Dear Ms Horton and Mr Ruthven

It has come to our attention that in the 'A Growing Threat — the Anti-Rights Movement in the UK' report published 8 July 2026 and in the technical explainer of the 'Like a Snowball' report published May 2026, SEEN in Publishing is listed as an 'anti-rights organization'. Furthermore, by listing our name, you have made the assertion that we are actively working against established human rights protections. We refute this characterization in its entirety.

Please set out with specific reference to our work, your reasoning for publishing this assertion.

We would be grateful for your early response.
