violence from men are NOT there to be ignored just because men in lipstick say so. Rapists in our prisons, men in our dressing rooms and toilets, men doing what they want because of feelings or fetish - this has to stop, NOW. This has REAL CONSEQUENCES.
- Ian The threats and intimidation from transactivists appear to be tolerated by authorities in a way that would never would be if they came from another group. This has to stop.
- Natalie #womensrights
- susan It's time the authorities did something to stop this overt violence and aggression towards women who are just standing up for their rights!
- Linda Women are forced to accept the opposite sex as women. Changing the meaning of 'woman' negates all data gathered on crime, health, sport & even educational attainment. Single sex spaces, for safety and dignity, are now regarded as open to the opposite sex. Objections are met with vitriol & violence.

- Cammy Trans terrorists should receive legal rebuke like any other terrorists
- Andrew The behaviour of multiple police forces in openly condoning or acting at the behest of these violent groups is extremely worrying. Women are at risk for exercising their democratic rights
- lin no more
- Stephanie Women are being stripped of their rights and silenced by any means including physical violence. It is time to stop this injustice.
- Tania Can we please stop the madness already?!
- Claire There is a global annihilation of women happening! Perverts and predators in dresses in our spaces and teaching young children that they can change sex!!! It's abhorrent that male supremacy, child abusers and misogynists are in charge.
- Elizabeth Violence and hate speech should never been accepted no matter who is doing it. This is not effecting anyone's freedom of speech, its saying no to hate speech
- M The misogynistic abuse and threats of violence regularly directed at the brave women who stand up to these bullies is disgusting.
The police need clear instruction to stop fawning to dangerous ideology, to enforce the law, and protect law abiding people.
- Karen Please also send the letter to Andy Burnham. The level of abuse when women meet in Manchester needs addressing.
- Kerry I am concerned women are losing safe spaces and when i question our biology I am labelled a TERF and a bigot.
I am concerned the trans activist are becoming extremely hateful and confrontational and the police fail to act
- Cheryl Those who claim a man can be a woman or a woman can be a man have a severe mental illness and need help, not access to spaces where women and children are vulnerable. Trans people should not be able to demand special privileges under the guise of trans rights at the expense of our human rights.
- Andrew Rishi - please take the side of these contemporary suffragettes and so take a lead for the UK in protecting women's rights.

- C Trans extremists is the ultimate form of misogyny.
- Finbar Violence and intimidation by men targeted at women is taken seriously by society, but if those men dress up in skirts and wigs, for some reason, it's ignored and tolerated. Men and women are different, males and females are different. Women have a right to make that point and to not be threatened
- Cat Humans cannot change sex, no man can become a women no matter how he identifies feels or dresses . Women should not have to deal with men in their sss or be a shield for men's feelings . Self ID has no safeguarding leaving it open to abuse that any man can call himself a women to access safe spaces,
- L It's absolutely farcical that in 2023 we are still fighting to protect the rights of women in the UK. From men claiming to be women.
- Sally The degree of violence directed at women by the 'trans rights' lobby would be condemned if it were directed at any other group. So why is it not condemned when it is directed at women?
- G ENOUGH IS ENOUGH!!!
- Christine For goodness sake has to stop...
- K Keep up the good work.
- S It is so important that the prime minister reads this letter and listens, really listens. This is not just for us, it is for our daughters and our daughter's daughters.
- Paula I despair at the way we are heading. When women's right are slow being erased and we are becoming third class citizens. Women are the giver of life and of future generations. We deserve to be treated with respect, not the eradication of our very souls.
- D Protecting our women is everyone's business. I despair that many other men don't see this. I want my wife, my mother and all my female relatives and friends to be free from these violent parasites.
- S Do something about violence against women. Real women
- k Who is going to stand up for females who have had our collective name(women)colonised?
Who have had our spaces colonised from bathrooms to podiums to awards to prisons?
Who is going to stop these men who threaten us with violent threats, who tell us to s their D and die on social media? Who?

J	Women are not safe, I want change now respect for all
Sarah	Disgraceful that we even need a petition for this.
Mona	Sex matters. Women fought for years to have private spaces and sports. Meanwhile 500,000 Females have been raped by XYs in the US alone the last year...
Kevin	Police should apply the standards of a common law breach of the peace when abusive language is shouted directly into anyone's face in an aggressive manner.
Sage	Protect women's rights! Protect women from the violence and oppression that transactivists enforce!
Jennifer	The #metoo movement was clear about women having autonomy over our safety concerns and agency. This totalitarian cult is an affront to our human rights as a female sex. Anyone who thinks male-bodied people deserve to be appeased in toxic masculinity is a men's rights activist.
F	This has gone on too long. Why are men being allowed to invade female spaces ? It's scary, and frightening. How would your wives and children, mothers, grandmothers feel in this situation.
ThérV@se	Stop this madness now. As a lesbian I'm highly offended by these people.
Leigh	This rising violence against women is not a case of both sides. It is a targeted attack that has been permitted by police and even perpetuated by them too. Women have a right to protect their spaces and a right to protest without violence and extremism acted upon them.
Chantal	Hatred and violence against biological women should never be tolerated because of our gender. How are they spreading love?
Mandy	As a local councillor in Cheshire, I have reported other councillors for harassment, malicious comms and incitement many times, recently receiving threats of direct harm as a result of the local Cllr-led hate campaign. Council and police response to date woeful. Two years! Please do something.
Pat	Shocking.
Claire	Why are women fighting for their rights once again? Please enshrine our rights.
Helen	Thank you for doing this. I feel like the violence and abuse is escalating because nothing is being done and I worry that something very serious will happen if the threat is not taken seriously.

- Jane the demands of a small minority should not trample on the hard-earned rights of more than half of the population. Male-pattern violence often remains even if the man calls himself a woman.
- Elizabeth Thank you for championing this for all women. We must make a stand.
- Ishbel I'm not a radical feminist just someone who is enraged by being made to feel bad for standing up for my rights as a woman. I'm standing up for my 13 year old granddaughter too as she is not allowed to stand up for herself in school.
- Pauline The onslaught by the trans lobby is another attempt to control women's lives and bodies. Recently we have learnt the shocking news that a third of women training to become surgeons have been sexually assaulted by their senior male counterparts.
- Donella The violence and abuse towards women is getting worse. Prime Minister, please take action to stop this from happening!
- Hanife We need to stand up for the children !
- Rachel This violent language against women is wrong, is unacceptable & needs to be called out and action taken by government, police service & opposition parties. against those committing it. Stop telling women to be understanding & kind we are not her to be patted on the head & belittled.
- P These activists are aggressive men potentially undoing many decades of progress for feminism and for women's' rights generally. A man dressed up as a woman is not a woman.
- Tegwynn Good men protect women and children
- Donna The rampant misogyny of the trans movement needs to be urgently addressed. The attack on women and girl's rights, single sex spaces and sports by biological males is horrendous. Sex not gender
- Jody A rapist promoting further violence against women is not a joke. Advocating violence against women is not a joke. "Joking" about punching women just for being women to a baying crowd is not funny. You can do something about this. Please don't choose to ignore it. Stand up for women and girls.
- S TERF has become a dog whistle for violence against women. Please condemn and legislate against these hate crimes. In a civilized society, differences in beliefs or opinions are NOT justifications for violence in any situation.
- Claire Protect women and free speech.

- Serena I've experienced extreme transactivism in the workplace on a university campus. it's made me feel unsafe at work and angry that I could be persecuted, bullied and harassed if I openly stated sex matters in my workplace. I find the extreme violence and incitement to violence pointed at TERFS upsetting
- J E I am increasingly disgusted at the eradication of women and the trans ideology being pushed in institutions, especially in schools. I am a grandmother and will fight tooth and nail for my grandchildren to not have this ideology taught to them.
- Catherine This behaviour is very worrying
- Nana Woman is An adult human female. Women fought for our sex based rights, and we will stand on this hill until we die.
- Millie Women, are not there to be abused by males. No matter if these males identify themselves as something other than they are. The fact that males are able to behave in this manner with apparent impunity shows how little women are valued in today's society and how fragile their progress.
- Julia We simply must defend our women. Sex-obsessed men, in all senses of the phrase, must not be allowed to get away with this human rights catastrophe in the making. A eomzn will be killed soon. In the name of "trans rights" unless we are protected hy our MEN
- D Women must not be bullied, threatened and physically attacked for stating biological facts. Stop the extremist trans cult activists from silencing real women.
- Nicholas Having seen many friends vilified, silenced and or compelled to retract I have no doubt that militant transactivists effort to restrict the scope of valid opinions that may be expressed on this subject restricts the public discourse needed for democracy to work.
- Emma Something needs to be done to stop all this, women have spent decades getting to this point for it all to be undone by tiny minority of very load voices
- Louise I'm so angry and disgusted at the blatant misogyny including violence, threats of violence and constant bullying by this disgusting trans movement.
I will not forget nor forgive those who were supporters, those who are enablers especially the police and politicians and those who are silent.
- Michael I think that I have been teleported to a different planet. People are losing their minds, while our "representatives" have sat on the fence for so long, their bollocks have been crushed. Pathetic examples of human beings.
- jill its painful going through 'end of days', sad too i am 78

- R This is the only topic of discussion where I feel uneasy to express my views depending on my company and environment, for fear of losing work or being labelled transphobic which I am not. Women are seeing their rights ignored.
- Carole Ann Appalling how celebrating diversity means silencing women's rights and compromises safe spaces for women and children.
- Silvia Why is this government allowing MEN to invade our spaces & intimidate women when this is constitutionally illegal?!
It feels like there's a darker agenda at play here than we don't know about yet and we want this to stop NOW!!!
- Joan The violence and threats of violence against gender critical women is unacceptable.
- Cath Please do not leave these matters for a GE manifesto - they need settling asap - please show leadership and responsibility now. Women are aware.
- Jeremy I hope we can return to the reality where women are allowed their own spaces, without fear of intimidation and threats of violence and cancelling
- Leslie My sex is male. Nothing will change that.
I support the right to free speech. Nothing will change that .
I support women's rights and for women and girls to have those rights protected under the law. Nothing will change that.
- Anne Alan Barker is a dangerous man. Protect women from violence!
- Simon Time to stand up for Women's Rights and defend women against physical intimidation, violence and threats of violence from those trying to deny women their right to Free Speech.
- Sharon MP's are elected to represent their constituents on all the issues - not just those that cause them the least discomfort. It is shameful to see how they are leaving ordinary women to fight this ideological battle alone.
- R Safety for women and children should be paramount
We need single sex spaces
Safe spaces for children
Safety and choice in medical treatment
Not be in fear of being abused for speaking up for women
- Darian "Trans" is nothing but abject misogyny, homophobia and barbaric child abuse. It's a cult built on lies that reverses good and evil, victim and offender. It's antithetical to a civilized society. It is in direct conflict with fundamental principles of democracy, equality and freedom.

- Christina You are not defending us now and Sir Keith Starmer and Sadiq Khan - your cards are marked. You need to do much better.
- Alexandra This is such a critical topic and one about which I feel so strongly that proper guidance on the matter from the Tory party alone would decide my vote in a general election. The absence of strong leadership speaking out on this matter, especially from male MPs, is a disgrace.
- J Please act to keep myself, my daughters and granddaughters safe. Please.
- Niall You can't change sex. A man in a dress is still a man. Protect biological women's safe spaces and sports
- Lynette If I reveal my identify I will lose my job, my livelihood, my home.
You made it that easy for men to bully me into silence.
Give me back my freedom of speech & my safety
- Olivia Keep going. Thank u
- Paul This situation is a disgrace, truth must be heard
- Pamela I do not agree with allowing TGF being classed as female, as biology states different. For the safety of women keep them out of toilets or any other safe places for children. Women have rights too!!!
- Helen Women will not be silenced
- Sean Common sense must prevail.
- Lesley State sanctioned violence against women cannot be allowed to continue. If this behaviour was perpetrated during Trans Rights rally by women then the police action would be dramatically different.
- June Thanks for all that you do at Sex Matters!
- L I've been following this issue for years, having started from a place on concern for transpeople. However, it became clear TRA were seeking to colonise women's spaces and silence women concerned with women's safety and child safeguarding. They are dangerous. Thank you so much for all you do.

Sharyl	I'm disgusted with the ignorance and inaction of the police when women are faced with violent protest. It happens everywhere. Mayor Khan's Maaaaate initiative is an insult to women. The attitude towards females in the UK is despicable.
Philip	Stop the harmful attack on young people by butchers and liars. Stop attacking and trying to erase women to satisfy the intolerant demands of the mentally ill. Stand up for common sense and decency.
Micha	This cannot continue. Women are being stripped of our hard fought for rights and attacked for daring to defend them.
Mary	A woman is an adult human female. Women deserve safety, privacy, and fairness in sports.
Jacqueline	Why is the safety of Woman and Girls seen by the Police and Courts less worthy of protection than the safety of a very small minority of men who in their delusions think they are women. These men advocate violence with impunity against women who refuse to bow down or recognise their delusions
Sharon	Feel free to publish my name. I am proud to stand up and speak out to advocate for the biological reality of the sexes and the harms of "gender ideology"!
Karen	Signing after discovering that the BBC are playing songs with the lyrics "kick terfs all day long"
Brenda	Goes without saying, justice for all women who are victims of abusers.
Graham	This has been going on far too long and it must be addressed now.
Deni	Please help us women feel safer this is inanity why are this men more important than my granny?
Chris	This has to stop
Danny	Male violence toward woman is not acceptable
Spider	It is scary to be female in this world.
Tatjana	Thank you for standing up for women and their rights.
Michelle	Disgusting behaviour
Kitty	Women are adult human females. Full stop.
L.	I feel very strongly that we must protect women and their rights!!

Deanna	Thank you for doing this.
Sarah	Convicted torturer urges violence against women and everyone thinks he's joking? You cannot be serious.
Lynn	The intimidation and violence against women must stop. Protect women.
Michael	Protect children from groomers.
Paula	Please protect women's rights.
Patricia	Adult human female
C.	Please work to end impunity for violence against women.
Jane	This is absolutely disgusting. Why is the law not protecting women ?
Heather	Born biological women are 50% of society. We are being made to have men (who call themselves women) in our private women-only spaces, our sports and our medical facilities. No one asked us if we were okay with this happening. En masse, we're not!! Please listen!
Katherine	The violence and intimidation amounts to terrorism but is just ignored because it is aimed at women. No other demographic gets treated like this. Please stop these men terrorising women.
Avril	The level of threatened and real violence against women is out of control and the state and all its arms that should protect us are failing - it feel deliberately.
Margaret	This government needs to put its money where its mouth is, it is supposed to be serious about eradicating violence against women and girls but not if it comes from trans activists, they do what they like!
Jonathon	100% agree with this, women should be protected.
Rosemary	FiLiA Volunteer
Cathy	They cannot wear masks, they can demo quietly as is everyone's right, but not invade our area, use noise makers, scream and chant. We need to be able to see who they are and identify the older men who are organising this at the back.
Stephanie	I ask you to take action to prevent the escalating violence against women.
K	Women's rights are human rights. Lest we forget

- Amber Please take these matters of threats and violence towards women seriously
- Geoffrey Dear Mr Sunak,
For all our children's sake, just put a stop to all this nonsense. A man who was born a man with male genitals will always be a male and vice versa. A man can no more become a woman than I can become a porcupine and I can't believe it is even up for discussion.
- Deborah It's time politicians put an end to this complete misogyny. Women play an important part in society and have every right to advocate for their needs and be heard in the trans debate
- L We are female and women and we will not be cancelled to suit a transitioning male's agenda!
They can slot into whatever lifestyle they like, but it is fundamentally wrong to exclude anything female in language!
I along with other supporters of Sex Matters will not stand for cancellation of females
- Clare The right of women to maintain their belief in biological sex must be upheld.
The scope for abuse of women-only spaces by men whom society is being rail-roared into accepting as female is limitless.
Women should not face abuse for stating biological fact or for requiring female-only spaces.
- Michelle I would like to make it absolutely clear that transsexuals fully support women's rights and do have any time for the trans activists. Transsexuals are nothing like those that come under the transgender umbrella, who are mostly transvestites and a myriad of different genders, some yet to be invented.
- Malcolm Female's rights are under assault from entitled appropriating men who seem to feel free to threaten and intimidate any women who are trying to protect their hard-won rights and spaces.
You need to stand up for women, to stand up for what is right.
- H Genotype is of equal importance as phenotype and must not be ignored or denied by government policy or healthcare policies
- Yéil Defend women! We make up half your voting base.
It may not be easy, BUT DO WHAT IS RIGHT!
- Oliver I stand with women (the real ones).
- Hannin Thank you Sex Matters for the important work you do.

- Wayne There needs to be much more careful consideration of these issues and clear differentiation between gender (sex you were born with) and a person's current sexuality. I support the right for everyone to 'be themselves' and feel happy, but do not want agree to an erosion of women's rights.
- Susan Why is violence against women so acceptable in our society
- Liam I've seen how violent these men get first hand; they dehumanise those who disagree with them by calling them "Terfs", "Nazis" and "bigots" among other things. This is accompanied by threats of violence amidst ever-increasing demonstrations of rage and performative fury. They will kill someone soon.
- Hilary This is just going to get worse. People are going to get hurt. Why will you not defend your mother's, sisters, wives, daughters,
- James Everyone deserves respect and to be treated as an individual. However, sometimes demands, actions, or beliefs when implemented can have an impact on other people. Sex is a binary and immutable characteristic and deserves to be acknowledged in law to uphold the privacy, security and dignity of all.
- Maria This gender ideology has gone too far. Protect our children and women!
- Rebecca Thank you for everything you do.
- Claire This is such an important issue, which feels like a runaway train that is out of control and will soon run off the tracks. I fear for my very young daughter's rights. I don't want to see them completely destroyed by men who have nothing but hatred for women, and the cowardly women who enable them.
- H It's terrifying what is happening in society. Women have been repressed for hundreds of years and it's still going on. I'm so depressed about this and can't see where it's going to end. Why is a tiny minority dictating to the majority? I feel like it's The Emperor's New Clothes.
- Victoria I am an athlete and have spoken publicly about the advantages to transwomen in the female category. I have witnessed this hatred and intimidation first hand. It is not 'normal' protest. There is a real hatred against women, almost a euphoria from some trans activists when able to abuse women.
- jane I want women and girls to be safe, we need our safe spaces and women centred services, we as women should be able to talk about ourselves and our needs and rights, without fear of violence or harassment or being 'cancelled', we should be able to talk about things that affect our lives.

- J The courts, the police, the government, the NHS all think women don't matter. This has to change.
- Julie Just a few years ago the need for petitions or an organisation such as sex matters having to fight for women's rights and common sense to prevail would have seemed far fetched in this country. Wake up to reality, this current ideology is damaging our young and our Society.
- Lesley I'm 73, female, have faced up to a lot of discrimination, from being told 'you shouldn't be at university' and 'you're taking a man's job' to being flashed in a public place and groped at work, and more. But this is the most misogynistic time I have ever lived through. End this hate campaign.
- ANDREW Conversation is conversation. Violence is violence. Don't mix the two up, and don't allow women to be harassed for asking to maintain their rights.
- Marion Women must not be closed down by aggressive and violent trans activists and children should not be bullied in schools for having an opinion which says they believe that there are only two sexes.
- Cherysh Thank you for standing up for women.
- K Protect women, we matter.
- Sarah If the law is not changed, I truly feel that myself and my daughter as Christian women would have more rights and protection in a Muslim majority country, than in the UK. At least in countries with laws based on traditional Islamic values, we would have the right to single sex spaces.
- Christine I fully support the rights of women and girls to safe, single sex spaces and the rights under the Equalities Act to hold the legal belief that sex is binary.
I feel the police have been brainwashed by trans groups and activists to act in an unlawful manner and ignore the safety of women.
- Christine It is definitely time to stand up for the rights of ordinary women. I don't object to anybody dressing and describing themselves as they like but they cannot force their beliefs on me.
- M Enough is more than enough.
One is One too many.
Safeguard biological Girls and Women.
What is the Government priority that overrides this?

- Judith Women are being dehumanised by negation of the language which defines us.
This sets the scene for oppression and abuse.
It is horrifying to witness the NHS, the Lancet and now the GMC obliterating the word 'woman' from official literature.
Exclusion of 51% for inclusion of 0.5% is undemocratic.
- Balbir Things need to change.
Women fought 100 years ago and should carry on fighting for then next generations. It's our duty.
- RD In the continuing absence of a consistent and robust approach by the police to the threats and intimidation against women from trans activists in public and private meetings there is a real risk of serious harm, or worse, occurring in the near future
- Jane Protect my sex to earn my X
- Ashley It is not okay that women are afraid to wear suffragette colours or say we don't want men in our spaces. This promotes not only a rape culture but a not speaking out about rape culture.
- Julia I feel it's all terribly scary.
- L Biological sex is fact, rooted in scientific reality.
Maintaining that a biological man is a woman is a position of faith and belief, not rooted in scientific fact.
- Alison Violent activists, who won't listen to women and actively work against the current exceptions in the Equality Act, need to be monitored and prosecuted when they incite or commit violence against females.
- R Gender ideology is both fantastical delusion and a crime against humanity and needs to be stopped.
- H Western society had largely progressed to the point where women were no longer subjected, on the streets, to threats of extreme violence. Such threats must never be considered a 'joke' when the context is a rally not a stand up set. Act to protect women NOW!
- F It's time we all stood up for women's rights.
- S I am so angry about all this and support you every step of the way. Thank you for what you are doing. I have been in a gym changing room when I realised that a bloke was standing next to me. It made me feel very uncomfortable. I don't want to share facilities with men. We need our privacy.

- Nicola I am against the extreme trans activism that is incites hate, silencing and violence against women . Our daughters (even if they currently believe that trans women are women) need us to protect their sex based rights.
- Elizabeth Open threats and intimidation of women is taking away all of women's rights including freedom of speech.
- C I don't understand how under a Tory government this toxic ideology has taken control of our institutions. The erasure of women's language to the blatant threats of violence against gender critical women is real and needs purging from British society. It's an American Moaist cult - GET RID!
- Stephen It makes no sense to harm 50 per cent of the population - the women who give birth to each one of us - just so that some 0.01 per cent of the population can feel a little bit more accepted by society. Social harm can be the only result if the Equality Act is not reformed ASAP.
- J The government wonders why so many over 50s are not in employment. But, there are now so many employers that turned absurdly woke, including universities, charities, the Police and the NHS, that many job seeking 'TERF' women and men cannot even feel safe in the workplace any more.
- S Women have fought for equal rights now they are being taken away in the name of trans men & weak leaders
- Zoe Thank you
- Zoe Student
- Peter Crucial
- C People need to be able to discuss the gender issue without threats of violence.
- S This is disgusting behaviour and would absolutely not be tolerated if it had been aimed at any other group.
- Dominique Biology is fact and matters. The erosion of women's language, dignity & safety is deeply upsetting
- Emily This horrendous threat to women's safety and casual acceptance of male violence has to stop. How can we expect this government to challenge VAWG if they allow this kind of thing?
- Moyra Women are Humans and have Human Rights.

- Nicola As a Women's Health Specialist who has worked within the NHS and the Health, Wellness & Fitness industry for almost 30 years, a mother of 2 daughters I am not prepared to see my daughters and other women being silenced and terrorised by a minority who "feel" and have no facts, no science to quote
- Linda Women are fed up with public threats of violence and actual violence against women and girls being ignored and downplayed by police, CPS and judiciary .
- Mark Uphill battle to defend the rights of women to be free from hate and violence if police and judiciary too cowardly and stupid to act against threats.
- Sarah Ordinary woman.
- Helen The bullying and intimidation of women while framing women as the abusers has to stop. Women must be protected from Trans Activists - this is a continuation of the war on women by male perpetrators.
- C Women need protecting, offenses against us are rising yet we are ignored, it all feeds into each other ignoring trans activists threats is another facet of the wider problem of everyday misogyny which is being emboldened on multiple fronts at once leading to women and girls being dehumanized.
- Craig Keep fighting.
- Jeff This horrible campaign against women must stop. All the years of women's equal rights struggle is being wasted, because the authorities are ignoring their victimisation.
- Amol This intimidation and calls for violence must not be tolerated.
And sex matters
- Craig Please keep men out of women's spaces
- Nicole As a mother of 3 daughters who are all starting out in young adult life I am deeply worried about the covert introduction of so called 'Trans Rights' by Media, Corporations, Schools, Politicians and even Women's shelters in the past few years, which directly conflict with Women's safety & Equality
- Andrew This blatant call for violence against women who state the correct and lawful position that sex is biologically determined and cannot be changed is appalling and cannot be tolerated. The safety and rights of biological women are under threat and this threat must be acknowledged and repelled.
- R I worry for the future of our young daughters in this current climate.

Catherine	Women won't wheesht
M	The verbal and physical assaults on us born as women are escalating ...the world really has gone mad . I have 4 granddaughters and fear for their safety and wellbeing due to the Trans tribe invading society unchallenged . They are a risk to women everywhere ..
Laura	Enough of the extermination of women rights....
Jessica	As a domestic violence survivor and mother to two teenage daughters please protect our daughter mothers wives
Linda	Women have rights and protections under the law that are been ignored, this then sends a clear message to men that they are above women in the eyes of the law. The law has to be fair, impartial and upheld.
Joseph	I wish all women the best and for them to be protected.
Cathy	Stop the violence! Stop the intimidation!
A	#Gender identity is meaningful to some, but shouldn't be equivalent in law & policy to a person's sex. #Single-sex facilities for women are needed & should be protected. Women who hold these ordinary views are verbally abused, threatened with violence, employment put at risk. This has to stop.
Roz	Its staggering misogyny. Thanks for standing up to this tyranny.
Ruth	Trans ideology has led to the formation of a cult. It uses the language of the legitimate civil rights movement to falsely deem 'non-trans people' as oppressors. It's a game we cannot win. The rules are a mind fuck of daily variance. It's time to put an end to playing with women's human rights.
Craig	Enough.
Terri	Humans can not change sex.... please stop acting like you don't know this!!
Suzanne	Too much violent speech and actions are targeted towards GC women. Unacceptable misogyny
Suzanne	It's a choice to change gender it's not a choice to be born female. I cany be held responsible for what others do in their lives and I'm no longer protected in safe spaces. What life do children n have knowing that boys are in the same toilets and changing rooms. Many trans women exposing genitalia

- Diane You can't say you are against VAWAG when you can clearly see VAWAG right under your nose
If you are serious in your pledge to stop violence towards women then Masked men turning up intimidating women fighting for their hard earned rights needs to stop right now
- EH We should all work for a world where people can live, dress, love and identify however they wish, without fear of stigma or harassment. It is possible to create that world without denying the reality of sex. Pretending that gender is real and sex is not erodes hard won women's rights & safeguarding.
- Lilli This level of violence aimed at women because they want to voice concerns is unacceptable
- Sam Sick to death of the threats towards women & girls. The government needs to stand up for women & children's rights & stop men invading women's safe spaces & stealing women's rights.
- Philip It is beyond my comprehension that any Government of any persuasion would allow the erosion of women's rights that we all see before us.
The 2010 equality act requires replacing or major reform as it is clear to most sensible people that it' is being used by bad faith actors.
- Jenny Transwomen are men, and their patterns of aggressive and threatening behaviour bear this fact out time and time again. Women are not being adequately protected against the erosion of our spaces and safety.
- S Prime Minister, you have daughters. How would you feel about men dressed as women:
Using their changing rooms,
Taking their hard earned place on the podium,
Taking their spot at a domestic violence refuge,
And countless other scenarios.
- A Violence against women and girls is not ever a joke. Women died fighting for their rights, the influence of this dangerous ideology (underpinned by men) needs to be stopped
- Simon All men should support this
- Emily-Toni I am a woman. An adult human Female. Every fibre of my being, my DNA, my large Gama and my Puberty are human rights as a girl, woman, a female.
You can not change sex. There are only two sexes

- Christine I thought we had gone past those of all days of the previous century & beyond. However it now seems to be worse than ever. Women deserve respect. Who will protect your mother, your sister, your wife, your daughters?
- R Help protect women, children and the human race. This is insane, madness and many families are destroyed because their child has none no contact due to influence from the TRAs.
- Tamsin Because if I was young now I'd be considered too much of a tomboy to be a girl....
Wear what you like, identify as you like but you cannot change your genes.
It's ok to be a girl with short hair just as it's ok to be a boy with long hair.
Stop removing 'woman' from our language..
- A Police are captured
- Michelle I will not see my Grandaughters future ruined by this hate crime against women. How many more Elianne Andams do we need to hear about before some one listens to what is being done
- Paul Support the common-sense majority.
Correct the misleading census information.
- Dominic This misogynist hatred against decent women must stop. Let's end it now.
- Violet Women are being erased in language and violence against them is escalating. We are going backwards and allowing women to be silenced and bullied for standing up for their rights. It has to stop. We need tougher sentences against men who commit violence and who issue threats to women.
- Leah Please protect women and girls from the GRA that allows any man who calls himself a woman out of women's spaces by getting rid of the GRA.
- Amanda Women matter
- Joan With the mainstream media remaining silent on this issue of trans activism violence we need strong government protection and condemnation and support from police now
- Marie We need robust laws to ensure the safety of women.
- Marita Well composed letter. You have my full support
- Y Intimidation and violence against women is becoming normalised and acceptable so long as the women are verbalising 'wrong think' It does not matter what our views are and if you agree with them or not, intimidation and violence should never be normalised or accepted, it should always be condemned.

- Susan No women should be threaten or intimidated for standing up for the rights of women born female.
- Stephanie This needs to stop. Telling a man that he can become a woman or a woman she can become a man is madness already. Telling ANY man that it's okay to harass, intimidate, or physically assault a woman because she tells him the TRUTH is a travesty. Stop this now.
- Brian May The force be with you.
- Michelle I would also include fully reassigned transsexual women, that have legal recognition with a GRC. We do not in any way support these nasty trans activists and are being damaged by them. We are nothing like them. Don't tar us with the same brush. We fully support women's rights.
- rebecca Put that man in jail!
- Jean This is a huge issue and it's about time we had a Prime Minister who stood up and spoke out about all the abuse women experience in this country
- Mica I totally agree with the words and intention of this petition. The request for our present prime minister to speak out for WOMEN'S RIGHTS loudly and clearly is more than timely with the abuse and even murder of women on the daily news.
- Janet Just so tired of women's safety and dignity not being taken seriously and very fearful for younger women and girls like my teenage daughter.
- Janet Just so tired of women's safety and dignity not being taken seriously and very fearful for younger women and girls like my teenage daughter.
- Emma Where is MY right to free speech? That great British value which is sadly now non existent? Why do the rights of a tiny proportion of the population trump the rights of half? Why are women STILL fighting in 2023?
Why are politicians so weak that they will not stand up and be counted?
- Chris It's important that facts are upheld. It's a dangerous world if we start ignoring basic facts and science to appease people feelings.
- Susan Extreme trans activism impacts on women's rights and is intended to silence women and is deeply misogynistic.

Mark	Protect women's rights and free speech
Jenny	Women are whole human beings, just as men are, with a role in reproduction which means they need protection in life and law. It is not hateful for women to assert this, and the government must protect women's rights to speak out.
Catriona	When ideology overtakes scientific fact and becomes the accepted truth we are in very dangerous territory
S	Trans rights activists have been allowed to get away with unacceptable behaviour and threats aided by the police. This behaviour has now accelerated and the police need to step in and stop this, not pander to them.
Anne	Trans activists claim to feel unsafe around anyone critical of gender identity ideology. This is a ruse to get people silenced and "cancelled". There's growing evidence of women being assaulted at rallies just for speaking up. This cannot continue. Violence is definitely not coming from both sides.
Willem	Good luck!
Bhagvati	The exact same people who threaten violence against women also wish to use women's toilets and refuse to let women have spaces away from men/them (Because they claim not to be safe from other men!!) And only women can menstruate, be pregnant and give birth. No amount of wishes will change that.
Fiona	You're a leader - lead!
K	Would the police have acted differently if he had said punch a (insert whichever special interest group the police are politically enamoured d by) ?
P	This issue is crucial to maintaining the sex based that women have finally begun to achieve. Neither medical science or the law can change anyone's biological sex, hormones and medical intervention create facsimiles, hormone, drug a medically dependent masculinised females and feminised males!
Kevin	When will politicians argue against shameful waste of funds on woke indoctrination in school, NHS, everywhere? Trans LIES are destroying families. Families ripped apart via estrangement as parents desperate for kids not to fall victim to STERILISATION. Help us.
Heather	Women are being erased at the expense of MEN with mental illness or who are into fetishism. We are targeted for speaking out about issues to do with OUR SEX. Where's Our freedom of speech?

- Marion I am a woman and a mother of two. I demand the right to say that out in the open without being violated for it. I'm 70, btw.
- A Being an openly gender critical woman means living in fear of male violence. This madness must end.
- Susan I fear for the future for my two young granddaughters if these pernicious hate crimes are allowed to continue without condemnation from politicians and robust legal action being taken
- Gerry From puberty I, like the vast majority of women, have suffered numerous incidents of abuse, sexual harassment, threats and violence from males. This can't continue.
- Charonne Enough is enough! This bullying and intimidation against women and girls has got to stop.
- Gil Saw you on GB news and felt it my duty as a woman and mum and nana to sign
- Susan It took over 100 years of fighting to develop the legislation that currently exists to protect women from persecution, intimidation and crimes against their person. These rights cannot be trumped by those of a minority group.
- Siobhan Love your work Sex Matters! You're doing an amazing job 😊
- Christina Although this signature is for British PM, please use your influence to bring this to the international community.
- Karen It's obviously which side is full of hatred. Hatred and violence against women! It's so wrong.
- L It is utterly inconceivable to Mr that in the 21st Century we are seeing a misogynistic rise in a new form of 'witch trials'. Where the London Mayor tells me to say "maaate", but turns a blind eye to trans activists openly wishing death on women protecting their rights. Trans activism is terrorism.
- Michael It has to stop before a woman is killed by these zealots. They are deranged and seemingly supported by the police.
- Niall Support GC 100%
- Fiona "Trans activists" campaign of intimidation is a cravenly open misogynist movement to put Women "back in our place" as second(class drones of society. It's financed and appears to have become so aggressive since about 2015 since NMP3 and WEP gained success. How very dare we.

- Gerry Violence is violence and should not be excused because the treat comes from a member of another protected group.
- M The next GE will, for me, be a single-issue election.
Any Party failing to stand up for women's rights & safety, and children's safety will not receive my vote (I know I'm not alone in this).
Women need actions not just (more) words from those in positions of authority & power.
- Linda I am concerned at the constant tirade against women that at several protests has become physical. I feel as though I am in a war and no-one is listening
- Suzanne Women need safe spaces. Changing gender is a choice being born a women is not. It feels as women have become low life's. Direct discrimination.
- Emma Please step in and stop the Scottish Hate Crime Bill which will effectively gag women from speaking openly about their sex based rights.
- Debbie I was born in 1960. I've lived through much hatred against women, I've heard the misogynistic 'jokes' of the 70s. 80s, 90s. been shouted at at harassed when protesting for women's rights such as equal pay, I've been sexually assaulted, at but I've never felt the fear that I do now.
- Elisabeth Women should not be the targets of hate and violence simply for standing up and telling the truth: that sex is binary, and it matters.
- Brynne Women deserve safety!
- Gill I've felt fear and anxiety walking through a crowd of masked men screaming abuse at women as we left a meeting. If this was any other group being abused there would be an outcry and action taken. That there isn't is a depressing state of affairs in the UK in the 21st century.
- Stuart As a retired lawyer, law professor and administrative judge I am appalled by these threats and the lack of serious action taken by the authorities to afford effective protection for women.
- James Please end the threats against the female sex.
- Alison It is impossible for any mammal to change sex. Please stand up for women, listen to the biologist Miriam Cates!!
- Mona Be the world leader that ends this horror and erasure of Women...now!

Hardy	I love women
Margaret	Thank you. Women must be hear and listen to, we fought for this for centuries
Pauline	STOP ALLOWING MEN IN WOMEN'S SPACES!!!
Marcia	Such an incredibly important petition that every woman in the country should sign.
Jon	I proudly support the belief that sex is binary and that females deserve their own safe spaces.
Kate	Recognise the extreme misogyny inherent in the trans lobby - commit to defending women and girls!
Wendy	I am 63 and have been a feminist lesbian all my life. I am now SCARED to go to pride, lesbian events etc. I recently LEFT a lgbt bookclub due to transactivism. This is different from the misogyny I've always challenged as the consequences are much greater. I feel that my rights have been removed.
Susan	I'm a lifelong Tory voter, if you want my next vote support women in this issue
CLARE	Please consider making this review UK wide. From a woman born, living and working in N.Ireland.
Alexandra	Thank you for all your hard work.
Leanne	Stopping violence against women includes the thugs that greet women every time we try and hold an event. Why should women need to meet in secret? Or get police involved? None of us feels safe.
Jo	Humans can't change sex. There are only two sexes and an infinite number of personalities. NB is BS. Trans ideology is homophobia. No woman has a penis. No man has a vagina. Leave the kids alone!
Michelle	Transsexual holders of a GRC, issued under the GRA 2004, must be afforded the same protection. They have, nor do they want any connection with these nasty trans activists. We fully support women's rights, because, by the rights given to us by the GRA, are our rights as well. You can include my name
Mila	This is really important . Sex matters

- Britt Ask a 'transrights activist' what rights they want for trans people - and there is no explanation that doesn't involve the belittling of womens' rights.
Most transrights activists do not even 'identify as' women.
And those that do can't explain coherently what it means to identify as a woman.
- Elena I have nothing Hmmm against gender non conformity, men and women should be allowed to dress and express themselves however they wish but no human has ever, or will ever, change their Sex.
- John All violence against women should be prosecuted, and trans activists should not be above the law.
- Carol Keep up your amazing work. I am with you.
- Colette The partiality that has been shown to this small group of men with psychological problems at the expense of women, has highlighted the chronic inequality of women in our society that prioritises male advantage at the expense of the female sex.
- Mary Violent men hv discovered a way to intimidate & attack women, verbally & physically without repercussion, by simply saying 'I'm a woman'
No one can change sex
Everyone knows that
Police stand by whilst abusive men shout down women then arrest women for stickers and tweets
ENOUGH! End this VAWG now
- Alicia I was served mis-conduct papers at work for retweets of yourselves and other people who believe in sex based rights. A member of public contacted my employer (West Yorkshire Police) to complain I was a "transphobe" because I don't believe people can change sex.
- Heather It is not acceptable that in a modern democratic country women are being intimidated, threatened, harassed attacked for talking about how their rights are being affected. It is not acceptable that our political leaders have been silent about this.
- Shona Keep MALES out of our women's public spaces! Women won't consent.
- L Absolutely disgraceful display of hatred and violence against women.
- Matthew I spent about 10 years of my legal career acting for women in domestic abuse cases. I watched men justify themselves and women apologise for being beaten up.
Transactivism often appears like domestic abuse on a grand scale.

- J. As a biological male, I have no problem w anyone living the way they wish as long as it doesn't harm anyone else. Not enough is being done to protect biological women's privacy concerns, women-only spaces, & women's right to express themselves. Current trans activism is overflowing w harm to women.
- Sarah As a disabled, and therefore vulnerable woman, I no longer want to leave home in case I need to use a public toilet
- Tracy Male aggression towards women should never be ignored.
- Felicitas I am so glad that you are doing this. Thank you !!!
- Yvonne It is incredible that no one has done anything to call out this behaviour. Therefore it is liable to continue.
- Yasar I want every woman to feel safe, respected and treated as equal as everyone else in our community.
- Tracy Men in frocks are not Women and we do not want them in our spaces!
- Ann I want to support my/our female sex-based rights & defend children from cult lie of "wrong body".
I've always been disabled & am at risk from aggressive cult followers pushing & worse. I'm frail but in a democratic society my freedom to speak should be strong as should my freedom from intimidation.
- Mary We need our government to stand up for the safety and dignity of women in an increasingly violent and intolerant campaign by trans activists. Stop looking the other way when women are threatened.
- Sonia Please Mr Sunak, protect our right to privacy and help keep us safe.
- Verity Misogyny has a new face. Now people born as men can incite violence against women and women are silenced and accused of transphobia. The small amount of activists who are violent are a dangerous but present minority. Male violence is now being labelled as female violence. Common sense is needed.
- Sally "Trans rights" is being used as a cover for extreme misogyny and violence against women and girls. It's time for law and policymakers to recognise this and take action to protect us. And the police need to start arresting and charging these violent thugs.
- Karen Violence against women and girls is getting worse leaving aside the Trans violence, 3 women a week are killed at the hands of a partner or ex partner THIS HAS TO BE ADDRESSED NOW!!

- L Enough is enough. Do something to protect women with gender critical views.
- Dee It should not be against kind of law or policy to safeguard the rights of women and girls by standing up for biological reality.
- Nigel Keep men out of women's spaces
- Alasdair I have been perturbed by the bullying of actual women who have the apparent effrontery to insist on the preservation of their sex based protections in hospitals, prisons and other public facilities. The militancy that they face, usually at the hands of masked and black clad thugs, is appalling.
- Michelle It is about time this issue is seriously addressed
- Andrea The whole world is watching. Please stand for freedom of speech for women defending women's rights.
- Lisa Make women (not females) seen, heard, witnessed, credible etc. They form half of the population. They deserve the support of biological men.
Men = biological sex characteristics of Male = linked to gender
Women = biological sex
Attributed characteristics as Female = linked to gender
- J thank you for doing this as it is one way it's ok to stop people stating the obvious but not when men in a dress threaten women with punches etc
- Liz I am a 72-year old mother and grandmother & have been a leftie all my adult life. When I said on twitter that a woman is an adult human female, I received a torrent of abuse. Imagine the shock of learning that I am, in fact, not a socialist but a conservative terf nazi. Biological facts not true.
- Clare I am a woman and mother who has, in the past, been subjected to sexual violence by men. My children are afraid to be honest with their beliefs in school and university for fear of aggression from others who are emboldened by the lack of consequence. Act now. PLEASE.
- issy It's getting worse and worse. Does a woman need to be *seriously hurt before you listen/act?
*sadly it's already happened. What now... will a woman be killed by trans activists?
- Margaret Women should not be living in fear of men and their aggressive behaviour. We are 51% of the population but grow up in fear of inexcusable male behaviour.
99% of violence to women, is by men!

- KARLA Why a minority of radical trans people are being protected and we women are not?
We're tax payers but the government doesn't listen.
Let's go to the streets and show them what we want.
- DARRON Women should be able to live freely without fear.
- Mrs Dawn Please protect women's rights not just men's entitlement to usurp and overrule women.
We have reached a point where it is a miscarriage of justice that men's feelings are protected over women's rights.
- Lesley The trans cult must be stopped
- Amy Protect women's rights against trans women
- A I too call upon our civic leaders at every level to defend women, girls, the vulnerable and our young people from gender ideology's campaign of erasure and intimidation of women.
- Christine Thank you to all the brave women who put the heads above the parapet for the mothers, sisters, daughters, and girlfriends.
- Edward Violent rhetoric against women standing up for their rights, rights supported by the majority of the population, should not go unpunished. Institutions such as universities, the main media outlets, police and now judiciary appear to be turning a blind eye to this.
History will not be kind!
- P Men's violence against women.
- Anke Thank you for your work and bravery. All best with this petition.
- H Sex is real. So is male violence.
- Carol Women should be allowed to speak freely, to assemble, to have single-sex spaces, to have fair and safe involvement in sports, and to be free from all violence. Violence directed at women standing up for these rights is blatant misogyny and should be recognised as such.
- D The safety of women and children should never be compromised. Really troubling people are normalising fetishes under the guise of trans and erasing boundaries to normalise things that could lead to even worse safeguarding than we have now.
- Gina For future women, stand together.
- Eileen The fact that misogyny is now clothed in progressive politics has been making it difficult for women to understand just how much a fringe group of men dislike women and want nothing more than to remove their rights. We have been hoodwinked but now women are fighting back

- Valarie This dangerous nonsense has to stop. I won't vote for any party that doesn't protect (as a female) my safety, dignity and human rights.
- Melanie Do it for your own daughters if nobody else!
- K It's very clear that the violence is only coming from one side.
- Babs Sex MATTERS!
- Mary My vote at the next election will be decided by the issue of women's rights. After a lifetime of voting Labour I now expect to vote Conservative.
- Frances I've campaigned for women's rights for 60 years and the misogyny just keeps getting worse
- Jan Trans women are Men.
Mental illness and or narcissistic personality disorders should not be affirmed.
Extensive Psychotherapy should be mandatory for all claiming to have gender dysphoria.
- Patricia Thank you for your work.
- Susanna Dear Prime Minister
We ask you to take urgent action to halt an escalating campaign of violence and intimidation against women in the name of "trans rights".
I support Sex Matters campaign.
- Mary Please Prime Minister, ask the police and CPS to act on violence, threats and intimidation of gender-critical women. Thank you
- Mrs C citizens should not be able to alter documents to deceive others. Everyone has the right to know if you were born male.
Law should be clarified that trans women are not women for any legal purpose.
Trans-women must be accommodated within the male category not the female.
- Geraldine Gay women fed up with some men using LGB peoples good reputation to attack and harm women. Women and girls are being hurt either physically or mentally. Stop the attacks and abuse, make the police do there job and follow the law. Trans is not a get out clause

- Pauline Do you really want kiddy fiddlers who say they self ID as women in female only spaces where your young daughters/granddaughters are getting changed?
- Karin Enough is enough.
- Susan Now, more than ever before, Women & children need protection and rights to stop being eroded or taken over by sexually aggressive male predators who larp around as women everywhere and worse. It is not hate or bigotry to state that it is impossible to change your sex.
- Suzanne Thank you the Sex Matters team x
- C Leave women's and men's spaces alone.
- Alicja I'm average person from Ukraine. I signing this because i don't support children sterilisation and trans people invading women/men spaces. I hope that gender cult never going to get power in Ukraine
- Jennifer Fully support demands.
- J This ferocious ongoing existential attack on women, by violent extremists must be stopped, or more could be harmed, raped or even killed.
- J Stop the political violence against women!
- Cristina It is time to go back to a free speech society, where reality and common sense prevail.
- Nic This trend of hatred from a group asking for tolerance is hypocritical and dangerous and action needs to be taken against offenders. This woke nonsense needs to stop. Women deserve our protection and support and they deserve privacy and security from this hate mob
- amanda Women are under threat. Let's see who stands up for us and who throws us under the bus...
- P This has to stop, NOW
- Jo I have been screamed at, pushed and called a Nazi by trans rights activists because I do not believe men can be women. Their aggression just makes me more determined and proves my point that these men are dangerous. I will never accept them in my single sex spaces.
- James The violence against women and the erosion of their place in society needs to stop. We are all born of a woman.

- Thalia Am still nervous of liking sane rational posts due to utter craziness of all this. Any argument that resorts to silencing or cancelling people and just labelling any person questioning as transphobic or a bigot should create alarm bells. Frightening state of affairs .
- Sharon Why are they allowing these MEN to wage a war against us?!!!!
- Nigel I have never experienced such vile abuse as when we protested against Drag Queen Story Time in Brighton and such intimidation as when we went to Posy Parker Let Women Speak there. Keep up the good work. Gender identity is not a protected characteristic.
- Elizabeth Women must be able to stand up to the abuse and erosion of our boundaries and rights we see from men on a daily basis, if we speak out we are bullied, harassed, threatened and even assaulted because male desire is centred in society over women's needs and rights. Women must be free to speak!
- M This is too important to ignore
- Smita The intimidation of making your opinions public and then bullied by faceless people is how anyone questioning sex is being silenced. Enough is enough!
- Stephen As a 62 year old man, I am horrified by the foolish, and condoned idea, that a man can become a woman or a woman become a man. Gender is sex, it is not something that you can alter. This sleeping country has to wake up and say NO to this madness. Politicians have to take the lead in this.
- Susan I am 70 years long next year and have served in the Women's Royal Army Corps and in the Metropolitan Police. In both it was our aim to protect democracy and free speech which are being eroded in general and against biological women in particular.
- Ms This violence and hatred towards women & girls from the trans community needs to stop.
We have every right to safe spaces based on sex and we should not be intimidated, bullied and assaulted for this.
- Julia The Home Office tracks statistics about hate crimes, yet hate crimes against women at not even listed, why? The Government's ill advised equality act started this mess and now women have to pay for it. The lack of action from the government is appalling and should be addressed no
- Niall Sex not gender
- Brian May The Force be with you.

- Celia This needs to stop before it's too late. Women are being targeted
- Sue Women matter and Women's Rights matter. Every single person on this planet is here because a woman gave birth to them.
- Louise Watching the aggressive and intimidating activists hounding women who want to let their opinion be heard is tantamount to assault. I am signing this to make my young daughter safe and equal!
- Donna I felt scared at Liverpool Let Women Speak event yesterday by aggressive men shouting at us.
- G Women and girls fought and died for our rights in Britain and we hoped that time had passed and we could concentrate our efforts on helping women across the world, but this misogynistic, homophobic and dangerous ideology means that once again, women must fight and face danger in Britain.
- D "If sex isn't real, there's no same-sex attraction. If sex isn't real, the lived reality of women globally is erased. I know and love trans people, but erasing the concept of sex removes the ability of many to meaningfully discuss their lives. It isn't hate to speak the truth." - JK Rowling
- Siya I would like to call on the PM, the Education Sec, Minister for Equalities and Women, to allow educational institutions, organisations, firms, businesses small/medium/big, corporations, government/ local council, to recognise views of gender critical beliefs in upholding free speech.
- J I hope that you will support through words and actions, women's right to free speech as a minimum. It is a basic freedom that all people in the UK should enjoy without the threats of violence that seem to follow GC women (and some men), seeking to meet peacefully.
- P Women have taken a long time to get any sort of equality, still not completely equal to men in many ways, but now all of that goes down the drain if men can just decide they are women cos women is just an idea in their heads.
- Judith Why is hatred of women and obvious implementation of it, not a Hate Crime. Why are we not protected?
- T This is a key issue for the next general election, and we need to see how each party stands on how they intend to protect women's rights going forward.

- Ian I am pleased to support your letter. The hostility shown to some of the signatures is unacceptable. Hard won women rights for women (adult human female) and young girls are being eroded. This is an excellent initiative.
- Stephanie if this is not stopped now, then the world we end up in is one where women are worse than slaves.
- K. Too angry to comment.
- T We need your voice.. ours are being drowned out!
- K Went to a let women speak event in Liverpool yesterday and experienced just how angry and intimidating some Trans rights activists can be.
- Craig I'll remind you who is Sovereign. THE PEOPLE. Serve.
- Razia Sex does matter. We have to keep women and children safe. It must be made clear to everybody that it is a crime to assault and intimidate women and children. Women need protection against the TRAs. Being a biological woman is becoming increasingly dangerous. Protect my rights.
- Eva It is disgraceful that women, including young women like myself, are living in a culture of intimidation and intellectual coercion. So-called gender critical beliefs are based in reality, truth, and sense. They are the secular view, not the fringe view. Women's rights are NOT a 'culture war' issue.
- Susannah University academic too afraid for my own safety and job (I am sole bread winner supporting 2 children) to speak publicly.
- Claudia Transactivism is harmful for women and women's rights. We want and we need to have that to be fixed in law.
- Ruth It is time the government took a stance against the escalating violence against women who are gender critical. It would seem hate and violence against women are tolerated as the government has neither spoken out against this haltered or acted to punish those who are determined to silence.
- Jean Time for the government to step up and take action to defend women's right to speak. Women's rights are human rights
- Maddie Women need the safe space of a ladies toilet, especially young teenagers experiencing their first periods. Schools should NOT be introducing unisex toilets.
I don't want my granddaughters sharing toilets with boys or men calling themselves women for that matter either.

Dianne	Stop this global war on women. Shame on you!
Michael	No-one is born in the wrong body.
Jenny	Too all the politicians Make a stand. Make your mother's, grandmothers , sisters, daughters proud. Protect REAL women's rights and spaces
Steven	If these women can find the courage to stand up against the hatred directed at them by men in dresses, then surely our Prime Minister can too. Make sure these women haters are dealt with in the proper manner and not with a slap on the wrist.
Vicki	Women are standing up all over the World, Grandmothers, Mothers, Sisters. Our voices matter. You Know This.
Dr Judy	As a lesbian I am sick of the lesbophobia of organisations, public offices, charities, schools and companies all telling me I am a bigot for not including MALES in my dating pool! Enough!
Malcolm	It seems that some males are hiding behind the label 'trans' to perpetrate their hateful misogyny with impunity. This must be challenged.
Mike	Do not be afraid to sign this!
H	Women are sick of being targets. We are sick of being at a permanent disadvantage. We are sick of reading horror stories in the papers. We are sick of living in fear. We are sick with worry about what the future holds for our daughters.
Anne	Gender is biological fact. Medical intervention cannot change the biological facts. Fantasy can bring great pleasure but should not be confused with truth.
Peter	We need to stand for reality, including biology. As an NHS volunteer, I have seen the absurdity of 'cervix-owners' and other demeaning terms hamper an already- overworked staff. Separate spaces for actual women are essential for dignity and safety.
Fiona	I'm 63. I've experienced violence (fractured eye socket) rape x3 and emotional abuse. I have a daughter (almost 23). I fear for her. Violence against women now is as bad as it ever was if not worse. Please make it your business, your priority.
E	I absolutely worry for my grandchildren and their future. Stop this brainwashing. You can't change your chromosomes !

- Robbie I was at LWS at the Reformer's Tree in Hyde Park on the day (last Sunday of July 2023, I think) when the Arms Trans Kids banner was on display. That was incitement to violence. The police looked on and did nothing.
- EVELYN Sex matters!
- Giancarlo I'm so very disturbed that at the core of this issue discussion is no longer tolerated. It saddens me deeply, as if we are losing the ability communicate. Language is distorted and reality is now replaced by science fiction. I hope this letter brings an end to the intimidation and violence
- Jenny We are told that gender critical women speaking out in some way threatens or harms the 'trans community' because they disagree with the prevailing orthodoxy, and if they do speak out they are threatened with appalling violence both physical and mental and suffer workplace bullying. This must stop.
- Jan Every right women have fought for over decades is at risk.
This is not about people with gender dysphoria who transition, the danger to women's rights is from trans rights activists who are seeking to obliterate the word and concept of women for their personal benefit.
- Angela I am proud to be considered a TERF. These Trans zealots who want to overpower women are just EVIL.
- Tom It's time those in Parliament returned to adulthood and quashed this nonsense which is permeating our society.
The ridiculous positions of some MPs causes real concern for their mental wellbeing.
- E We shouldn't have to ask for this, but we are.
- Susan This is a terrifying time for women and children. and we need protection from those who wish to harm us.
- Andrea The whole world is watching.
- Alison I am tired of women becoming second class citizens behind trans males.
- Teresa Women's rights are human rights.
- Martin It is vital for the Government to act to protect our women and girls from these trans activist bullies!
- Emma Gender critical beliefs are worthy of respect. We need to uphold sense as a country. Trans radical activism is the new face of misogyny. We need institutions to call out violence when it occurs, not to harass women, force people to believe the absurd and remove the spaces we need to keep protected.

- Jackie From one of the silent majority. This is truly violence against women.
- LM Please keep women safe and protect those who do not believe in Self ID
- Deborah I spoke publicly about rape and my own sexual assault only to be screamed at and intimidated. On leaving the event, myself and the other 100 plus women were cattle by a mob wishing to do serious harm. Many men were in black masks, this hides their face and is intimidating. Masks need to go. Protect us.
- Diane With an election coming, there is no better time than now to reassert your commitment to safeguarding women from male violence and violent trans activists.
- Mandy I am a woman. Female. I am a mother and grandmother.
I have breasts and a vagina. I breast fed my children.
Sex matters.
- Gina I simply won't not speak out. Women who want to speak about their reality are being abused and are victims of repeated hate and NOTHING is being done to deter the perpetrators of these crimes of harassment and incitement to violence.
The behaviour of activists towards women needs to be stopped. Now
- Victoria Incitement to violence is a criminal act, physical harassment is a criminal act, hate speech is now a criminal act - unless, of course, directed at women daring to voice an opinion? Classic discrimination.
- Aileen We shouldn't have to do this Weary...
- Lynne I have two young daughters and I want to keep them safe from predatory men wherever possible but especially spaces reserved for women & girls.
- Steph I'm frightened to ask my GP's Surgery that when I've asked for a "female nurse to do my Smear Test", and they've said "yes", do they mean an actual biological woman? I don't want repercussions checking my basic rights as a patient. My medical care/single sex spaces r not to validate men's feelings.
- Andy Great work, women need to show their voice to this and start the fight back!
- Barbara This is urgent. I have never seen anything like this level of misogyny in my lifetime and it's frightening.

- Kaykeigh This is one of the most important battles we as women are facing today. Male violence against women has always been there and continues to be. We need change NOW.
- Derek Keep up the reasoning and logic - history will be on our side. The cult of transgenderism is extremely dangerous and is being felt by many people. Protect the children and the women.
- Priscilla As a proud TERF I will not share my hard won women only space with born men.
- Sibyl As someone who has lost work for expressing gender critical views on social media, I am alarmed by the rise in hostile discriminatory behaviour against women who are simply talking about their everyday experiences and beliefs.
- Lynne The fear is real. Looking over your shoulder not knowing who to trust. This social experiment isn't 'kind' or diverse. It hasn't set women's rights backwards but jettisoned them into an insane dystopian reality where women are being dehumanised.
- Jessica Women matter!
- Alexandra This is a classic example of broken windows, what is next - 'he didn't mean to punch her'. If they allow this kind of violent rhetoric to go unchecked then women are at serious risk.
- Caroline Women should suffer no consequences for stating biological facts.
- Pat We need to defend women's rights and the biological reality rather than the ideology of hate and division many of the trans group pursue.
- Martin The police are strangely reluctant to confront trans extremists.
- Louise Horrified at the unequal treatment of women just trying to speak. It should be absolutely clear that this type of violence and intimidation is unacceptable in a democratic society.
- Olivia It's surreal that we need to be asking for this - that violent intimidation of women voicing lawful views relating to our most fundamental rights should be unacceptable. When does this stop? When women die?
- Amy Year after year women are chipping in small amounts of money to support other women fight court cases and Tribunals against their unjust treatment. There is enough support to make it happen. And they are winning them - they are not spurious or vexatious claims. This should not be necessary.
- Jan Stop the blatant hate.

- G Women's rights are not hateful. The institutionalised and publicly endorsed abuse and silencing of outspoken women is horrific and unacceptable. The government must set an example that such behaviour has no place in our society. Women are angry and we vote!
- Hope I was at the Let Women Speak event in Liverpool a few weeks ago. We were verbally abused for over an hour by aggressive trans activists.
- Carol I would like all violence and name calling slurs on Biological women to be unlawful and classified as hate crime
- Linda This must stop before someone is badly hurt. Let Women Speak
- Bev Querying access to single sex toilet provision, led to me being accused of 'hate speech' by two male councillors. Given neither male bothered to speak to me themselves, I'm left presuming their aim is to intimidate me into silence. It is not democratic to use the 'law' to silence & prevent q's.
- Karen The hatred and threats hurled towards women/girls/LGB rights supporters, from gender identity ideologists must stop. FULL STOP.
- N Allowing men to threaten violence against women, without sanction is reprehensible. Why is it that sex, a protected characteristic under the 2010 Equality Act is not protected, as an aggravating factor in crimes of violence, when it is the prime motivation for such a crime? It defies reason. P
- Jean We need to stop this brainwashing of our children's minds and allowing men to speak about women like they are doing. if they have a penis only they know what they plan to do with it. We have no way of knowing if they are a good male with a penis or a perpetrator with a penis. Fear
- Jillian I am a Woman, Daughter, Sister, Mother
We are the 50%
Our Sex Matters
- D This is a very important issue.
- Alex It is vital for women to be able to advocate for female spaces, rights and even existence without the agreement of men.
- Clair Biological sex is immutable and important. There are very good, evidence based reasons why single sex spaces exist. Those reasons do not disappear because men want entry into our sex based spaces. Quite the opposite.

- MEG Violence against women and girls is never acceptable.
- Elizabeth I am concerned for the future where we cannot define, acknowledge, or talk about female people and the unique experiences that come with being born and socialized female. if we cannot discuss who is female, how do we discuss systematic oppression against female people?
- Tara Listen to women.
Stand up for women.
- Maria Protect the rights of biological females in society to have their own spaces/places to be enshrined in the Equality Act. Sex is immutable and this should be included in the Equality Act to distinguish the differences between biological females and not conflated with males on any and every level.
- Julie Make these violent misogynistic males accountable for their actions.
- I. Threats of death & rape of women only belong in dictatorship. Show that Great Britain is a democratic entity that protects basic human rights of women to speak for themselves.
- Kate This is so important to stand up for. I stand with women and Sex Matters
- Rosy Women fought long and hard for decades to obtain our sex based rights and freedom from the control and domination of laws created by men for men. Gender ideology is just a men's movement that doubles down on porn inspired fantasies of what a woman is and gender roles. NO MEN IN WOMENS SPACES !!
- Martin The aggression is all coming from one side, and it is harming women and LGB people, but also trans people because of the growing irritation at the hateful narcissism displayed by extremists.
- K I have been doxxed & my family targeted by TRAs due to my belief that humans cannot change sex & campaigning for the rights of women & girls. I've had a man in the next bed in a female hospital ward. My mother was sexually assaulted on a stroke ward. My grandchildren are being indoctrinated. Enough!
- Catherine So, so grateful for you for standing up and speaking out. I do too, but it's the first time in my (long) life that I have ever had to think twice about expressing an opinion, no matter how considerably voiced.
I'm a biologist, distressed that academia is no longer the home of critical thinking.
- Jean We need to keep our female only spaces or you make extra spaces for trans people

Charlotte	West Midlands Ambulance service
K	Why is their speech not considered as hate speech or inciting violence when clearly it is? Why is saying "biology matters" considered hate speech when it is fact?
Angela	Stop this insanity. Only females (XX) are women. Slapping some rind and injecting some orange juice into an apple does not make an apple an orange. Protect female rights. Please.
Rita	We need to be given our rightful place in society.
Jane	Such an important issue and for the first time I'm a single-issue voter. Please support and protect women and children.
Silvana	What is happening around the world, is absolutely unbelievable! How can anyone think that allowing trans women in women's only spaces, women's sports, indoctrinating children, forcing us to say lies, like trans women are women, vilifying women, and many other things is right? I fear for my grandchildren!!!
L	We need to end this dangerous trend of turning a blind eye to threatening behaviour towards women in the name of 'trans rights'.
Glorya	The police need to uphold the law and stop this violence against women.
James	Biological sex is a reality and has implications that need acknowledgement. I sign this letter in support of those campaigning for this legal recognition and commend them for their bravery in fighting for justice and a fairer world for everyone, whilst seeking safeguarding for women and LGB folk.
charlie	You recently said 'A man is a man and a woman is a woman'. Please follow this through and protect gender critical beliefs.
Lesley S	Yes, as a woman I'm rather in favour of this. Hope that's okay with the men out there. Thank you kindly.
Pamela	Women will keep fighting until their rights are restored. This issue will never go away.
Juliet	Women should not fear expressing opinions and facts.
Donna	Women must be safe to speak in public about matters that affect them.
Devinder	Wishing you all the deserved success 🙏.

- Stephen Whether you focus principally on the freedom of speech aspect or the women's right dimension, these points are essential and, indeed, overdue.
- Jayne This visceral contempt for women who speak about their rights must be acknowledged and challenged. The intimidation and violence demonstrated by trans activists is a deeply disturbing manifestation of misogyny abroad. Please don't allow it to continue without redress.
- Joanne The targeting of women by trans activists is nothing short of domestic terrorism. Women's rights have to be protected right now, for the women of the future.
- C The erosion of our rights and language must be reversed. The institutional corruption of the public services by gender ideology needs to be addressed immediately. We need to be honest about the wave of women-hatred and violence being normalised under the guise of 'be kind'.
- Lesley The attempted erasure of women as a sex class by gender ideologists must end. Truth must prevail no one can change their sex and male bodies are unwelcome in our single sex protected spaces.
- Carla Thankful for strong, intelligent women heading up this up. Feel like I have to vote conservative as this is my make or break issue. It's so important woman and girls retain their language and not have to justify our case for equality which in its self is degrading. Thank you
- Andreia Talking about issues that only affect women and girls is never 'bigotry'.
- Johanne Stop this!!!! I am so sick of misogyny in ALL its forms. Women and Girls are Human Beings and half the bloody human race!!!!
It is 2023 and STILL we have rampant violence against Women/Girls. ALL MEN need to be held to account when violence/intimidation is aimed at women, no matter who they are.
- Greg Start prioritising women's rights
- Lisa Sick of it
- Val Shocking that these issues are not being taken seriously but that it is so, reflects the value put on womankind by the patriarchy.
- Sara Sex is a reality that should prevail in all areas above a social creation like gender. The government should act to reaffirm this reality in all areas of life.

- A Scottish Government had the chance to add misogyny to the hate crime bill and chose not to. But Trans is in there. Shame on them.
- Cathy Protect women from ALL men including men who calls themselves women.
- Emma Protect women and girls.
- Shona Only females can ever be women, men cannot. Women should never be threatened, harassed or stopped from speaking about our concerns and interests. Sort it out pretend conservatives!
- Tara It should not be a crime to tell the truth!
- DAVE Justice must be blind. If we choose to tolerate a 2 tier system then we Balkanise society
- Stephanie I'm tired, so tired of women being abused by men in whatever way they want. Physical, sexual, pay, stealing our spaces and names.
For gods sake do something.
- Lorna I'm 73 years old, it's 2023, I'm sick and tired of still having to fight for women's rights to safety and an equal voice!
- Tracey I have never been so afraid in my life. Dangerous men have been empowered and women have been silenced.
- Jane I can remember a time before women had these hard-earned rights, and I do not want to see them unfairly put aside now.
- K I am too scared to speak or give my full name. Please stop this.
- Nikolette I agree with the letter, because as J.K. Rowling has also highlighted, "We're living through the most misogynistic period I've experienced."
- Jacci From traffickers selling women and children for sex, to violent pornography, to men allowed to self ID to cheat at sport, and abuse women and children and avoid male prisons, to police who are perpetrators and call rape a minor crime – the list goes on and on. Women and children need justice now
- Edward Dear Prime Minister
Please do not tolerate violence and intimidation against women who are defending women's rights
- J Biology trumps ideology every time.

- J Before this trend escalates even further, there is an opportunity to halt these activists and to make it clear that verbally and physically attacking women and drowning out their events with intimidating noise in order to stop them expressing their opinion is against the law and morally wrong.
- Julie And today we've had another trans rights activist, Freda Wallace, shouting repeatedly through a megaphone 'If you see a TERF, punch them in the fucking face!' at a Let Women Speak event in London, and was he arrested?
- Chris Adult human female
- Stephen 1) In a democracy, do a handful of politicians have any natural authority to change the way we define male and female, all without ANY public vote on this issue?
2) Do politicians have any right to say to all girls and women 'You have to undress in front of this natal male, just because we say so?
- Michelle You must realise the big difference between those that come under the transgender umbrella, including the trans-activists and the genuine transsexuals. It is the transgender that threaten women and girls safety and not transsexuals. Learn the difference and target your campaigns at the right people.
- Lorna The violence, harassment and bullying against Gender Critical women is abhorrent. In a democratic society, Women must be able to freely exercise our lawful rights to speak and debate about issues affecting us without fearing threats, abuse or losing our jobs.
- C We call for safety on our streets.
Halt the silencing of women online & in print.
Keep our books on shelves. Let our voices be heard.
Protect women from coordinated human rights violations.
Let women speak. Because women matter.
Sex matters.
- Kristin We are 51% of the population and we matter!
- Suzanne Trans women are men, stop making us lie!
- V Please stand up for women, liberty and reality
- I. A Violence against women and girls is never OK.
That violence includes threats, intimidation, physical, psychological and sexual abuse and actual physical harm.
Women are not sub-human or a subset of men. We are 51% of the population. We are WOMEN.

Our rights need protecting.

- A This is simply a request to uphold values which enable a just society to exist. Erode women's rights and we all fall.
Misogyny and its associated cellmates is at an all-time high.
Please use your voice to help end this campaign of hate towards women simply fighting to uphold their rights.
- Elizabeth This is extremely important. Women are genuinely in danger from some of these men.
- F Single sex only facilities are necessary
- R Protect women and children
- Libby Pls take action PM - stop the threats of violence and assault against GC women.
Women should be able to stand up for women's rights without being intimidated & threatened. The police should protect us.
- I PLEASE step in to legislate against
- the violence, threats and intimidation of gender-critical women, and commission a rapid review on the impact of extreme transactivism on women's rights, and create a plan to DEAL WITH IT NOW
- Jane If we cannot talk about ourselves, our worries and troubles with other women and girls in public spaces without being harassed by men, and megaphones and aggressive behaviour then this is not a free country.
- Louise I'm increasingly concerned about vulnerable women and children in healthcare who need single sex services and feel unable to speak freely about this due to the threats and intimidation. We should be able to talk about this to protect those without a voice.
- Jolanta I sign your petition as I believe an honest debate on trans issues needs to happen. To tolerate insults against gender-critical people means to suffocate any debate. Thank you.
- John I am very concerned both that there is freedom of speech for gender critical voices and that women are afforded the protection that only biological female only spaces provide.
- Joanne I am more scared of being silenced by men claiming to be women than I am of the threats they make.

- Susan Kate I am appalled by the war on women and grateful to groups like this who are fighting for us. Thank you.
- Pam Female or male
Only ever Two choices
- Veronica I am 85 years old and I often lie awake at night worrying about life as it is now. As a young and middle aged adult I respected the following institutions
The Police
The BBC
The NHS
The National Trust.
I no longer respect any of them.
They are 'Woke', misogynistic and frightening.
- Martha Emboldened by the approval of politicians and media figureheads, trans rights activists have gotten away with a campaign of violence, threats and intimidation toward women who dare to say "no" i.e. No to males who want free access to female bathrooms, prisons and sports.
- A Defending women's rights is not bigotry. We need your support.
- Angela Biological reality trumps gender expression.
#womenwontwheesht
End this gender insanity for our future generations
- R. Being a female who is a sex realist isn't hateful. My life has been different to ANY MALE human - in its entirety.
I have been subjected to male violence from 3 years old.
I won't accept the idea that was made up by men 100 years ago, that 'wrong' males are to be accepted by us women.
I say no
- Jane Ask the significant women in your life, are they bigots if they simply want to feel safe in women's single sex spaces? Why are we vilified and threatened for saying this?
- L Women's sex based rights are fundamental to the safety, dignity and privacy of the most vulnerable of the sexes. Intimidating and threatening those with gender critical views must be dealt with harshly and promptly by police, no excuses.
- Ulrike Women should not receive abuse for asserting what a woman is: a female adult.
- Elaine Women must be protected

Deb	Women and girls deserve safety, privacy and dignity away from men, it's called safeguarding.
Joanne	We need to be heard on this matter. Please keep women safe. Our voices are being shouted down and this is not right.
Annette	We fought long and hard for our rights and now this!
Alice	We are women. We are not men, we are not an idea in a man's head, we are not defined by men. We are everywhere, each of us unique, not as a thing in relation to a man, but we are each individual people with a value that we set for ourself. Let us speak, let us meet, let us celebrate as WOMEN
Fi	This violence needs to stop. Young girls in my city being raped, assaulted, drugged, groomed on a daily basis. It has only gotten worse with a huge influx of Eastern European drug dealers. Now they will have the illegals from Scampton being bussed in every night. For ladies, girls, children. Do SOMETHING!
Ian	The threats of violence directed at women who assert the simple fact that sex is immutable and binary, must stop. The law must protect free speech but believers in sex denialism who use threats of violence to 'defend' their position, must be prosecuted.
Ruth	The government needs to make sure women have the right to defend women's rights and have freedom to discuss gender critical issues without fear of being sacked from employment.
Jea	The government need to ensure women are protected in law and in practice. The police are there to protect everyone, that includes adult human females.
Omar	Sex is defined by biology. Sex is what pronouns and sexual attraction are based on. Humans can't change sex.
Mark	Safeguarding women and girls matters.
Fiona	Protect women.
Andrea	Please look at the science and protect women
Jan	I find the lack of respect and outright hatred directed at women who simply want to preserve some female only spaces (including showers and changing rooms) incomprehensible. Please do not allow this to continue.

- Liz I can't believe that this letter is necessary in 2023.
Shameful.
- Francesca Dear Rishi
As a Cons member, who has met you & explained the situation women face on a daily basis, I urgently ask you to address this situation. My vote at the next GE will NOT be given to my local candidate unless the Conservatives resolve the many issues that have been raised by WR's org etc.
- Marianne Can we please start asking women and girls how they feel instead of us being told how to feel. Why don't they survey women and girls in schools and workplaces about this topic and sharing intimate spaces with males? Please give women a voice.
